

attendance. At eleven o'clock we had public worship, sixty-four present, all Indians. Then at three o'clock we had a meeting in one of their houses (Mr. Bone) about three miles away, attendance forty-five, which I consider very good. Our Sabbath afternoon meetings will always be held in one of their houses, turn about.

At the close of yesterday's morning service I read your letter to them and all seemed very much pleased that you had remembered them and expressed themselves grateful for what you had done for them. I was very sorry the chief was not present. I am sure he would have sent a personal message to you. I think he is as consistent as any of the Indians and wants to know more of Jesus and His love.
