The prohibition plebiscite campaign opens in Kent county on Saturday next by a convention of the Kent Association at Chatham.

The open air concert and lawn so cial held on the rectory grounds, Florence, on Friday evening last, under the auspices of the Guild and congregation of St. Matthew's Church, was one of the most successful ever given in this vicinity. There were between five and six hundred present. An attractive literary and musical programme was presented, which was highly appreciated. Mr. H. R. McDonald, London, sustained his former good reputation. and Mr. Walter Mills, of Ridgetown was much appreciated in the elocutionary selections which he rendered as well as in the solos he sang. Th Florence orchestra, under the leader ship of Mr. McTavish, rendered acceptable music. Although the admission was only 15 ents for adults and 10 cents for children, and the expenses heavy the net receipts amounted to $60.
