COMPLETE FAIR ON THE OPENING DAY

Exhibitors Must Have Displays in Place With Inauguration of This Year's Show--Will Merchants Assist?

When the exhibition opens on the 7th inst. everything must be in as ood shape as it can be made. There not going to be any waiting till the st minute for the erection of exhibit nds, if Mr. George Sangster, the etary, can prevent it. He explains hat in the past the first day of the ow has been considered both by com-titors and by the general public as get ready day." In his opinion is a mistake. He declares that ything possible will be done to ave the fair complete in every res-tet for the benefit of those who go it for the inauguration and expresses e hope that the merchants will help in his endeavor. That by so doing ent the success for which Victorians e been striving for many years is

All that is needed now is patronage he public turns out well through-the week there is no doubt that finances will take care of them-ves and Secretary Sangster will be the enviable position of being able eport a surplus .The buildings will filled in every nook and crannie th displays, the variety of which will raish entertainment rarely provided re. The entries in the stock, in the oultry, for the horse show and, in ct, the interest evinced in all the extion's features is so marked that officials have no hesitation in precting a gratifying outcome if the can be induced to come

Mr. A. C. Ruby, of Salem, Ore., in the last stock owner to inform Mr angster of his intention to contribute carload of horses to Victoria's show. Referring to the part the merchants nay take in the exhibition, yesterday fternoon Mr. Sangster specially re-uested that they be asked to render whatever assistance in their power to he association's special advertising representative who has been commissioned to place posters of an attractive character in all the windows available. The statement has been to the statement had been to the statem made that Victoria business men will not give the use of a small part of their glass front space to even such a public institution as the exhibition. It vas refuted by Mr. Sangster and other eir estimate of local spirit should be ndicated.

A MISSING PREMIER

Nembers of French Government Get Police Aid to Find M. Briand

PARIS, Sept. 13 .- M. Briand, the French Prime Minister, who recently eturned from a holiday, was lost for a reek, and was finally discovered in the M. Briand wanted a real holiday, and kept his movements so secret that he departed from Paris without leaving his address even with his private secretary. While he was away several in the secretary is the way away several in the secretary. absolutely necesary for the other mem-bers of the government to find their They hunted for him for a week, and eventually applied to the police to find him.

A detective discovered him at Pacy sed as a French fisherman in an immense beehive straw hat, an al-paca coat, soft shirt without a collar and trousers rolled up to the knees, showing bare legs and feet. The de-tective was clever enough not to recognize the premier openly, but talked to him about fishing, and gradually led the conversation round to politics, and the disappearance of M. Briand, which he said was public talk in Paris. M. Briand looked suspicious, and said he had heard nothing about it, but that same even-ing he telephoned to his secretary, ing he telephoned to his secreta and told him of his whereabouts.

Two Auto Holdups PORTLAND, Sept. 16.-Two autonobiles, one carrying six people and he other two, were held up a short north of Oregon City late tonight. The robbers are reported to have secured considerable jewelry and eorgian Bay Canal

OTTAWA, Sept. 16 .- It is stated that an the Georgian Bay canal project will lab kely be a prominent feature of dis-far ussion at the forthcoming session. Aligh a private company has the government to do this work, influences are ought to bear to have the gov- car ent take up the work as a state te ed is that the revenue derived om the development of water power ould be sufficient to pay the interest the cost of the undertaking. It is nown that the movement for a defin-te decision in the matter has some ery influential support.

Next U. S. President BEVERLY, Mass., Sept. 16.—Presi-Taft is convinced that Col. Roosegive the colonel a clear field. The mation came from an authentic source. It is stated that President Taft will not move against Col. Av sevelt, no matter what tactics the je may adopt. He regards the cols activity sorrowfully, not angrlly. not president has been advised that and the administration has not been advertised properly, and what it has accomplished has not been brought to the attention of the people vividly deeponer.
