

THE HOME RUNS WON THE GAME FOR CALGARY

Brandon Played a Hard, Strong Game and Almost Got Away With It

The home run smashes again lived up to their reputation last night and though Bill Morrow's Lunatics came very nearly slipping one over on them, they finally handed it to them by 7 to 6.

It was close, though, and for sensational thrills it beat anything seen here yet this year. One time Brandon was ahead and then Calgary came back with a timely hit in the last inning. Brandon might have tied the score, but he was pitched out of the box.

Calgary's other homer was made by Del Paddock, and Del hit it so hard that Sullivan was still chasing it across the track when he came ramping in. But Bues, the first baseman, was the one who made the difference.

There was no score in the first inning, but in the second Brandon copped a brace. Sullivan singled and Cooper got a fielder's choice. Bues went out, but he advanced Cooper to second.

Calgary started the moving picture in the third. Connors was first up, but went out second to first. Stanley walked and got second on a passed ball, and came on in over the dish when Standridge put out his long snapper.

Then in Calgary's half of the fourth things happened again, and Kellackey got a pass, Flanagan sacrificed, and Connors was thrown out at first. Standridge came up, and amid yells of "win your own game, Pete," he put it away across the track where the others had gone before. Paddock flew out to center.

Brandon got two more in the fifth which tied the score, and in fact, it kind of looked to the bleachers as though they would keep right on getting them and not be satisfied with tying it, as the bases were full and nobody out. Rodoy was up and reached first on Connor's error. Dollstream singled and Schult walked, and the bases were covered. Sullivan put out a little one that bounded along to Connors, and he threw to home and Rodoy was forced out. Cooper made a good single and Dollstream reached. Shultz came in. Bues hit it out to Paddock and he muffed it, and the bases were full again.

Notes from the Diamond The Calgary team has struck the path at last and the way it is going now should place it quite a little in the lead. The men are hitting a terrific pace with the willow, and in the last five games have made seven home runs. They have won six straight games now, the last of the series with the Hat, four with Lethbridge, and the one last night with Brandon.

The first time that Wally Smith came to bat last night Johnny Reid stepped through the gate and walked out to the plate and handed the blushing Wally the five ten dollar bills he won when he drove out the homer on Saturday with the bases full. Wally blushed like a bride and slipped the wealthy papers to Bill Carney to hold until after the game, as Bill was the man with the most open trust-inspiring countenance of the bunch.

Rodoy, the blonde person who holds down the third upbase for Brandon, received a little welcoming ovation when he strode to the plate first last night. Sullivan was the only one who was downed, but he is now a regular member of the team, and is now a regular member of the team, and is now a regular member of the team.

Bill Carney may not have made as sensational a play as some of them, but if you watch you will notice that old Bill is doing a good thing just about every game, and in fact they often come by twos. Bill will run along prettily well in the batting averages if he keeps it up.

The Medicine Hat papers have a wild romance about the games which were played here last night, and the Hat on Saturday, May 21. That is the time you will remember that the hind leg of Pete Standridge and the ball colliding. The Hat papers say that Sam Neelds, who was officiating, suspended Bill Carney later for something like the rest of his natural life, but Bill insisted upon coming on in the evening, and Sam took to the woods and wouldn't umpire, all of which is news to the fans here. The protested game in the second inning, when Bill insisted upon playing the game.

The Toronto Baseball club reached the summit yesterday, and by the way that the men are playing they should root there for a considerable time yet. But you never can tell. See what happened to Pittsburgh.

Stanley took them all over before he struts the air with the pole, and last night he got two passes. He is also some on the grabbing them at the second stall when they try to steal, and last night he varied this by catching a guy napping off first. He had the ball in Kellackey's mitt before Woods knew he was off the sawdust.

Pete Standridge was hitting a 1000 per cent. last night and his fielding was the same. He was at bat twice and hit twice, one of them being a homer, and he had three assists. Pete's arm isn't in just as good shape as it might be yet, though, and Gehan being the strike-out pitcher, Carney thought he would see if little Eddie could do the trick when the bases were full and only one out. Little Eddie did.

In the first of the ninth when there were two men out Shultz shoved over two bagers, and then Heppie came over to the sack and took his place. It didn't do any good though, as Eddie just naturally ended the game by fanning Sullivan.

Flanagan pulled off a nice little stunt when he ran away over into left field and grabbed a high one that looked as though it would have been good for at least a couple of bags.

Johnny Reid Has Another Fifty Johnny Reid has paid out fifty dollars now to the man making a home run with the bases full. This is a stunt that is pulled off just about as frequently as hens teeth are supposed to occur, but the Calgary team is now off with the willow. Johnny has now offered fifty dollars to the first person or persons that pull off a triple play. Wonder how soon he will have to dig down again.
