

DR. THOM, STREETSVILLE, ONT.: The first dish of Canadian bee feed is to hand, in the first number of the JOURNAL, and I think the brotherhood ought to feel proud of it, as a step onward. The Royal Jelly of bee-lore it contains ought to satisfy any hungry embryo bee-keeper for one week.

J. S. SWALM, CLIFFORD, ONT.—I send a list of names for BEE JOURNAL. Send them sample copies. These should all take it as I expect it to be a beneficial paper to all bee-keepers. For my part I will not do without your good advising paper any more. I have 21 colonies.

A. R. FIERHELLER, MOUNT ELGIN, ONT.:—I am glad to learn that you intend to publish a journal in Canada, on bee culture. I am sure it will be of great value to us Bee-keepers, as the experience of a northern climate apiarist, will be of much value to all readers. Hoping and wishing for success I send one dollar for subscription, and if you send me some extra copies I will show them to my friends and try to induce others to subscribe.

ODD SIZED SECTIONS.

We have a lot of about 5,000 one-piece sections which were cut slightly too large for the cases for which they were intended, and as they are an odd size ($\frac{4\frac{1}{2} \times 4\frac{1}{2} \times \text{one-nine-sixteenth}}$) we will sell them at \$5 per thousand, to any one who can use them, and will take the lot. Perhaps some of you use that size, if so, let us hear from you, and we will send a sample. They are nicely made, and are cheap at that money.
