No intimation was needed of the magnitude of the task that is before the Allies, but, if there were, this surely supplies it. In addition there is also vivid indication that the area of the war will spread in the near future, and that countries now experiencing unrest in their attitude of neutrality will break in on one tude of neutrality will break in on one side or the other. This, of course, means further withdrawals from agrimeans further withdrawals from agricultural and industrial activity. It also indicates greater shortage in Euralso indicates greater shortage in Europe of all kinds of foodstuffs, grain, vegetables and live stock, and of horses. This depletion will have to be

This depletion will have to be made up from countries that are enjoying the blessings of peace. One of these is Canada. It is our boundenduty to see that Britain shall not, as far as preventable suffer from a lack of foodstuffs or of such other useful material as this country can produce. In other words, both men and women are called upon to put forth their best efforts so that when the time arrives any deficiency can readily be met. The accomplishment of this does not necessarily imply extra labor, but it does particularly suggest more care in preparation of the soil and in the selection of seed, and in attention to the breeding and rearing of live stock.

EMPIRE DAY AT GRAMMAR SCHOOLS

Celebration Held on Friday When Scholars Have March Out Around Town

Last Friday, May 23rd, Empire Day, was fittingly celebrated by the scholars of the Grammar and High schools. Beautiful weather favored the open air exercises, the march out of the scholars headed by Lieut, Archer on the problem, heing greatly admired by horseback being greatly admired by many sight seers, who view the pro-cession. It was certainly an inspiring sight to see, the scholars even down to the little tots marching bravely along in the perfect sunshine waving their flags and cheering their march with song.

On their return to the school grounds the scholars lined up in grades headed by the cadets, and there they saluted the flag. Photographs of the children were here taken, after which they marched into the school where a splendid program was rendered.

a splendid program was rendered.

Credit must be extended to the teachers of the lower grades for the splendid drilling given the younger scholars, the day's exercises being carried out in a manner which reflected great credit on both teachers and cholars. When the children entered the As sembly Hall, the room was filled with interested parents and the general public, and a splendid patriotic spirit prevailed. Judge Matheson, chairman of the School Trustees presided, and he was supported on the platform by His Honor Judge McLatchy, Mayor Andrew, Dr. Pinault, Dr. Murray, Rev. C. W. Squires, Rev. J. H. Jenner, D. F. Graham, Max M. Mowat and Lieut.

In a few words the chairman welcomed the scholars and friends and the following program was rendered. Chorus, "Men of the North" School. Recitation, Gwen. Richards Essay, "Germany's Errors," Colin
