HAS NEVER FELT THE RHEUMATISM

Since Taking "Fruit-a-tives" The Famous Fruit Medicine

P.O. Box 123, PARISHBORO, N.S. "I suffered with Rheumatism for five years, having it so badly at times I was unable to get up. I tried medicines I saw advertised, and was treated by doctors but the Rheumatism always came back. In 1916, I saw in an advertisement that "Fruit-a-tives" would stop Rheumatism and took a box, and got relief; then took "Fruit-a-tives" right along for about six months and I have never felt my Rheumatism since." JOHN E. GUILDERSON.

When a mother detects from the writing and fretting of a child that worms are troubling it, she can procure a reliable remedy in Miller's Worm Powders which will expel all worms from the system. They may cause vomiting, but this need cause no anxiety, because it is but a manifestation of their thorough work. No worms can long exist where these Powders are used.

The S.S. of Hope Methodist church held a very successful Christmas concert on Tuesday evening. A feature of the program was a pageant "Every Girl" which was beautifully rendered by the Young Ladies Class.

The final meeting of the A.H.S. Literary was held in Code's Hall on Wednesday afternoon. The music for the afternoon was supplied by the school's orchestra, composed of Helen Irving, pianist; Ella Martyn and Loretta Bindner, violinists; Mary Bindner, cello; and Wm. Benner, traps. A feature of the afternoon was a debate: "Resolved that War is Necessary for the Progress of Humanity." The affirmative side being taken by Loretta Bindner, Janet Pollock, Florence McIntyre and Jack Stevenson, and the negative by Jeanette McTaggart, Bertha Oke, Bell Benner and George Whitton, the negative side winning by a close margin. The Weed sisters then played a very acceptable instrumental and Mary Bindner favored the audience with a cello solo. Another feature of the program was the reading of the school paper "The A.C.S. 'Salt Shaker'" read by the editor, Miss Jessie Whitton, and which afforded the visitors much amusement at the expense of the students on whom many jokes were sprung. The closing number was a trio by Messrs. Hugh Leitch, Alex. Moore and Wm. Benner which was much enjoyed.
