CHINA.

From Miss Brackbill.

CHEN-TU, May 14th, 1898.

We would like very much to start day schools for girls in different parts of the city, but until we can secure Christian teachers, or our girls are trained, it would not be well to do so, as one would never know but Confucianism, Buddhism or Taoism was being taught when one's back was turned. We will, however, hope to open work in other places, and then new assistants will be needed.
