To His Worship, the Mayor, and Board of

of the active militia of Victoria was gone

Various sites in different parts of the suburbs of Victoria were submitted to and examined by Mr. Weatherbe. I may say, of all the sites so examined, the old range att Glover Point was the only one which, in Mr. Weatherbe's opision, fulfilled in any suburbs of Victoria were submitted to and examined by Mr. Weatherbe. I may say, of all the sites so examined, the old range at Clover Point was the only one which, in Ald. Hayward inquired if there was all the states are the city solicitor for action.

Ald. Hayward inquired if there was all the city solicitor for action. Mr. Weatherbe's opinion, fulfilled in any measure the conditions laid down by the militia department of Canada, in the selection of wife ranges.

And. Hayward inquired in one of succepted and responsible to the amountment.

lection of rifle ranges.

I had the pleasure of accompanying Mr. Mr. Bradburn thought it would.

An amendment to the amendment, adopting the report, was accordingly offered by Ald. Humphrey and Kinsman, and this prevailed. range as conveniently situated as possible, use every possible endeavor to get all data and information concerning the Clover Point the many interesting concerning the Curry Potats and the complete of the potation control of the Curry Potats of the gatter can be schaulted in a control of the country of the potation of the country o

Victoria, Oct. 5, 1899.

tions.

Ald. MacGregor opposed the suggested

Victoria, Oct. 5, 1899.

Ald. MacGregor opposed the suggested

Vears, for securing connection by a little 100x20 foot steamer.

the matter of a rifle range for the use the report be referred back for a further less than $8,000 a year. explanation from the solicitor. This was supported and seconded by

Ald. MacGregor opposed the suggested action, maintaining that there should be no compromise. He thought that $20 the council's approval; while as to the was more than Mr. Keller asked (prowided he got three pieces of pipe which works of the militial department of canthe report be referred back for a further of the Victoria outer wharf was not was not the report to That Part and the matter of a rifle rence for the very seamer must be built subject to the council's approval; while as to the council's approval; while as to the council subject to

Ald, Hayward moved in amendar

Gouncil Reads
The By-Low,

If Science by Agent a part of the street of t outside world. This being the case, he would support the smallest amount named—if he could not have the pleasure of assisting in knocking it out altogether.

Ald. Brydon thought it was too much to sak the citizens of Victoria to support the smallest amount sak the citizens of Victoria to support the smaller smaller stands of the control of the smaller smal offered by Ald. Humphrey and Kinsman, and this prevailed.

THEIR LEADERS.

Volces the Disgust of Honest Liberals.

A weluminous report was received from the city engineer and assessor with reference to the cost of permanent paving for Yates street, from Government to the upper corner of Broad. The total cost is stated at $5,500, of which the city's proportion would be $3,050.

A motion to adopt this report and assessor with reference to the cost of permanent paving for Yates street, from Government to the upper corner of Broad. The total cost is stated at $5,500, of which the city's proportion would be $3,050.

A motion to adopt this report and the major.

Gregor, Beckwith and Hayward.

Against—Ald. Cameron, Humphrey, Humphrey, Brydon, Stewart and the Mayor.

Ald. Williams bitterly assailed the Mayor story assailed the Mayor's vote, asserting that His Worship did his best to thwart every move in the direction of improving the city's position.

The alderman was repeatedly called to order, but declined to accept the military adopted the course of which he said:

"I believe the reason why our leads adopted the order, but declined to accept the military adopted the meeting of the Winnipeg Liberal Association held last night was a complete turn down for E. D. Martin, president of the association, and Ald. Mathers was appointed to the office. Martin made a lengthy speech attacking the government in the course of which he said:

"I believe the reason why our leads the motion had last night was a complete turn down for E. D. Martin president of the association, and Ald. Mathers was appointed to the office. Martin made a lengthy speech attacking the government in the course of which he said:

"I believe the reason why our leads the mathematical transfer and the mayor's very association held last night was a complete turn down for E. D. Martin made a lengthy speech attacking the dividence of the winning turn down for E. D. Martin made a lengthy speech attacking the city is proportion with the city is proportion with the city is proportion with the city is proportion.

The ald Winnipeg, Oct. 10.-The result of the

Specific Approximation of Community and Control of Cont

The Princess Louise and the Vancouver steamer Coquitlam both being con-siderably overdue from Nonthern British lumbia ports, the supposition is that take the ship Drumlanrig to Vancouver.

Ship Elwell, lumber-laden from Chemainus, has gone to sea.

The Quadra was around at Esquimalt yesterday, overhauling the harbor buoys.
The steamer Humboldt calls at Van.

The steamer Humboldt calls at Van. The Quadra was around at Esquimalt yesterday, overhauling the harbor buoys.

The steamer Humboldt calls at Vancouver for Cape Nome yesterday, with Capt. Otto Bucholtz in command and the second officer in his position as mate. Capt. J. D. Warren, instead of going, arrived home on the Islander last night. The Alpha's cargo includes coal, cattle, sheep and general merchandise, also the first horse to be shipped to that part of the country.

States, and raising funds to bring about the reform party in China, headed by the Emperor, in name, conver en route North on Thursday.

States, and raising funds to bring about the reform party in China, headed by the Emperor, who is at present but Emperor in name, the Empress Dowager being the real mining district—not from a pick and shovel standpoint, but as hydraulic and quartz propositions. For instance, Mr. Anderson's quartz claim on Taku Arm has assayed $10,000 to the ton. There is a belt of copper from the south end of Atlin lake. Some very fine ledges have been located on the east side of Pine creek. A good claim, assaying $140 to the ton. In the country of the officials more than with the country.

Atlin is unquestionably a valuable mining district—not from a pick and shovel standpoint, but as hydraulic and quartz propositions. For instance, Mr. Anderson's quartz claim on Taku Arm has assayed $10,000 to the ton. There is a belt of copper from the south end of Atlin lake. Some very fine ledges have been located on the east side of Pine creek. A good claim, assaying $140 to the ton. In the proposition of the country and proclamations have been issued asking the Chinese who are friendly to the reform party to subscribed in sums ranging from $50 to $500, and proclamations have been issued asking the Chinese who are friendly to the reform party to subscribe what they can.

Esceling safer under the British flag.

scribe what they can.

Feeling safer under the British flag, In fact, hundreds of quartz claims have Feeling safer under the British nag, where he has a red-coated guard to protect his person, Kang Yu Wei will not venture into the States, but is sending envoys over to enlist the sympathies of envoys over to enlist the sympathies of the gang of grafters, who are backet Trial of the Sooke Seduction Case Yesterday Other Trials.

Yesterday's session of the court of assize was entirely taken up with the trial of James Armour on thec harge of seducing Ethel Shields.

A few days three of the leaders in British of the gang of grafters, who are backed up by the local officials. "No man's claim is safe. If good it is liable to be jumped, and the jumper goes on record, too. This casts a cloud on the title at once, and it only becomes a matter of time until the discoverer will find himself cheeted."

"Here is a case in point. A French Canadian named Laboudiere discovere native copper at the south end of Atlinlake. He blasted out a slab of the metal weighing 159 pounds. It was over three feet long and eighteen inches wide. "Well, the grafters got after Labou diere like a lot of vultures after a dead horse. They wanted to buy the claim for a mere trifle. Finding the Frenchman no fool, they sent a man named Creed, who keeps a saloon in Atlin, to jump the claim. This Creed did, and when the Frenchman went to Commissions. sioner Graham and complained about that official simply said he could not hel it, and that he had a right to put th jumper's claim on record. And so

With an honest administration affairs there is no reason why Atlin should not be a prosperous mining campe—that is after the sand on the beach at Cape Nome has been washed out."

or conduction the connected with this are worked by the control of the protein of the protein protein protein of the protein pro

FORTY SEC

Canadia Volu

One Thousand Called For and men Pref

To Serve Not as S but Absorbe perial Reg

Contingent From Our Own Corresp

Ottawa, Oct. 13.-Th official announcement the council meeting, equest of the governm to the Colonist: "The greater part published in the pres few days respecting government in relation ontingent for service has been inaccurate. absence of any offic indulged in speculation perhaps have misled ters of this kind the official reticence which tomed to the respons ment can fully under "It was only within that the matter assum admitted of governm was necessary that a ing be held to consid great importance. At any question as to Canada co-operating w orities in any moveme the promotion of Impe "The only question moment's delay was mentary authority wa The sending of a con vaal involved not only of considerable money. of considerable money, an important step that templated by parlian might possibly be regu dent, when in a matter sequence precedents of be established. Hen be established. Hen that prevailed was should be summoned action which was a quently it was learned authorities had placed on on all colonial arrange reducing the initial cos a somewhat serious tion respecting the p ment with authority decided this afternoon arrangement which h through communication perial authorities. ment agreed to rece ber of units of 125 n to be a Major, so that arrival be consolidated forces under Imperia movement is to be one. The number determined on is 1.000 larger number than th "The military depart all its plans in shape provide arms and eq necessary forces. Co of various corps throu be asked to obtain the teers to be forwarded militia. Only men physical condition wil preference will be giv It is expected, that chiefly unmarried contingent.

"Arrangements will Canadian government of the contingent, as for the transportation point of debarkation On arrival in South gent will be received army, and will come i army regulations.
"The arrangements supplying of units with higher grade than a M factory to the Canad who would have precomplete regiment und Canadian officer. Bu the unit arrangemen general scheme preparation office, applying to vafurnished by the color exception. Inasmuch paign must of necessity trol of the war office, ernment have not felt sent from the proporthough, as already sta have preferred anothe "Enrolment will co ment, the contingent ada for South Africanstant." TARTE BLAME Still Insisted That Bu Would Be Canadi

Every part of the arr ed forward with expected that, in accounderstanding with the

From Our Own Corres Ottawa, Oct. 13.-A the terms upon which has at last complied ment in the matter of Canadian military cont British arms in South has had his way.
It took two days wre and a threat to resign tingent as a separate