BILIOUSNESS.

Bilious symptoms invariably arise from indigestion, such as furred tongue, vomiting of bile, giddiness, sick headache, irregular bowels. The liver secretes the bile and acts like a filter or sieve, to cleanse impurities of the blood. By irregularity in its action or suspensions of its functions, the bile is liable to overflow into the blood, causing jaundice, sallow complexion, yellow eyes, bilious diarrhoea, a languid, weary feeling, and many other distressing symptoms. Biliousness may be properly termed an affection of the liver, and can be thoroughly cured by the grand regulator of the liver and biliary organs, Burdock Blood Bitters. Act upon the stomach, bowels and liver, making healthy bile and pure blood, and opens the culverts and sluiceways for the outlet of disease. Sold everywhere and guaranteed to cure.

Scientific and Useful.

THOSE who find milk indigestible should put a little lime-water in it.

To brighten or clean silver or nickel-plated ware, rub with a woollen cloth and flour.

CEILINGS that have been smoked by an oil lamp should be washed off by soda and water.

ONE DOLLAR AGAINST FIVE HUNDRED.—Isaac Brown, of Bothwell, Ont., was afflicted with chronic humour in the blood. He says one dollar bottle of Burdock Blood Bitters was worth more than $500 paid for other medicines. It is a reliable blood purifier.

THERE is nothing better than cold water, applied several times daily, for preserving, strengthening and cooling the eyes.

COARSE HOMINY.—This is otherwise known as cracked corn. Wash it well and set to soak all night. In the morning drain and cook soft in boiling water salted. Eat with sugar and cream, or cream only.

A PLEASING DUTY.—"I feel it my duty to say," writes John Borton, of Desert, P. Q., "that Burdock Blood Bitters cured my wife of liver complaint, from which she had been a chronic sufferer. Her distressing, painful symptoms soon gave way, and I can highly recommend the medicine to all suffering as she did."

Horsford's Acid Phosphate.

Beware of Imitations.

Imitations and counterfeits have again appeared. Be sure that the word "Horsford's" is on the wrapper. None are genuine without it.

SALAD.—In making salad sauce take the yolks of two eggs stirred with a wooden spoon; add salad oil drop by drop, stirring constantly till quite thick; add a little mustard, salt, and very little vinegar—tarragon is best—a little sugar, and three tablespoonfuls of cream.

RHEUMATISM; yes, and Neuralgia, too, are greatly relieved and often entirely cured by the use of Perry Davis' Pain-Killer.—Try it.

A VERY soft and pretty fringe for home-made rugs is to be obtained by ravelling out the good parts of old stockings and mittens. The crinkled appearance is its pretty feature, and it lasts for years under ordinary wear. Excellent effects are obtained by mixing the colours.

A BOON TO HOUSEKEEPERS.—Washing day and house-cleaning time lose half their terrors when the thrifty housekeeper uses JAMES PYLE'S PEARLINE.

BUTTERED TOAST.—Slice the bread nearly an inch thick, pare off the crust, and toast quickly over a clear fire, buttering each piece lightly as you take it from the toaster. Lay it in a hot dish until all are done. As soon as the last slice comes from the fire, send all to the table. Should a corner scorch, scrape before you butter it. The whole surface should be of a light yellow brown.

COLD PUDDING.—One pint of cream, the rind of a lemon, and a bit of mace. Sugar to taste. Boil together, then take out the peel and beat it in a mortar, pass it through a sieve, and put it into the cream. Let it stand till nearly cold, pour it gently into the beaten yolks of six eggs, mix well and pour into a mould, set the mould in a pan of boiling water with a lid, and boil upon a slow fire gently for half-an-hour, and set it to cool.

A DOUBLE BENEFIT.—Harry Ricardo, of Toronto, certifies to the benefits received from the use of Hagyard's Yellow Oil as a cure for rheumatism and deafness, his affliction with these combined troubles being a severe one.

HERB SAUCE, FOR FLAVOURING.—Slice a stick of horseradish very finely, and with it two shallots and a clove of garlic. Put these into a saucepan; add a handful of fresh parsley sprigs, the leaves picked from a sprig of thyme, some winter savory, a dozen peppercorns, a pinch of cayenne, a teaspoonful of bruised celery seed, and a tablespoonful of salt. Pour over these six tablespoonfuls of vinegar, the juice of a lemon, and a pint of cold water. Bring the sauce to a boil, then allow it to simmer for twenty minutes; colour it darkly with browning, and strain it through a tamis. When cold, put into dry bottles; cork and seal securely, and store till wanted. This sauce is useful for flavouring soups, hashes, minced meats, and various other things.

Consumption can be Cured.

Not by any secret remedy, but by proper, healthful exercise and the judicious use of Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil and Hypophosphites, containing the healing and strength-giving virtues of these two valuable specifics in their fullest form. Prescribed universally by Physicians. Take no other.

THEY SAY

"LOVE LAUGHS AT LOCKSMITHS,"

And we all know that a Million Combination Lock won't keep the average small boy in the house if there happens to be a Circus in town, or a favourable opportunity presents itself for fixing a tin pot attachment to an orphan dog's tail; but only give him one of the LIQUOR TEA CO.'S attractive Boy's Books, and the enthusiastic way in which he will whistle "Home, Sweet Home," and stay there to, is surprising.

CONSUMPTION,

which is Scrofulous Disease of the Lungs, is promptly and certainly arrested and cured by this God-given remedy, if taken before the last stages of the disease are reached. From its wonderful power over this terribly fatal disease, when first offering this now celebrated remedy to the public, Dr. Pierce thought seriously of calling it his "Consumption Cure," but abandoned that name as too limited for a medicine which, from its wonderful combination of tonic, anti-inflammatory, alterative, or blood-cleansing, anti-bilious, pectoral, and nutritive properties, is unequalled, not only as a remedy for consumption of the lungs, but for all

CHRONIC DISEASES

OF THE

Liver, Blood, and Lungs.

If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish-brown spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills, alternating with hot flashes, low spirits and gloomy forebodings, irregular appetite, and coated tongue, you are suffering from Indigestion, Dyspepsia, and Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness." In many cases only a part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal.

For Weak Lungs, Spitting of Blood, Shortness of Breath, Bronchitis, Severe Coughs, Consumption, and kindred affections, it is a sovereign remedy. Send ten cents in stamps for Dr. Pierce's book on Consumption. Sold by Druggists.
