

BLAMES WOMEN VOTERS FOR BALDWIN'S DEFEAT

BALDWIN FEELS KEENLY DEFEAT OF HIS PARTY

British Prime Minister Will Announce His Intention on Monday Next.

YOUNGER'S OPINION

Associated Press Despatch. London, Dec. 8.—Prime Minister Baldwin this morning was taking stock of the wreckage caused by the defeat of his party in Thursday's general election and conferring with some of the leaders of his party over the unparalleled political situation which involves a stalemate in the House of Commons. It is stated, however, that any decision regarding his intentions will not be announced until he has conferred with his cabinet, which is scheduled to meet Monday.

Meanwhile all sorts of rumors are rife and the entire country is at sixes and sevens over the political situation, which, it seemed, would remain obscure through the week-end at least.

Several of the Conservative leaders, including Viscount Younger, Lord Cave and Sir Philip Lloyd George, called at No. 10 Downing street this morning and consulted with the premier, Lord Stamfordham, private secretary to King George, also visited Mr. Baldwin.

The prime minister, who is said to feel his defeat very keenly, left at noon for Chequer Court, his official country residence, for the week-end, and it seemed probable that several of the leaders of the Conservative party would join him there for a conference.

Lord Younger in a statement to the newspapermen attributed the Conservative defeat to the women voters, whom he asserted had been frightened by the stories of dearest food if protection won.

"The country has reached a stalemate and we must see how they like it," he said. "The king's government must be carried on by somebody."

Y MEN'S CLUB MAKES FIRST BOW IN FOREST CITY

Efforts of Edward Jenkins, General Secretary Here, Are Successful.

OFFICERS ELECTED

Following the formation of the Y's Men's Club in the United States a similar organization has recently been formed in this city.

A group of clubs for the various Young Men's Christian Associations in the State of Ohio which had originally been separate units in their own cities came together for affiliation. They agreed to unite under the mutual title of the Ohio Association of Y's Men's Clubs.

Edward Jenkins, general secretary of the London Y. M. C. A., conceived the idea of forming such a club in this city. Mr. Jenkins worked strenuously in face of doubt and disappointment, aided only by a small band of faithful enthusiasts.

The new organization gradually took form and on Nov. 15, a dinner was held at which an unanimous vote was recorded in favor of the formation of the club. Last Tuesday evening the task was completed and the Y's Men's Club of London was formed.

The objects and purposes of this club are several, and may be summed up briefly as follows: To cultivate good fellowship among Y. M. C. A. members everywhere; to promote among Y's men ethical and profitable business ideas and courtesies; to enable Y's men to keep better informed on all matters of civic, national, economic and social interest; to support deserving philanthropic and social movements; to encourage efficiency and justice in civic affairs; to free from political interference; to develop a substantial patriotism by sound character building; to stimulate the use of all Y. M. C. A. privileges creating a closer bond with its members; to foster the goodwill of the general public toward all Y. M. C. A.'s, and to serve the association in whatever capacity opportunity may offer.

The selection of a board of directors to govern the activities of the local club was left in the hands of the membership body and through a distributed ballot the following members were elected as directors: F. G. McAllister; A. D. Limon, Dr. H. B. Sykes, C. A. Jackson, C. B. Rush, R. M. Reiscoe, R. E. Crouch, B. A. Swayze, W. J. Clarke, C. S. Bowie, A. J. Rayner, and R. E. Wilson.

The officers are: President, Mr. A. D. Limon; first vice-president, Mr. F. G. McAllister; second vice-president, Mr. R. M. Briscoe; secretary, Dr. H. B. Sykes; treasurer, Mr. C. B. Rush; program committee, Mr. Ed. Jenkins; membership committee, Mr. A. D. Limon; Mr. W. J. Clarke; social committee, Dr. H. B. Sykes; athletic committee, A. J. Rayner; public relations committee, W. B. Riddell; visiting committee, C. B. Rush; Fellowship committee, B. A. Swayze; Fellowship committee, C. S. Bowie; Fellowship committee, C. H. Jackson.

The last municipal elections involved an expenditure of more than $3,000, according to figures available at the city offices today. The amount, $3,792, was charged up as pay for deputy returning officers, poll clerks, and the rent of private residences for polling purposes.

The board of education will receive $315 for the use of schoolrooms, $7 for each room, while the separate school board will receive $14 for the same purpose. Delivery of screens to the various polling booths meant an expense of $25.

There are other expenditures which could be indirectly charged to the election, as the publication of the city of London activities, voters' list, etc.

Mayor Wenige Visits the Doll Shop

That's what Mayor Wenige said when he dropped into the Doll Lady's shop in the old Advertiser building on Dundas street yesterday. The mayor was so taken by the wonderful dolls that he wants the Doll Lady to give him one for his little daughter, Marion.

"NEVER SAW SUCH A WONDERFUL DOLL."

"RATTLE" STUMPED CONSTABLE: O. T. A. CASE IS DISMISSED

Defendants Deny Knowledge of Bottles Rattling in West London Barn.

INTOXICANTS FOUND

What is a rattle? Failure of a police constable to answer this question to the satisfaction of the court resulted in the acquittal of five men charged with having liquor in other than a private dwelling at police court this morning.

The men were kicking up a rumpus at 83 Dundas street last night and neighbors complained to the police. P. C. Williams was sent to investigate.

At the rear of the building the officer said he saw a number of men come out and walk to the end of the yard to a shed. He also heard rattles. Then he entered and told them of the complaints from neighbors. Later he went to the shed in the rear and discovered a number of bottles containing cider and alcohol.

The principal defendant, on the stand claimed he had no knowledge of the bottles. They had been deposited there by some person unknown to him.

"Witness for the crown has submitted no evidence that can be accepted," counsel for the defence said. "He merely saw some men leaving the house and walking to the end of the yard. What kind of a rattle? Perhaps it wasn't the rattle of a bottle at all. The evidence is no evidence at all. The officer himself might have placed the bottles there."

"Do you mean to suggest—" began the court.

"On the counsel returned, 'but it's just as reasonable to suppose the constable put them there as the men put them there. In that neighborhood' the magistrate asked. 'It's full of them.' Chief Birrell replied.

"The evidence does not seem to be sufficiently strong to convict," the court decided. "I will dismiss the case."

HE WANTS TO GIVE DOLLS TO THE SICK CHILDREN

Doll Lady's Fame is Spreading and Her Shop is Crowded.

GOING QUICKLY

Little Girls on Every Street Plan Sewing Bees and Tea Parties.

The Doll Lady is going to bring happiness to the city's orphans and sick children.

Last night a man came to her Doll Shop in the old Advertiser building on Dundas street. He wanted to look at the dolls, and when he saw one of them walk along the table and heard her say "I'm glad to see you," he said: "Every little girl in London ought to have one of those dolls. They're great! I haven't any children, but I'm going out to try to win some of your dolls to give away in the hospitals at Christmas."

More people than ever visited the Doll Shop today. The Doll Lady's fame is spreading and little girls on every street are planning tea parties and sewing bees for the beautiful dolls they hope to have home with them in a few days. Already two or three dozen little girls have received their dolls and they are all very happy making the new arrivals feel at home.
