From the amount of work and excitement that goes into the average furnish some lively happenings. As a matter of fact, it is one of the quietest of days. All that can be done to insure success has been done; and it remains to more or less calmly await the issue. The absence of a contest for the mayoralty has taken much of the interest out of today's election. During the morning hours the polling was of the lightest. Between 12 and 2 there was some improvement, voters taking advantage of the dinner hour in which to register, but from present indications when the polls close at 5 o'clock a light vote will have been registered.

FALL CAUSED DEATH

Mrs. Tierney Fell on Sidewalk-Sustained Serious Injury.

Mrs. Mary Tierney, mother of Mrs. John Lewis, died last night at her home on Albert street after a short illness. The effect of a fall on a slippery city sidewalk, sustained about two weeks ago, is thought to have caused death. Mrs. Tierney had lived in the city for a great number of years and was high esteemed by a host of friends. Several children, among whom are William and Mrs. John Lewis, of this city, survive.
