BAZAAR IN AID OF NEW R. C. CHURCH WAS BIG SUCCESS

Total Receipts Amounted to $3030—Large Crowds Attended—Splendid Work Done by The Various Committees.

To enlarge the present R. C. Church, or build a new and larger one, is the task that the devoted pastor of the R. C. congregation, of Dalhousie, has undertaken with his well disposed parishioners. There are about 240 R. C. families to accommodate, and if the industries spoken about materialize, it will not be long before the number reaches 300 families. The encouragement that Rev. J. A. Hart, P. P. has so far received, encourages him to look into the future with optimism, and the great success of his first Bazaar, in aid of the new church, which place during three evenings of last week, speaks well for the undertaking and if the good work continues, it will not be long before the R. C. population of the shiretown will be equipped for worship with the other progressive sections of the Co. of Restigouche.

The gross receipts of the Bazaar reached the handsome sum of $3030.00. It is the largest amount ever realized by the congregation at any Bazaar, or Church Pic-Nic in the past. Complete organization had a good deal to do with the enjoyment, that was appreciated by the hundreds of people from the town, from all parts of the county, and by those who attended from the Quebec side.

The children of the place will remember the Bazaar of 1924 for a long time, as parents and friends in a most unselfish manner gave the little ones a good time. The weather was all that could be desired, and with flags flying to the breeze, the grounds well lighted in the evenings lots of attractive outdoor sports, music by a Campbellton Band, of twenty instruments, supper nicely served in the large Convent Hall, decorated for the occasion, a large variety of fancy and useful articles offered for sale, a chance table at which every day of all won the prizes of the Bazaar, the nicely arranged ice cream and candy tables, the fortune telling, fish pond, and the well managed booth of ice cream, soft drinks, cigars, etc.

The Bazaar, from Campbellton, from the Merry-go-round, from the Bowling Alley, Wheel of Fortune, Shooting at the Dolls, the Pipe, and the Bean Bag throwing kept a big crowd on the jump all the time, and those in charge of all, won the prizes of the Bazaar, the nicely arranged ice cream and candy tables, the fortune telling, fish pond, and the well managed booth of ice cream, soft drinks, cigars, etc.

Special credit is due Mrs. Ed. J. Cannon for the executive ability she displayed in the management of the Bazaar which ran smoothly from first to last. Her good work will be long remembered by all concerned.

GASOLINE AS AN ANTISEPTIC
A number of the leading hospitals are now using gasoline as an antiseptic for washing out wounds. This has an advantage over iodine which burns considerably after being applied.

The gasoline can easily be reached by opening the petcock underneath the carburetor and letting it run for a few seconds in order that any sediment may run out. Then hold a clean handkerchief or a bit of bandage underneath it and saturate well.

If there is no petcock available, unscrew the nut that holds the Fuel Valve Cover and lift off the cover that exposes the Fuel Chamber. This makes gasoline instantly available.

P. P. Brule, Balmoral, gift of Mrs. Wm. Cabot; Mrs. John Cormier, Campbellton, Two Fancy Plates, gift of Mrs. B. Chiverton; Mrs. Ed. J. Cannon, Centre Piece, gift of Mrs. Andree Barberie; Mr. Isidore Allain, Book, (American History) gift of Miss Cimon; Master Arthur Gaudet, Large Box Chocolates, gift of Miss Helen Trudelle; Roney Elzinger, Fancy Hat, gift of Mrs. Jos. LeBlanc, La Butte, P. Q.; Miss Eva LeBlanc, Sweater; Miss H. Thivierge, Centre Piece; John J. Harquail, Side Board Draper; Fred J. LeCouteur, Box of Cigars; Andrew Wallace Sweater.

Mr. Leonard Green, Migasha, P. Q., guessed the nearest of the cash contents in a Pickle Bottle, and received $2.50 in Gold.

Much credit is due to all the members of the R. C. Sewing Circle for their industry during the winter and spring months. The fancy work Booth was certainly a credit, and drew lots of purchasers.

Opt. Frank Allard, who has many friends in the shiretown, brought from 35 to 40 people from Carleton, the first day of the Bazaar, who generously patronized the fair. The Carleton visitors came on the St. S. Lord Robert.

Others who kindly donated special articles were: Mrs. C. H. LaBillico, Centre Piece; Mrs. J. M. Colton, Fancy Table Cloth; Mrs. Dr. St. Laurent, Infant's Wool set, Shadow Lace Corset and Fancy Apron; Mrs. H. Trudelle, Lace Shawl; Mrs. Wm. Cabot, Hand Bag; Lady from Quebec, Rag Rug; Mrs. Joseph St. Pierre, Side Board; Set; Mrs. Vincent Harquail, Bureau Sear; Mrs. Joseph Barberie, Wood Sear.

WAGING WAR ON PETTING PARTIES

Vigilantes Chase Lingered Lovers From Night Nooks in Ohio

(Cleveland Press)
War—wild, vigorous, valiant—continues to wage its violence upon the peaky petters in the hamlet of Bay Village, O.

Mayor Carroll Beck informed all men by these presents early Monday that the war would continue until not a solitary smack broke the still night air of Bay Village.

The mayor himself declares that those same strong arms of the law that flashed their flashlights into every secluded nook of the village from the sunset hours on Saturday through the early hours of Sunday, never finching until 33 good smackers and true has been lodged in the village jail, will continue to flash until even the fireflies of the village give up the contest.

Eight of 'em!
The mayor deputized his vigilantes committee Saturday night. Eight red-blooded, virile, strong deputy marshals' maced through the great open spaces where a man's man and a spooner's a spooner, and flashed their beacon's into the faces of the 33 kisers.

The same beaming, scintillating, trusty flashlights held in the brawny arms of the trusty eight will continue to flash nightly until the amorous learn that Bay Village is not the proper habitat for osculations and embraces.

Not a Joke!
"This is no funny matter," the mayor himself said Monday.

It seems that for nearly three years his native city had been "nursed by the amorous."

The beautiful sunsets over the lake were completely blotted out by heads close, close together!

The drowsy chirp of the crickets and tree toad was drowned by the smack of loving lips.

The blossom-laden air out in the great open spaces were made unfragrant by Lady Nicotine—sometimes smoked by girlish lips.

Even the aroma of John Barleycorn mingled with the "oneysuckle hedges!"

Gotta be Proper
If they'll park their car by the side of the roadway over in a rut so that it doesn't stop legitimate traffic; if they'll leave the lights on and as like perfect little ladies and gentlemen, Hixsoner has nothing to say.

He was young once himself. He doesn't mean to be harsh with the young folks.

But God's County shall not be spoiled by the influx of a flippant metropolitan population of the younger generation.

Hixsoner is the shellish type. Aged 45. Married. Doesn't know what a flapper is. It's no flapper problem, he affirms.

It's purity and morality!
