

The Volunteer Review

AND MILITARY AND NAVAL GAZETTE.

A Journal Devoted to the Interests of the Military and Naval Forces of the Dominion of Canada

VOL. VII.

OTTAWA, (CANADA,) TUESDAY, OCTOBER 14, 1872.

No. 41.

NEWS OF THE WEEK.

English advices from 5th inst. state that at a meeting held yesterday (October 5th) at Dundalk in favour of amnesty to Fenian convicts, 10,000 were present.

The Duc D'Aumale privately said yesterday (October 7th) it was certain that Marshal Bazaine would be condemned to death and then be pardoned. The witnesses for the defence are ten generals of division, eight brigadier generals, five colonels, nine captains, seven surgeons and two priests.

The Austrian which left Liverpool to day (October 7th) for Halifax took fifty thousand dollars in specie.

The case of Clement Scott against Stephen Fisk, proprietor of the Herald, for libel, ended to-day (Oct. 7th) by the withdrawal of his summons by the plaintiff. Fisk threatens to bring an action for malicious prosecution. The court room was crowded with theatrical celebrities.

Hon. Samuel L. Tilley, Canadian Minister of Customs, sailed for Quebec to day (Oct. 7th) on the steamer Austrian.

John Bright has offered himself as a candidate for re-election by his present constituents.

Two miners were arrested by the police of Camborne, in Cornwall, yesterday. Towards evening a mob of several thousand attempted to rescue them, and attacked and brutally treated the police. Some buildings were gutted, and several persons were injured and taken insensible to the hospital. Quiet was not restored until midnight.

Mr. Forsyth, a Conservative, has been elected to Parliament from Bath.

Paris, October 5th.—The Paris Journal, a Monarchical newspaper, the proposal for the restoration of Monarchy on the basis of the charter of 1814, in a modified form, will be presented in the Assembly on the opening day of the session.

At a meeting of the Deputies of the Right to day (Oct. 6th) the following Cabinet was decided upon in the event of a change in the Government at the opening of the Assembly:—Duc de Cazes, Minister of Foreign Affairs; M. Boherr, Minister of the Interior; M. de Chesnelong, Minister of Finance; M. de Peyre, Minister of Justice; M. Grivart, Minister of Public Works; M. Dupeyron Minister of Commerce; M. Desjardines, Minister of Public Instruction; the Marquis de Montaignac, Minister of Marine; and General Changarnier, Minister of War.

It is reported that when the Assembly is asked to vote in favor of the restoration of monarchy and the elevation of the Count de Chambord to the throne as King Henry V., M. Rouher will propose, as a substitute, that the monarchical principle be established, but that it be left to the country to decide which monarchy is preferred.

It is believed that General Manteuffel will soon replace Count Von Armin as German Ambassador to France.

Bishop Reinkens, of the old Catholic Church, took the oath of allegiance to the Emperor. The customary formula was used, with the exception of the reservation of first allegiance to the Pope, which was omitted.

The Remington rifles seized on the British steam yacht Deerhound have been deposited in the arsenal at Ferrol.

Firing was kept up all day yesterday (Oct. 7th) between the Cartagena insurgents and the besieging troops.

There is some fever in the Republican camp.

A battalion of Greeks having tendered their services in defence of the Republic, President Castelar has addressed them a letter thanking them for their offer, but refusing to accept it.

The Carlists are fast losing ground in the Northern Provinces. They are utterly demoralised, and the accuse their leaders of treason. General Martines, the Commander of the Republican troops, is energetically advancing against them. The siege of Cartagena is proceeding actively. The firing is very sharp on both sides. Many of the insurgents desert daily and surrender to the Republican forces.

The yacht Eothen with her owner Ashbury, reports while in the Bilbao river, that Carlists fired on his vessel which narrowly escaped destruction.

General Sebailo joined Don. Alphonso yesterday (October 6th.) He was received with cheers by the Carlists.

The insurgent ironclads were off Aguilón to-day and appeared to be heading for Cartagena.

The insurgent vessels remain at Cartagena. The Government fleet, consisting of the frigates Vittoria, Almansea, Clermen, and another vessel, the name of which is not ascertained, passed the Gulf of Almojón.

A column of 2,000 insurgents made a desperate sortie to day, but was driven back with heavy losses in killed and wounded.

On the arrival of the Government fleet off the port, the city will be attacked on all sides simultaneously.

The session of the Reichstag opened yesterday (Oct. 7th). There was no royal speech delivered on the occasion.

A statue of King Fredrick VII, father of the reigning sovereign, was unveiled to day in presence of the King and royal family, deputations from the principal cities of Denmark, a large military force, and a vast concourse of spectators. The monument is intended to commemorate the birth of freedom and the revival of public spirit in Denmark, and the love of her citizens for their brethren in Schleswig.

A despatch was received at the Ministry of War to day from General Marinhoes, announcing a great victory by his troops over a large body of Carlists near Agarzusa, in the Province of Navarre. Many of the insurgents were killed, and a large number was taken prisoners. General Marinhoes says the route of the insurgents is complete, and his forces are in close pursuit of them.

The Duke de Broglie, at a banquet given in his honor, to night, declared emphatically that a revival of clerical domination in France was impossible.

The German War Office has given permission to several French cavalry officers to be present at the cavalry manoeuvres of the army corps of the Prussian Guards near Jüterbog, in province of Brandenburg.

The Emperor of Germany has conferred on Count Moltke the brilliant of the Order of the Black Eagle.