Cynthia Grey's Answers Helps for Every Woman Follow the Bill-o'-Fare

I WAS THE WAS WAS WAS WAS THE A PAGE FOR WOMEN

Daily Tea Table Talk Letters by Billie Burke Stories for Children

Billie Burke, in Paris, Finds the French Girl Is Innocent as a Baby and as Quietly Dressed

The Frenchman, however, does not confuse innocence and purity. HE and truly they are as chic as they are literally does not want the woman he marries to have any knowledge of life and its responsibilities. But he seemly wants her to acquire it immediately she marries him! This is the reason why young girls in France are never allowed to read the TO WEAR her clothes. It is one of the great French novels nor see the great first things taught little girls and one

The young girl does NOT go into soclety, except to certain functions with riage as the French girl practices her mother or other chaperon.

The pictures I am sending you are of the very latest gowns worn by the young girls in the best French families, modest. American girls under 20 would do well to copy these styles.

There is also another thing in the young Parisienne's favor. Every French woman of good society knows HOW they retain until the last.

Notice the grace of the "new" car-

PROBLEMS OF THE FAIR SEX SOLVED BY CYNTHIA GREY

as possible, and to write on one side of the paper only. It is impos-

[Correspondents are requested to make their inquiries as brief and contrasts it with that which may When you see her at her mother's be seen on Fifth avenue and Broad-"at home day" she sits quielty and you way.

Her Skin Is Shiny.

What will keep the skin from getting shiny I have used good talcums, soap, and cannot understand why my

Daily Menu

BREAKFAST.

Sliced Peaches. Apple Fritters.

Steamed Eggs. Light Rolls.

Coffee.

DINNER.

Roast Chicken. Browned Potatoes.

Corn Pudding. Tomaco Sa.ad.

SUPPER.

Cold Sliced Chicken.

Lettuce Salad. Rolls. Currant Jelly. Tea.

Monday.

BREAKFAST

Melens. Rice with Cream.

Fried Ham. Toast.

Coffee

DINNER.

Irish Stew with Dumplings.

Sugared Beets. Cabbige Salad.

Custard Pie. Coffee.

SUPPER,

Potato Salad. Stuffed Eggs.

Fresh Berries. Cake.

Gooseberry Catchup .- To every pound

Tea.

Steamed Peach Pudding.

answer the following:

and leaving the straw standing. To come down to more modern times it was in 1785 that an Englishman named Lloft devised a machine considerably superior to the one described above, and ever since that time improvements and new inventions have been added until we have the apparently perfect article of today. In 1833 one Obed Hussey, an American, invented the wave-edged knife, which Pefore Entering Normal.

1. What subjects are included in the lower school examination which one must write before entering the Normal standard for luncheon, and they are all loud in their praise of her. This mal school? At what date are these appreciation is doubtless the incentive held, and when must the application to her successful efforts. to write be sent to the department?

2. What causes one to bite his finger nais, and what will prevent this? 3. Can one enter either a model o normal school before he is eighteen: 4. What do you think of my writing, etter form, and English? Thanking you, I remain, AN INQUIRER. A .- 1. I have consulted an authority in the matter, who tells me that the subjects to write upon are, Ancient history, British and Canadian history, algebra, geometry, literature, composition, physics or chemistry, Latin most to a froth. authors, Latin prose, German authors, German prose, and (optional) French authors and prose. Application forms can be had from the principals of the various high schools in the province about the 24th of May. Examinations are held usually during the last two weeks of June, dates differing but slightly each year. When application form is filled in, $5 should be forwarded with it.

2. It is a bad habit. To cure it children, I have heard of mothers dipping their fingers into some bitter liquid, so that when the youngsters bite the nails the bitter taste will help to break them of the habit. think, though, that a grown person should have will power enough to stop without resorting to this means.

4. Your penmanship and English are very good. The appearance of your letter is neat, but why not leave a ittle margin at the left hand side of the paper, instead of crowding the writing right to the edge?

Tea-Table Talk

than the magic phrase "Fire Sale," and if you Fire Sale are hunting for a proof press," just distribute Frenchmen.

Of course, American girls are prettier than French girls, for the American sale" advertisement amongst your femining friends and them to the course of the cou girl has intelligence in her face and, feminine friends, and then be on hand Action. he next morning to witness the resu Ten to one, not a single woman of the big. Get 6's instead." number will be absent in the hunt for child, I know these will fit you best. unless they have mental fascination and bargains, and if you have the courage apiritual charm, as well as physical to remain in the midst of the conglom- Yes, 89c they are. erate assemblage of women, you will be firmly convinced of the truth of the

> I said "If you have the courage to strength of mind, surely has a "poor show" when it comes to seizing an article which perhaps a dozen or more women are certain is just what they want. Like a straw whirling in a maelstrom, the poor, lone man is apt to be completely submerged.

His troubles would, in fact, begin long before the doors of the "fire sale" place are open. Where have all the women come from? is his first thought. They are massed from the Poor, extreme edge of the sidewalk to the very

Lone doors of the building. They hug the wall for vards along the street They peer in at the windows, and many envious glances at those in the front ranks are cast by those who arrive late. "Women, women, every. where, but not-" another masculine

Just ahead of the Lone Man looms a woman of most ample proportions, her hat slightly askew. get some school shoes for Willie," she Dear Miss Grey: Almost everybody tells the little mite of a woman next Will you to her. "Just you stick to me. I'll kindly tell me if it would be proper get you through all right," continues the fat woman, nodding her head in an endeavor to straighten her turban "Awful hot, isn't it?" says the little nicknames on calling cards. The full weman, fanning herself with her hand-Christian name, as well as the sur-kerchief, and endeavoring to keep away frem the hatpin point projecting rom another woman's hat. A fresh contingent of bargain-seek ers arrive, and with that cunning acquired from frequent and long pracice, commence working their the front of the waiting crowd, spite the murmurs of rebellion from those they push to the rear. the doors open?" asks one of them greeting an acquaintance. "Why it's and altogether the Lone Man feels de-

series of exclamations and a gen-

Daily Healthogram

Plenty of water to drink and a fair allowance of fruit should be given a child twenty months old.

He may have oranges, lemons,

prunes and pincapples. Toasted bread, crackers and cereals will not injure him.

almost 9 o'clock," she says in an aggrieved tone. "Good morning, Mrs. Blank," calls another voice behind the Lone Man. 'Oh, don't look at me; I'm a fright, I know. You see it was so hot I just left off my cor—" Here the speaker The Brantford Papers. evidently discovers the presence of the Lone Man in the crowd, perhaps by the nudges of the women around her and subsides into a horrified whisper Several women around glare at him, cidedly uncomfortable and out place. His ears burn, and just as he Dear Miss Grey: Being a farmer's daughter I am interested in mowing wonders if he can stand it any longer, machines and the like. Now, can you water if necessary to keep them from before you think possible. Away back After they are cooked, run through a in the first century of the Christian era sieve and return pulp to kettle and add Pliny the elder found a reaping maspices and sugar enough to sweeten. chine in Gaul. He described it as Then cook twenty minutes and add the sort of van, with projecting teeth on

When "Mrs. Society" Cooks

kind as to answer the following chose to do so. Her salads are most delicious and unusual, and her children

SALAD.

One of her favorite salads is made of kumquots or oranges cut in thin slices. One pound of malaga grapes seeded, two apples cut in small strips and tip nds of celery of the tenderest sort. Over this she pours a dressing of six tablespoons of oil and one tablespoon of lemon juice, a half teaspoon, each, of salt, and paprika and a dash of nutmeg. The dressing is beaten al-

the art of a chef. MRS. GOULD'S PEANUT CANDY.

eral forward movement proclaim that the doors have at last been opened. Our man's hat is tipped over his nose, and about a dozen square-cornered handbags press into his ribs from various sides, but he is carried onward with the rest. Presently there is pause at the door. Some woman with a baby carriage is blocking the way for the moment. "Pity she couldn' There are, perhaps no two words in have left the baby at home for once, the English language that catch a woman's eye quicker in a newspaper tures. tures.

Once inside the store everything is quick action. This is a "shoe" fire of the "power of the sale, and the Lone Man for once has a feeling of being pushed to the wall, "Here, Mary, we'll take a pair of these 7's for you.' "No, mamma, I don't want them; they're too Here, clerk, will you wrap them up?

"Yes, I know my last ones were statement so frequently made, that it fours," this from another woman is the feminine sex who compose the handling a pair at the "three" countgreat bargain-hunting population of this continent.

of this continent.

of why, really, madam, I had just de cided upon tha't pair for myself," the remain," for one lone man unless he Lone Man turns at the sound of an be of gigantic proportions and unusal injured voice to see one large woman and one small, both looking very defiant and each grasping one shoe of robin and a sparrow quarrelling over worm. The good-natured shoe man finally settles the dispute by producing a second pair, which he assures them and this pair is marked $1.18. I'll give you a street car ticket for the difference," comes from a woman holding out a pair of sixes of a bright yellow hue. The Lone Man does not hear the answer for he is too busy observing another woman who buys three pairs of shoes of different sizes for her 6-year-old son. "They will come in handy as he grows. Nothing like having a supply on hand."

and clutching and perspiring, and in the midst of it all the bewildered Lone Man completely forgets what he has come for, and slips homeward, planning to return at not quite so busy a time as a "fire sale."

MRS. GEORGE GOULD. Another original salad with her, the chafing dish two cupfuls of mowhich she calls her "salty salad," is lasses, one of brown sugar, one cupful made of one cup of chopped clives, one of butter. One tablespoon of lemon up of chopped roquefort cheese and juice and one-half teaspoonful of salt. spoons of oil, one tablespoon of lemon children to open the peanuts, of which al portions on large crisp lettuce ing candy is tested in water every few leaves, and on top of each sprinkle seconds by the eager children, and pulverized boiled egg-the white first when it cools and grows hard and crisp and then the yellow on top, a spoonful it is removed from the lamp instantly of caviar. Truly this salad is worthy of and poured over the nuts. Just before the art of a chef.

it becomes perfectly hardened so that it breaks crisply and evenly when quite cool, it is cut into small blocks or

The Poets' Corner

THE SOLDIER'S DREAM.

Our bugles sang truce, for the nightcloud had lower'd, And the sentinel stars set their watch in the sky; and thousands had sunk on the ground overpower'd, The weary to sleep, and the wounded to die.

When reposing that night on my pallet of straw, By the wolf-scaring faggot that guarded the slain, At the dead of the night a sweet vision

And thrice 'ere the morning I dreamt Methought from the battlefield's dreadful array,

Far, far I had roam'd on a desolate Twas autumn-and sunshine arose of the way To the home of my fathers that welcomed me back, flew to the pleasant fields traversed so In life's morning march, when my bosom was young;

heard my own mountain-goats bleating And knew the sweet strain that the corn-reapers sung

Then pledged we the wine-cup, and fondly I swore From my home and my weeping friends never to part; My little ones kiss'd me a times o'er, And my wife sobb'd aloud in her ful-ness of heart. 'Stay, stay with us! rest!-thou art weary and worn!" And fain was their war-broken soldier of morn, And the voice in my dreaming ear melted away. -Thomas Campbell.

what awful beings they are in the eyes Everything she possesses is impreg-How little do lovely women know of inexperienced youth!-Washington nated with her chosen perfume.

Copenhagen (Denmark) school teachers Pictorial Review Is

HOME BURCHAT Clocks and the Housekeeper Speaking of the house for a place to please it

clocks reminds In vain. But if I place it down on me that there its side, as I would cradle an infant, unfortunate victim arrives either too of clocks as friends—anat strikes nine date or too early for an engagement, when it is five o'clock and twelve

AUGUST COMMENCES TUESDAY

KINGSMILL'S August Sales are famous for their economies, and the opening sales will prove "good buying." Don't miss coming here Tuesday, for the lines offered are all fresh, stylish quality goods at worth-while savings.

50c Elastic Belts | 50c and 75c Silks for 25c

In black and almost all colors, good quality, in plain and fancy elastic with gilt, gunmetal and fancy buckles.

$1.25 Long Hip Corsets, 79c

Stylish, comfortable Corsets, made of imported French coutil with 6 (six) hose supporters attached, drawstring at top, hook at bottom, guaranteed rust-

$1.50 Umbrellas for $1.19

Men's and Women's Fine Umbrellas. Just 12 dozen to be sold. Some fine twill covers. Some gloria silk and wool covers with tape edge, paragon frames, bulb or plain runner. Great variety of

$1.25 and $1.50 Waists, 59c

A few only Spotted Muslin

Waists in white with dots of mauve, blue or black; also black with white. Come early ...... 2 for 45¢

Just 68 pairs of large size Pure Linen Huck Towels, extra good quality and finish. Will be cleared Tuesday . . . .

at 25c and 39c

We've about 140 yards of fine Foulard Silks, black and white and a few colors. Regular 50c yard. On sale Tuesday ...... 25¢

A few pieces of Striped

Tamoline Silks. Regular 75c

yard. Tuesday, to clear. 39¢

Cotton Voiles,

18c Yard

and Figured Voiles, in all colors, that wash well. Plenty of white and black. Regular 25c and 35c yard qualities.

See them in west window. A yard ..... 18¢

Linen Huck

Towels, 45c Pair

A final clearance of Striped

MAIL ORDERS FILLED.

How To Use Perfume

Although so many women indulge in fact, a definite scent scheme is wholly, perfume, comparatively few ever use it delightful and will soon become charac-correctly. Yet one has but to recall teristic of the user. correctly. All the lingerie and handkerchiefs the quaint devices employed by our great-grandmothers for perfuming got up at home should be done in water everything pertaining to their personal to which a small piece of orris root use to realize that there are many ways has been added. Little silk sachets fillof using scent beyond merely drench- ed with wadding sprinkled with the ing one's handkerchief of the odorous essential oil of the chosen perfume or crushed orris root should be placed iquid. Always buy good scent. For cheap scent is never satisfactory. Strong perfumes are not in good taste, folds of frocks and skirts. Small musnor should any scent be used in excess. A faint, elusive fragrance which makes described, may be hung up in the wardone long for more is the ideal thing; and, though popular taste often favors kept. overpowering scents, present suggestion of perfume. Correctly used scent gives a finishing touch to refinement and elegance, pose, and the matter is well worthy of little But sorrow return'd with the dawning attention from the woman who wishes to make the most of herself.

Settle On One Kind. The smart woman settles on her favorite perfume and keeps to it. She gloves should be dusted over occasioncarries about with her an enveloping ally with scented French chalk. The atmosphere of delicate fragrance, popular perfumes for scenting gloves an ordinary scent spray for the pur-Perfumed Gloves. Scented gloves are an exquisite luxury. To achieve this, small scented sachets should be kept in the glove box and renewed frequently. Also the with are orris root, cedar and sandalamong the lingerie or sewed in the lin bags filled with scented wadding, as robe or cuphoard where clothes are

Another method of perfuming raiment is to sprinkle it with scent, using

Attractive Magazine the windows, pulling admit the cooler air. August Issue a Particularly Bright keep this cool atmosphere in and One.

"What has bcome of Miss Sixteen?" is the subject of a strong editorial from the pen of Arthur T. Vance in the August number of the Pictorial Review. The writer deplores the "grownup-ness" of the average miss of that age, and reveals some rather startling truths in a way calculated to make fathers think of their responsibilities towards their growing daughters. Besides this leading article the magazine is, as usual, up-to-date and attractive in every department, and contains some most useful reading matter in regard to household management. Auntibels corner, "Ideas for Moneymaking," is especially bright this month, and should interest others besides the young girls for whom it is written.

"Cross-Stitch Embroidery for Summer Afternoons" forms an interesting page, while other attractive headings are "Care of Musical Instruments,"
"What Is New in Stationery," "Minor Ailments of Children," and "Lemon-ades and Lemon Aids." The fashion department is, as always, full of practical and pretty designs for women and children, for the thoughtful person interested in sex problems the page article on "Wanted, Good Wives for Good Men," will give much food for contemplation.

The section devoted to fiction contains several particularly bright storles this month. Taken all around the August Pictorial Review is an admirable magazine.

KEEPING THE HOUSE COOL.

Capture all the cool air the house will hold at the time the air is cool-

Then keep out the warmer air when There's a time when the breezes" bring an air of freshness after even the hottest night. This is the time to throw open the windows, pulling back curtains to Then close windows and doors to keep the overheated air without. Close shutters and inner blinds as Where light is necessary see that; windows where sun is shining are kept closed. Keep all inside doors open to) start a circulation of air.

Ferns give an atmosphere of cool-An uncorked bottle of lavender salts will add a refreshing tang to

HOW TO TIE SASHES.

Sashes may be tied at the side of the back, with short ends, or may hang from a flat bow directly in the middle of the back with long, side-plaited ends, caught up at the bottom by hemstitched bands of ribbon or silk. Picot-edged ribbon sashes have tasselled ends. Small sashes tie directly in the middle of the front with threeinch loops edged with five-inch fringe.

ATTEND OUR JULY FURNITURE SALE

Clearing all Refrigerators and Verandah Chairs at half price.

Wolf & Sons

263-265 DUNDAS STREET. Near Wellington.

herries should be nearly ripe. Stem and have today, but I am curious to know, elip off the blossoms and wash thoroughly and if you can tell me I will be very and place in a granite kettle, then mash and scald thoroughly, adding very little A.—Yes, Miss Farmer Girl, they had sible to give replies within a stated time, as all letters have to be answered in turn. No letters can be answered privately.]

face should not take the powder. BROWN EYES. Dear Miss Grey: Will you please A.—For an oily skin some have used human being in sight, thinks the Lone has lotion with excellent effect: Elder- Man, except one or two small boys lower water, three ounces; tincture of with their mammas, and a half a dozen enzoin, one-half ounce. Apply after or so who cling on the outskirts of the washing the face. Using bran or oat- crowd anxiously hoping "sumpthin" and face powders, but they do not meal water in place of soap is also will happen." seem to stick to my skin like with an excellent thing to keep away the thank the fates, we are getting to know that women cannot be beautiful

"shiny" look.

some people. I also wash with good Has a Nickname. alls me by a nickname. to have this engraved on my calling cards? A .- It is considered improper to use > name, should be engraved. What Should They Anewer?

Dear Miss Grey: We are three young girls of 18. We do not seem to be very popular with the boys. We are considered rather nice-looking. What is tho reason? when meeting a gentleman for the first time and on leaving he says, "I am glad to have met you," what should we answer? A .- I am sure I really do not know why you are not popular with the boys. I think you are a bit young to be worrying about the matter. Simply answer "Thank you" when a young man says "I am glad to have met you."

Dear Miss Grey: Would you kindly tell me if Brantford prints a daily paper and what it is called? JUNE. There are two dailies in Brantford, the Expositor and the Courier.

The Invention of Mowers. of the berries use one pint of vinegar tell me who it was that first invented and two tablespoonfuls each of pulver- a mower? I know it must have been ized mace, cloves and cinnamon. The different to the up-to-date article we

Then cook twenty mindes and add the sort of van, with projecting teeth on vinegar. Bottle while hot. If too thin the edge, driven on two wheels by a boll down after the vinegar has been pair of yoked oxen. It was a rude affair, which tore off the heads of grain!

fashionable cooks, and many of these smart women have invented some very tempting dishes, which at times they was a great improvement over the old set triumphantly before their friends. Mrs. George Gould, for example, is n accomplished artist in this direction. She could write a pretty little cook Dear Miss Grey: Would you be so book of her original recipes if she

MRS. GEORGE GOULD'S FRUIT

MRS. GOULD'S SALTY SALAD.

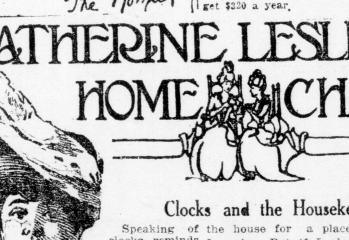

one-half cup of Spanish peppers cut While this is simmering in an interestfine. For the dressing use three table- ing fashion, the fair cook helps the juice, one-half teaspoon of mustard there is a pint when shelled. These and one-half teaspoon of black pepper. nuts, divested of their skins, are laid When served it is arranged in individu- thickly over buttered pans. The boil-

Cook together in the shallow pan of sticks.

word from you, Mary." the same pair. They look quite ridiculous standing there like a cock are "just as good."

"I haven't a cent more than $1.13

And so the sale goes on, with clamor

perversely human ways.

ults

more interest- it begins to tic-tac quite cheerfully and associat- keeps good time at that. I know anwith the other clock-it is Jane's-that life of a housekeeper than a clock. go only if you stand it on its head. There is nothing that she con- As it has an alarm bell there, Jane more often daily -- except has to place it in a cup! There with t be her mirror—than the face of her its legs in the air and its face inde lock. Her risings and returnings are cipherable because of its topsy-turvy egulated by those inecorable hands, condition it goes gaily. But, as Jane per comings and goings, her engage- pointed out to me, a clock that stands ments and her rests. A well-regulated on its head necessitates that condition clock, like a well-regulated woman, is for the people who own it if they a treasure untold in a household. It would know the time! And as Jane is one of the first essentials of a is a person at all times and in all pothly run household. But there is places and under all circumstances comething exasperatingly human mindful of dignity, she feels that she dout clocks. I suppose it is because must part with a clock of such illof their long association with humans regulated behavior. Yet its eccenthat they take on at times the most tricities appeal to her sense of humor perversely human ways. They are and I notice that the clock still stands not always truthful, diminishing or on its head in the cup. But more caexaggerating the time so that their pricious is a clock I know-one thinks

Between clocks and street cars it is when it is eight. Then it begins all a wonder that anyone ever arrives any- over refusing to have its striking reguwhere! Then clocks are so subject lated by the hands. By a system of ost. to tantrums! I have one that refuses calculation that causes my brain to absolutely to go unless I put it down reel the owner of the clock is yet the temperature rises. on its side. I wind it, shake it, search able to tell the exact time!