CHANGES IN THE EXECUTIVE COUNCIL! —
 The New Brunswick says: — "A report from Fredericton says, that Messrs. Odell, Shore, Robinson, Black and Cunard are to go out — and that Messrs. H. Johnston, E. B. Chandler, L. A. Wilnot, W. H. Street, Robert L. Hazen and another, not yet named, are to go in! The report further says, that on Monday next, the new Councillors will be sworn into office, provisionally, until Her Majesty's pleasure is known. Such a change, at this critical period, would revive those hopes of a change of times, and better days in New Brunswick, which have almost become dead, and rouse the Assembly and the people from their present apathy, and disposition to let everything go on to utter ruin."

The article on our first page, headed "Dodridge, Wilberforce and Legh Richmond," should have been credited to the London Record.

TO CORRESPONDENTS.
 We have received the Church Report of Grand Manan which from its length, and our not receiving it until the paper went to press this morning, will lie over until our next number when it will be carefully inserted.
