

All Satisfied!

The Pamirs Boundary Dispute
Satisfactorily Settled.

Good Words for Talmage by the London Standard.

Berlin Excited Over the Reunion Between Bismarck and the Emperor.

Talmage Eulogized in London.

LONDON, Jan. 24.—The Standard has a leader concerning Talmage's resignation of his pastorate in Brooklyn. The writer, after speaking highly of Talmage's ability in the pulpit, says: "His usefulness was never impaired by scandal, and it will be very difficult to supply his place."

Mrs. Martin Objected.

LONDON, Jan. 24.—Mrs. John Biddulph Martin, formerly Victoria Woodhull, some time ago took action against the trustees of the British Museum on account of two books reporting the Beecher-Tilton trial, reflecting on her character, and yesterday it was announced in court that the books in question had been withdrawn.

Royalty's Affiliations.

LONDON, Jan. 24.—The Prince of Wales, in declining for the Princess an invitation to visit Belvoir castle, the residence of Duke of Rutland at Grantham, Lincolnshire, stated that the Princess would hereafter take no part in social events. Truth further says that the Princess is suffering from his old complaint and is unable to take much exercise. He will abandon riding.

The Bismarck-Kaiser Reunion.

BERLIN, Jan. 24.—It now appears that Col. Count von Moltke on his recent visit to Friedrichshagen was the bearer of an autograph letter to Prince Bismarck from the Emperor. It is stated today that a second autograph letter has been sent to the Prince by the Emperor, inviting the Prince to come to Berlin to take part in the celebrations in honor of the anniversary of his Majesty's birth, which occurs on Saturday next.

The Pamirs Boundary.

LONDON, Jan. 24.—The negotiations of the Foreign Office with Russia as the boundary of the Pamirs have resulted in an arrangement to which the Amer of Afghanistan has consented. All parties to the arrangement are satisfied. The State of Jakhhan, which the dispute concerned, has been left to the protection of the Amer. Russia has now settled with China their dispute as to the boundaries in the same region. It is reported that Lord Rosebery, Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, has obtained China's sanction to propose to France a convention in which Siam's integrity shall be declared inviolable, and shall be placed under the protection of France, Great Britain and China. This proposal seems to be intended to test the truth of France's declaration that she will not follow an aggressive policy in Asia.

Left for Freedom.

ODESSA, Jan. 25.—Over 2,700 pauper Jews started from this city for England during the past week.

The Floor Fell.

PARIS, Jan. 24.—The floor of a saleroom at Pincet, near St. Etienne, collapsed yesterday. Fifty persons were in the room at the time. Two of them were killed and twenty were injured. Some of the injured will die.

The Pope to Speak.

ROME, Jan. 25.—The Pope is preparing an important address which it is said he will deliver on Sunday in St. Peter's Church. It is expected the address will deal with the position of the Papacy toward current events in Italy.

A Fatal Collapse.

BERLIN, Jan. 25.—The gallery of the Ducal Riding School, of Götting, collapsed yesterday during the rehearsal for the festival of Jan. 31, when the duke will make his formal entry into the city. Four persons were killed and twelve others severely injured that they are likely to die.

A Peculiar Charge.

RIEL, Jan. 25.—Herr Stroebel, editor of the Volks-Zeitung, the local Socialistic organ, has been sentenced to imprisonment for one month at hard labor for asserting that the captain of the German ironclad Koenig Wilhelm punished marines by suspending them from the masts, as if crucified. Stroebel based his assertion on what he said was the sworn testimony of the ship's carpenter.

Terrible Railway Accident.

ST. PETERSBURG, Jan. 25.—A dispatch from Orenburg states that a railroad accident in which fifteen persons lost their lives has occurred at Samara, in Southeast Russia. A passenger and freight train ran into each other. There were five cars loaded with petroleum in the freight train, and these caught fire, resulting in the burning of the wrecked train. Many of those who lost their lives were burned to death.

A BOGUS NEPHEW.

UNCLE JOHN GROHL WAS GLAD TO SEE HIM
But it Cost Him $5,000.

TOLEDO, Jan. 25.—John Grohl, a rich farmer of East Toledo, has relatives in the West, but has heard little of them for years. Among them is a nephew about 25 years old. The other day a nice-looking young man appeared at Mr. Grohl's east side home and dropped his luggage, saying: "How is my dear old uncle of whom I have heard so much in the far west, but have been unable to see all these years. Let's have a good visit, uncle," he continued. "I was in this part of the country for a few days and I thought I would break away from business long enough to run over to Toledo and see you."

The young fellow had in reality come from the West, and knew all about the old gentleman's relatives. After rehearsing family history and anecdotes, the young man said that although young he had accumulated considerable property in the way of mining stocks and farming lands. He was sorry he could not remain in the city long, as his remittance from the West did not arrive and it bothered him.

Finally he suggested that if his uncle could loan him $5,000 for a day or so he could arrange matters so as to remain in the city a few days longer. The scheme worked, and the sharper got $5,000. He told his uncle he was going down town for a cigar, but he has not yet returned. Today Mr. Grohl received a note from the bogus nephew in which he said he was not the nephew at all, and did not want an innocent person to suffer. He said he was having a good time with the money, and hoped his "dear uncle" was in good health.

BY ELEVEN MAJORITY

The Nova Scotia Legislature Shelves the Woman Suffrage Bill.

HALIFAX, N. S., Jan. 24.—The House of Assembly this evening gave the three months hoist to the bill extending the franchise to women by a majority of eleven.

NOT TO SPITE HIS FACE.

But A. K. Klam Had Part of His Own
Nose Cut Off.

READING, Pa., Jan. 25.—A. K. Klam, of Exchange Place, New York, came to Reading five weeks ago and called at Dr. Ege's Surgical Institute. Klam is 28 years old, in good health and was of fine appearance, with the exception of his nose, which Dr. Ege says was so extremely large as to amount to a facial blemish. Klam said he was so greatly annoyed by its abnormal development that he desired an operation performed.

Dr. Ege put the man under the influence of chloroform and cut away a piece of the cartilage near the end of the nose three-quarters of an inch long, drew the lower portion and joined it to the upper part of the bridge to the nose, and the two sections were stitched together. The patient remained at Dr. Ege's until today. The wound healed nicely, the nose was straight and much smaller. Klam, well pleased, left for home looking like another man.

IN LABOR'S REALM.

Many American Industries Resume
Work—10,000 Ohio Miners May Be Shut Out.

MCKEESPORT, Pa., Jan. 25.—After an idleness of several weeks, about half the departments of the National tube works resumed operation this morning. Fully 1,000 men went to work at terms ordered by the company. This afternoon other departments of the National rolling mill resumed, and about the same number of men were given employment.

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 25.—Ten thousand miners of Ohio have refused to accept a reduction in wages. Eight hundred miners are idle in the Kanawha Valley and many are entirely without food. The coal mine operators have ordered all the coal mines closed at once, as the result of the coal miners' refusal to accept a reduction.

NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—The following revivals in business are reported: C. E. Varner & Co., knitting mill, Rockford, N. Y., resumed with full force; Saxtonville (Mass.) woolen mills, 250 employees and 1,000 men went to work at terms ordered by the company. This afternoon other departments of the National rolling mill resumed, and about the same number of men were given employment.

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 25.—Ten thousand miners of Ohio have refused to accept a reduction in wages. Eight hundred miners are idle in the Kanawha Valley and many are entirely without food. The coal mine operators have ordered all the coal mines closed at once, as the result of the coal miners' refusal to accept a reduction.

NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—The following revivals in business are reported: C. E. Varner & Co., knitting mill, Rockford, N. Y., resumed with full force; Saxtonville (Mass.) woolen mills, 250 employees and 1,000 men went to work at terms ordered by the company. This afternoon other departments of the National rolling mill resumed, and about the same number of men were given employment.

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 25.—Ten thousand miners of Ohio have refused to accept a reduction in wages. Eight hundred miners are idle in the Kanawha Valley and many are entirely without food. The coal mine operators have ordered all the coal mines closed at once, as the result of the coal miners' refusal to accept a reduction.

NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—The following revivals in business are reported: C. E. Varner & Co., knitting mill, Rockford, N. Y., resumed with full force; Saxtonville (Mass.) woolen mills, 250 employees and 1,000 men went to work at terms ordered by the company. This afternoon other departments of the National rolling mill resumed, and about the same number of men were given employment.

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 25.—Ten thousand miners of Ohio have refused to accept a reduction in wages. Eight hundred miners are idle in the Kanawha Valley and many are entirely without food. The coal mine operators have ordered all the coal mines closed at once, as the result of the coal miners' refusal to accept a reduction.

NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—The following revivals in business are reported: C. E. Varner & Co., knitting mill, Rockford, N. Y., resumed with full force; Saxtonville (Mass.) woolen mills, 250 employees and 1,000 men went to work at terms ordered by the company. This afternoon other departments of the National rolling mill resumed, and about the same number of men were given employment.

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 25.—Ten thousand miners of Ohio have refused to accept a reduction in wages. Eight hundred miners are idle in the Kanawha Valley and many are entirely without food. The coal mine operators have ordered all the coal mines closed at once, as the result of the coal miners' refusal to accept a reduction.

NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—The following revivals in business are reported: C. E. Varner & Co., knitting mill, Rockford, N. Y., resumed with full force; Saxtonville (Mass.) woolen mills, 250 employees and 1,000 men went to work at terms ordered by the company. This afternoon other departments of the National rolling mill resumed, and about the same number of men were given employment.

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 25.—Ten thousand miners of Ohio have refused to accept a reduction in wages. Eight hundred miners are idle in the Kanawha Valley and many are entirely without food. The coal mine operators have ordered all the coal mines closed at once, as the result of the coal miners' refusal to accept a reduction.

NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—The following revivals in business are reported: C. E. Varner & Co., knitting mill, Rockford, N. Y., resumed with full force; Saxtonville (Mass.) woolen mills, 250 employees and 1,000 men went to work at terms ordered by the company. This afternoon other departments of the National rolling mill resumed, and about the same number of men were given employment.

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 25.—Ten thousand miners of Ohio have refused to accept a reduction in wages. Eight hundred miners are idle in the Kanawha Valley and many are entirely without food. The coal mine operators have ordered all the coal mines closed at once, as the result of the coal miners' refusal to accept a reduction.

NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—The following revivals in business are reported: C. E. Varner & Co., knitting mill, Rockford, N. Y., resumed with full force; Saxtonville (Mass.) woolen mills, 250 employees and 1,000 men went to work at terms ordered by the company. This afternoon other departments of the National rolling mill resumed, and about the same number of men were given employment.

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 25.—Ten thousand miners of Ohio have refused to accept a reduction in wages. Eight hundred miners are idle in the Kanawha Valley and many are entirely without food. The coal mine operators have ordered all the coal mines closed at once, as the result of the coal miners' refusal to accept a reduction.

NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—The following revivals in business are reported: C. E. Varner & Co., knitting mill, Rockford, N. Y., resumed with full force; Saxtonville (Mass.) woolen mills, 250 employees and 1,000 men went to work at terms ordered by the company. This afternoon other departments of the National rolling mill resumed, and about the same number of men were given employment.

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 25.—Ten thousand miners of Ohio have refused to accept a reduction in wages. Eight hundred miners are idle in the Kanawha Valley and many are entirely without food. The coal mine operators have ordered all the coal mines closed at once, as the result of the coal miners' refusal to accept a reduction.

NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—The following revivals in business are reported: C. E. Varner & Co., knitting mill, Rockford, N. Y., resumed with full force; Saxtonville (Mass.) woolen mills, 250 employees and 1,000 men went to work at terms ordered by the company. This afternoon other departments of the National rolling mill resumed, and about the same number of men were given employment.

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 25.—Ten thousand miners of Ohio have refused to accept a reduction in wages. Eight hundred miners are idle in the Kanawha Valley and many are entirely without food. The coal mine operators have ordered all the coal mines closed at once, as the result of the coal miners' refusal to accept a reduction.

NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—The following revivals in business are reported: C. E. Varner & Co., knitting mill, Rockford, N. Y., resumed with full force; Saxtonville (Mass.) woolen mills, 250 employees and 1,000 men went to work at terms ordered by the company. This afternoon other departments of the National rolling mill resumed, and about the same number of men were given employment.

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 25.—Ten thousand miners of Ohio have refused to accept a reduction in wages. Eight hundred miners are idle in the Kanawha Valley and many are entirely without food. The coal mine operators have ordered all the coal mines closed at once, as the result of the coal miners' refusal to accept a reduction.

NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—The following revivals in business are reported: C. E. Varner & Co., knitting mill, Rockford, N. Y., resumed with full force; Saxtonville (Mass.) woolen mills, 250 employees and 1,000 men went to work at terms ordered by the company. This afternoon other departments of the National rolling mill resumed, and about the same number of men were given employment.

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 25.—Ten thousand miners of Ohio have refused to accept a reduction in wages. Eight hundred miners are idle in the Kanawha Valley and many are entirely without food. The coal mine operators have ordered all the coal mines closed at once, as the result of the coal miners' refusal to accept a reduction.

NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—The following revivals in business are reported: C. E. Varner & Co., knitting mill, Rockford, N. Y., resumed with full force; Saxtonville (Mass.) woolen mills, 250 employees and 1,000 men went to work at terms ordered by the company. This afternoon other departments of the National rolling mill resumed, and about the same number of men were given employment.

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 25.—Ten thousand miners of Ohio have refused to accept a reduction in wages. Eight hundred miners are idle in the Kanawha Valley and many are entirely without food. The coal mine operators have ordered all the coal mines closed at once, as the result of the coal miners' refusal to accept a reduction.

NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—The following revivals in business are reported: C. E. Varner & Co., knitting mill, Rockford, N. Y., resumed with full force; Saxtonville (Mass.) woolen mills, 250 employees and 1,000 men went to work at terms ordered by the company. This afternoon other departments of the National rolling mill resumed, and about the same number of men were given employment.

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 25.—Ten thousand miners of Ohio have refused to accept a reduction in wages. Eight hundred miners are idle in the Kanawha Valley and many are entirely without food. The coal mine operators have ordered all the coal mines closed at once, as the result of the coal miners' refusal to accept a reduction.

NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—The following revivals in business are reported: C. E. Varner & Co., knitting mill, Rockford, N. Y., resumed with full force; Saxtonville (Mass.) woolen mills, 250 employees and 1,000 men went to work at terms ordered by the company. This afternoon other departments of the National rolling mill resumed, and about the same number of men were given employment.

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 25.—Ten thousand miners of Ohio have refused to accept a reduction in wages. Eight hundred miners are idle in the Kanawha Valley and many are entirely without food. The coal mine operators have ordered all the coal mines closed at once, as the result of the coal miners' refusal to accept a reduction.

NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—The following revivals in business are reported: C. E. Varner & Co., knitting mill, Rockford, N. Y., resumed with full force; Saxtonville (Mass.) woolen mills, 250 employees and 1,000 men went to work at terms ordered by the company. This afternoon other departments of the National rolling mill resumed, and about the same number of men were given employment.

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 25.—Ten thousand miners of Ohio have refused to accept a reduction in wages. Eight hundred miners are idle in the Kanawha Valley and many are entirely without food. The coal mine operators have ordered all the coal mines closed at once, as the result of the coal miners' refusal to accept a reduction.

NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—The following revivals in business are reported: C. E. Varner & Co., knitting mill, Rockford, N. Y., resumed with full force; Saxtonville (Mass.) woolen mills, 250 employees and 1,000 men went to work at terms ordered by the company. This afternoon other departments of the National rolling mill resumed, and about the same number of men were given employment.

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 25.—Ten thousand miners of Ohio have refused to accept a reduction in wages. Eight hundred miners are idle in the Kanawha Valley and many are entirely without food. The coal mine operators have ordered all the coal mines closed at once, as the result of the coal miners' refusal to accept a reduction.

NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—The following revivals in business are reported: C. E. Varner & Co., knitting mill, Rockford, N. Y., resumed with full force; Saxtonville (Mass.) woolen mills, 250 employees and 1,000 men went to work at terms ordered by the company. This afternoon other departments of the National rolling mill resumed, and about the same number of men were given employment.

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 25.—Ten thousand miners of Ohio have refused to accept a reduction in wages. Eight hundred miners are idle in the Kanawha Valley and many are entirely without food. The coal mine operators have ordered all the coal mines closed at once, as the result of the coal miners' refusal to accept a reduction.

NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—The following revivals in business are reported: C. E. Varner & Co., knitting mill, Rockford, N. Y., resumed with full force; Saxtonville (Mass.) woolen mills, 250 employees and 1,000 men went to work at terms ordered by the company. This afternoon other departments of the National rolling mill resumed, and about the same number of men were given employment.

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 25.—Ten thousand miners of Ohio have refused to accept a reduction in wages. Eight hundred miners are idle in the Kanawha Valley and many are entirely without food. The coal mine operators have ordered all the coal mines closed at once, as the result of the coal miners' refusal to accept a reduction.

NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—The following revivals in business are reported: C. E. Varner & Co., knitting mill, Rockford, N. Y., resumed with full force; Saxtonville (Mass.) woolen mills, 250 employees and 1,000 men went to work at terms ordered by the company. This afternoon other departments of the National rolling mill resumed, and about the same number of men were given employment.

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 25.—Ten thousand miners of Ohio have refused to accept a reduction in wages. Eight hundred miners are idle in the Kanawha Valley and many are entirely without food. The coal mine operators have ordered all the coal mines closed at once, as the result of the coal miners' refusal to accept a reduction.

NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—The following revivals in business are reported: C. E. Varner & Co., knitting mill, Rockford, N. Y., resumed with full force; Saxtonville (Mass.) woolen mills, 250 employees and 1,000 men went to work at terms ordered by the company. This afternoon other departments of the National rolling mill resumed, and about the same number of men were given employment.

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 25.—Ten thousand miners of Ohio have refused to accept a reduction in wages. Eight hundred miners are idle in the Kanawha Valley and many are entirely without food. The coal mine operators have ordered all the coal mines closed at once, as the result of the coal miners' refusal to accept a reduction.

NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—The following revivals in business are reported: C. E. Varner & Co., knitting mill, Rockford, N. Y., resumed with full force; Saxtonville (Mass.) woolen mills, 250 employees and 1,000 men went to work at terms ordered by the company. This afternoon other departments of the National rolling mill resumed, and about the same number of men were given employment.

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 25.—Ten thousand miners of Ohio have refused to accept a reduction in wages. Eight hundred miners are idle in the Kanawha Valley and many are entirely without food. The coal mine operators have ordered all the coal mines closed at once, as the result of the coal miners' refusal to accept a reduction.

Late Canadian News.

Fatal Accident to the Quartermaster of the Oregon.

Institution of an O. U. W. Grand Lodge for Quebec—Serious Accident to a Three-Year Old.

Bradstreet's reports the assignment of F. R. Webb, dry goods, Petrolia, to J. J. McIntosh.

A man, supposed to be H. Romans, jumped from a train and was killed at Massey Station, Algoma, on Tuesday.

Emma Skinker, of Newmarket, is seeking $1,500 damages from Thomas Flanagan for, as she says, furnishing her son liquor contrary to the Liquor License Act.

A suggestion has been made by Mayor Stewart, of Hamilton, to the chairman of the Board of Works that the city control and operate its own electric light plant.

It is predicted that Rev. Dr. Mackay, the famous Chinese missionary, will be the next moderator of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Canada, which meets in Halifax in June.

The Grand Lodge of the Order of United Workmen met in Montreal on Wednesday evening for a new grand lodge for the Province of Quebec, Major E. L. Bond, of Montreal, was elected the first grand master workman.

Quartermaster John Hughes, of the steamer Oregon, who had his skull fractured by coming in contact with a piece of machinery on board the steamer while at Halifax, died on Wednesday. He was 40 years old and a native of England.

Louisa Wilton, the 3-year-old daughter of Mr. J. Wilton, Clarke street, Toronto, was running with her twin brother on Tuesday, and in some manner he fell on her heavily and broke her leg in two places. She was removed to Grace Hospital.

Mrs. Samuel Findlay, wife of a molder employed in the Massey-Harris Manufacturing Company, Toronto, fell dead Tuesday morning while combing one of her children's hair. She had been suffering from a serious attack of grip, and is thought to have succumbed to heart disease.

The wife of Judge Norman Ritchie, of the Supreme Court of Nova Scotia, died very suddenly on Wednesday evening.

THE P. P. A.

What the Convention Is Doing Behind Tiled Doors.

The Officers Elected—No Government
Official Need Apply—Wm. Bell
Shut Out.

Wednesday Afternoon's Proceedings.
HAMILTON, Ont., Jan. 24.—The P. P. A. convention continued in secret session this afternoon. For the office of president the names most freely mentioned are: J. H. McConnell, of Windsor, the present president; Rev. J. C. Madill, of Belwood, the present vice-president, and ex-Mayor Fleming, of Windsor.

Mr. McConnell is looked upon as an extremist by a large number of the delegates, and is thought to be too indiscreet for this important office. Rev. J. C. Madill is considered a moderate man and likely to be elected president.

A prominent P. P. A. Toronto or Hamilton man will be elected vice-president. Rev. F. R. Ghent will be re-elected chaplain, and Jackson L. Little, of Toronto, and E. J. McRobert, of London, will be re-elected secretary and treasurer respectively.

Many of the delegates favor a change in the name of the order from the Protestant Protective Association to the Canadian Protective Association.

The oath of the Canadian order is identical with that of the American Protective Association, and its ritual, constitution and general principles are almost unchanged.

One of the statements made by Grand President McConnell in his address was that in the last Provincial election 300,000 votes were polled; that the P. P. A. now controlled 17 per cent. of this number, and before the next Provincial election the association expects to control 30 per cent. of the legitimate vote in Ontario.

The delegates are almost a unit in their indorsement of D'Alton McCarthy, their leader in the Dominion House of Commons, but have not fixed the leaders in the Legislature. They look to each district to nominate a candidate who will uphold the aims of the association, and are prepared to make it very interesting for both political factions.

HAMILTON, Jan. 25.—The election for officers for the ensuing year was begun yesterday afternoon, but did not close until night. President McConnell, ex-Mayor Fleming, of Windsor, and Rev. J. C. Madill, of Belwood, stood for the presidency. The Rev. Mr. Madill was elected by a large majority. Mr. J. Kennerley, Messrs. E. J. McRobert, of London, and Jackson Little, of Toronto, were elected treasurer and secretary, respectively; the Rev. J. Ghent, Walkerville, chaplain; Mr. J. Harper, Hamilton, secretary of state; Mr. R. Noxon, of Brandon, Man., J. Graham, Havelock, and W. Smith, Barrie, were elected to the offices of guards.

Thirteen of yesterday afternoon's session was ex-Aim. Wm. Bell's attempt to gain admission to the convention, and its failure. Bell is a Toronto customs official and a big Orangeman. He is known as King William. He had a certificate from the president of a P. P. A. lodge in Toronto, and presented it at the door. The credential committee referred it to the Grand Council, and that body decided that no Government official of either party should enter the convention, nor should any man come in who did not have a certificate from the lodge to which he belonged.

Reducing the Licenses.
HAMILTON, Jan. 24.—The city council last night, by an almost unanimous vote, decided to reduce the liquor licenses from 95 to 75.

South Huron Patrons.
HENSALL, Jan. 24.—A meeting of the Patrons of Industry for the south riding of Huron was held in Coxworth's Hall to elect to nominate a candidate for the Local Legislature. The convention's choice fell on S. M. Sanders, of Stephen, who, with an able address, accepted the nomination.

PUGILISTIC PROBABILITIES.

No Sure Thing That the Jacksonville Fight Will Materialize.

Sports Amuse Themselves by Betting on the Doubtful Question—Curling and Hockey Contests.

ATHLETICS.

THE JACKSONVILLE SITUATION.
JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Jan. 24.—The situation at this hour (7 p.m.) is this: State Circuit Judge Call has granted the Duval Club an injunction restraining the sheriff of this county from interfering with an contest which the club proposes to hold in the fair grounds to-morrow.

Corbett and Mitchell have arrived in the training quarters and are resting quietly in their hotels.

The club is rapidly disposing of $25 tickets to the fight, but the referee has not yet received the $20,000 purse in cash, and as a result of this condition the liveliest business is being done in town in betting on whether or not the fight will take place. Even money is being wagered freely on this question.

Georgia troops are held in readiness to prevent the fight taking place in that State.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Jan. 24.—Attorney Cowles, of Jacksonville, Florida, reports to Clarence Greely, general agent of the International Law and Order League, as follows: "It looks to me as if the Corbett-Mitchell fight is likely to be declared off yet. A financial failure is certain, and that means that it will never be tried again anywhere until the governor as well as local sentiment is found favorable. This will narrow the field of battle, and you have gained a decided triumph whatever the outcome."

NEWSPAPER ENTERPRISE.
The New York World has a novel method of bulletining the Mitchell-Corbett fight. From the dome of the towering building an electric cloud-projector prints in the air the result by rounds. The writing can be read by all New York from any point in the city.

CRICKET.
The Winnipeg Cricket Club has decided to hold an inter-provincial tournament during the coming summer between Ontario and Manitoba and British Columbia.

STRATFORD DEFEATED BY AYE.
AYE, Jan. 24.—A western group hockey match played at Ayr this evening between Stratford and Ayr resulted in favor of Ayr 11 to 2.

CURLING.
FOR THE TANKARD.
In the final game at Lindsay between Orillia and Lindsay in the primary competition group No. 3, Orillia won by 5 shots.

At Guelph the following clubs in group 12 played their primary matches: Fergus 36 and Parkdale 39; Berlin 32 and Galt 35; Milton 37 and Guelph 48.

Parkdale and Guelph played off in the evening, Guelph defeating Parkdale 38 to 36. Galt and Guelph play the final to-morrow.

CANADA GETS THERE.
ST. PAUL, Minn., Jan. 25.—The last match in the bantamweight was completed yesterday afternoon. The contest for the Geo. F. Hall trophy was won by the Shaws, of Winnipeg, by a score of 17 to 12. The Jobbers' Union trophy goes to Winnipeg. The Walkerville tankard was won by Canadian rinks from twelve American rinks—161 to 155.

The consolation prize becomes the property of the rink of W. A. Fraser, of Winnipeg.

CONCISE CULLINGS.

Sir Henry Ponsonby, the Queen's private secretary, who is 69 years of age, is seriously ill.

The death is announced of Mrs. Austen, sole surviving sister of Cardinal Manning, whose senior she was.

The Washington Board of Trade on Wednesday passed resolutions looking to reciprocal trade with Canada.

Peckham, the second of Cleveland's nominees for Supreme Court judge, is likely to be rejected by the Senate.

Fifty convicts confined in the branch State prison at Cole Creek, Tenn., escaped Tuesday evening. Several were shot, and those who succeeded in escaping were scattered.

PROSTITUTION OF NATIONAL SOCIETIES.
(Kington News.)

The only danger is that the baser element in any or all of the national societies may make their existence an excuse for prejudices which have grown up in the course of centuries in the old country. Racial feeling must not set Canadian against Canadian—for if it should, ruin would be the result. And even our patriotic love for our own Dominion must not confine our sympathies within its boundary lines—for beyond and around and including the brotherhood of the nation there is the brotherhood of man, in which every human being, by virtue of his birth, can claim a place.

ALL MEN

Young, old or middle-aged, who find themselves nervous, weak and exhausted, who are broken down from excess or overwork, resulting in many of the following symptoms: Mental depression, premature old age, loss of vitality, loss of memory, bad dreams, dim