

CONTENTS

OF THE

FIRST VOLUME.

CHAPTER I.

Sail for America in a transport—Life on board—Ice-bergs—Fish on the banks—A narrow escape—Danger of intoxication at sea—A ship badly found—A magnificent Aurora Borealis—Enter the great River St. Lawrence—Nearly run on the rocks—Pass Quebec and Montreal—Steam up the Ottawa—By the Rideau Canal reach Kingston—The first session of the United Canadas 1

CHAPTER II.

Colonel Everard—Author's post at Point Frederick—Practice of athletic exercises—Lord Sydenham—Dinner at Government House—The old Trapper—A dangerous squall on the Lake of the Thousand Islands—A regatta—Races—General Clitherow—Aquatic