

making up her report from her work done during the year. In order that County Secretaries have statistics the forms would be sent them later.

When the vote was taken that the Union meet at a separate time and place from the convention, no less than 40 voted in favor of the separation. Time will show if the action was a wise one, and in the meat time the Brethren will have more room.

Some one suggested that it was a good plan for the President to supply each member with a programme of the monthly meeting.

Our Missionaries need books

Those by authors such as Dr. A. J. Gordan, Meyer, and Andrew Murray are helpful and inspiring. (Only two cents per oz. to send one of these, and Christmas is nearing.)

Mr. La Flamme thought the time was not far distant when there would be a grand turning to Christ on our foreign fields.

Miss Black has the Bureau of Missionary Literature.

The Home Mission Committee is Miss Johnstone, Mrs. Hall, Mrs. Allison Smith, Miss Hume, and Mrs. Dumaresy