Latest Missionary Literature

In Afric's Forest and Jungle. Or Six Years Among the Yorubans. By REV. R. H. STONE. Illustrated. 12mo, cloth, $1.00.

This volume is the fourth of the "Stories of Missions Series." It is an unusually bright series of sketches by a missionary who resided for several years in a large native town in West Africa, where he came in contact with some phases of life which are now largely things of the past.

Our Sisters in India. By REV. E. STORROW. Illustrated. 12mo, cloth, $1.25.

Mr. Storrow, the veteran Indian missionary, brings together in this volume a great mass of information about the degradation and sufferings of Indian women. The main object of the volume is to show that the Hindu classics necessarily lead to the degradation of women, and that the only hope of deliverance for our Indian sisters is through the victory of Christ over Hinduism.

Missionary Expansion Since the Reformation. By REV. J. A. GRAHAM, M.A. With 8 colored maps and 145 illustrations. 12mo., cloth, $1.25.

A brief, general view of principles, history and present position of missions, especially those of the evangelical churches. It is hoped that such an introduction may lead to the further study of an entrancing and supremely important subject.

We have just published a Great Clearance List of Books, many of them at merely nominal prices. We will mail it to any address on receipt of post card.
