AAMILTON, Aug. 1.-About 2000 people embled at Dundurn park this afternoon to witness the league game between the Londons and Clippers. The game had been much talked about during the week, and was expected to be a close contest, until this morning, when it was noised abroad that Chamberlain, the Clipper abroad that Chamberlain, the Olipper pitcher, had been taken suddenly ill, and-would net be able to go into the box, and Rooney, the change pitcher, was suffering from a weak arm. When this became known the enthusiastic admirers of the home team, who had staked heavily on the game, endeavoured to hedge, which they were not very successful in doing, as few seemed inclined to put up on the Clippers in their weakened state. Manager Stroud, when he saw that it home team, who had staked neavily on the game, endeavoured to hedge, which they were not very successful in doing, as few meaned inclined to put up on the Clippers in their weakened state. Manager Stroud, when he saw that it would be simply impossible for Chamber-lain to play, telegraphed to Farrell of Wicodstock to come and take Chamberlair's place. Farrell might make a good player with practice, but his exhibition in the box to-day gave anything but astisfaction to the Hamiltonians. Jerry Moore declared he couldn't catch his balls, they were so widely thrown, some of them ten feet from the plate, and decided to take Hunter's place on right field and see if the ex-Loudin catcher could manage to do what he couldn't. Hunter, who was the hardest worked man in the field, did wonderful under the circumstances. Londons * e.b.r. b.h.t. top.o. a. e. Thomson, c 5 3 1 1 8 1 0

Insurance fien. A very interesting game of baseball was played Saturday afternoon between the bankers' nine of this city, who recently defeated the Hamilton bankers, and representatives of the insurance companies af Toronto. The batting, as will be seen by the score, was better than the fielding. The pitching of Parkes for the bankers was decidedly superior to that of the sverage amateur baseballist. round contest, but Rocke was knocked out in the third round. W. W. Read, the Surrey gentleman oricketer, has a record this year of 1548 runs made in 28 innings, giving him an average of 55.8. His highest innings was 214 not cut for Surrey against Esser. Robert Peck's great two-year-old, The Bard, by Petrarch-Magdalene, has won in stakes $39,967 in his fourteen successive viotories this year. This is a pretty good return for the $3250 he cost last year as a yearling. of "colts," the only first twelve men whe played being Martin, Robinson, Bomell, Eckardt and Stews. Several of the Sham-rocks expressed their dissatisfaction with the Torontos in the strongest terms for sending such a weak team to meet them. The result of the match is of course what might have been expected. The idea of sending to Montreal virtually a second twelve to compete with the Sham-rocks ! It is precisely what The World warned the Torontos against last Monday. It is certainly not creditable to the Toronto Lacronse club that they should treat the Shamrocks with such scarts courtesy. They should have remembered that the Shamrocks are shortly to play a rejurn exhibition game here, and they would scarcely feel flattered if their red-shirted friends should follow the example set by themselves.] Three of the Canadian team at Wimble

Mard S. is still at Cleveland and there is considerable speculation as to her ability to do still better than 2.082, the time made last Thursday. An effort will be made by the Queen to do so at Cleveland or elsewhere in private. Her driver, W. W. Bair, thinks she can trot in 2.08, or a little better with all conditions favorable. A soft glove fight between Bob Farrell of Cincinnati and Joe Coburn of New York took place at the baseball grounds, Cincin-nati, Saturday afternoon. The content was tame, and consisted of four two-minute rounds. At the conclusion the match was declared a draw, whereat the spectators oried "Rats."
