Littell's Living Age

A weekly magazine of sixty-four pages, and the Living Age gives more than THREE AND A QUARTER THOUSAND double-column octavo pages of reading matter yearly, forming four large volumes. It presents in an inexpensive form, considering its great amount of matter, with freshness, owing to its weekly issue, and with a satisfactory completeness attempted by no other publication, the best Essays, Reviews, Criticisms, Tales, Poetry, Scientific, Biographical, Historical, and Political Information, from the entire body of Foreign Periodical Literature.

A NEW SERIES

Was begun Jan. 1, 1873, with entirely new Tales already embracing Serial and Short Stories by distinguished English, French, German, and Russian authors; viz., Lord Lytton (Bulwer), Erckmann-Chatrian, Ivan Turgenieff, Miss Thackeray, Mrs. Oliphant, Fritz, Reuter, Mrs. Parr (Author of Dorothy Fox), Julian Hawthorne, &c.

During the coming year, as heretofore, the choicest serial and short stories by the Leading Foreign Authors will be given, together with an amount unapproached by any other periodical in the world, of the best literary and scientific matter of the day, from the pens of the ablest and most cultured Essayists, Scientists, Critics, Reviewers and Editors, representing every department of knowledge and progress.

The Importance of THE LIVING AGE to every American reader, as the only complete as well as reliable compilation of a class of indispensable current literature, indispensable to intelligent and cultivated reading, is shown by THE OPINIONS OF THE MOST DISTINGUISHED LIVING WRITERS in all branches of Literature, Science, Art, and Politics, as published weekly in the following

OPINIONS.

"Reproduces the best thoughts of the best minds of the civilized world, upon all topics of living interest."—Philadelphia Inquirer.

"In no other single publication can there be found so much of solid literary excellence."—N. Y. Evening Post.

"The best of all our eclectic publications."—The Nation, New York.

"And the cheapest, as regularly [illegible]"—The Advance, Chicago.

The ablest essays, the most entertaining tales, the finest poetry of the English language, are here gathered together."—Illinois State Journal.

"With it alone a reader may fairly keep up with all that is important in the literature, history, politics, and science of the day."—The Methodist, New York.

"In view of all the competitors in the field, I could certainly choose no other."—Rev. Henry Ward Beecher.

"The best periodical in America."—Rev. Dr. Cuyler.

"Has no equal in any country."—Phila Press.

"Indispensable to every one who desires a thorough comprehension of all the great questions and noteworthy in the literary world."—Boston Post.

THE LIVING AGE is sent a year (63 numbers), free, postpaid, on receipt of $8; or, six copies for $40.

PROSPECTUS FOR 1874 7th YEAR.
THE ALDINE,
An Illustrated Monthly Journal, universally admitted to be the Handsomest Periodical in the World. A Representative and Champion of American Taste.
NOT FOR SALE IN BOOK OR NEWS STORES.
THE ALDINE, while issued with all the regularity, has none of the temporary or timely interest characteristic of ordinary periodicals. It is an elegant miscellany of pure, light and graceful literature, and a collection of pictures, the rarest specimens of artistic skill, in black and white. Although each succeeding number affords a fresh pleasure to its fortunate subscribers, the real value and beauty of THE ALDINE will be most appreciated after it has been bound up at the close of the year. While other publications may claim superior cheapness, as compared with rivals of a similar class, THE ALDINE is a unique and original conception—alone and unapproached—absolutely without competition in price or character. The possessor of a complete volume cannot duplicate the quantity of fine paper and engravings in any other shape or number of volumes for ten times its cost; and then there are the chromos, besides!
ART DEPARTMENT, 1874.
The illustrations of THE ALDINE have won a world-wide reputation, and in the art centres of Europe it is unreservedly admitted that its wood cuts are examples of the highest perfection ever attained. The common prejudice in favor of "steel plates," is rapidly yielding to a more educated and discriminating taste which recognizes the advantages of superior artistic quality with greater facility of production. The wood-cuts of THE ALDINE possess all the delicacy and elaborate finish of the most costly steel plate, while they recorded a better rendering of the artist's original.
To fully realize the wonderful work which THE ALDINE is doing for the cause of art culture in America, it is only necessary to consider the cost to the people of any other decent representations of the productions of great painters.
In addition to designs of the members of the National Academy, and other noted American artists, THE ALDINE will reproduce examples of the best foreign masters, selected with a view to the highest artistic success and greatest general interest. Thus the subscriber to THE ALDINE will, at a trifling cost, enjoy in his own home the pleasures and refining influences of true art.
The quarterly tinted plates for 1874 will be by Lucy Morgan and J. D. Woodward.
The Christmas issue for 1874 will contain special designs appropriate to the season, by our best artists, and will surpass in attractions any of its predecessors.
Premium for 1874.
Every subscriber for The Aldine for the year 1874, will receive a pair of chromos. The original pictures were painted for the publishers of The Aldine by Thomas Moran, whose great Cañon picture was purchased by Congress for ten thousand dollars. The subjects were chosen to represent "The East" and "The West." One is The White Mountain Notch, New Hampshire; the other gives The Cliffs of Green River, Wyoming Territory. The difference in the nature of the scenes themselves is pleasing contrast, and affords a good display of the artist's sympathetic coloring. The chromos are beautifully finished plates, and are in size 12½ x 16 in appearance exact facsimiles of the originals. To any one who has a worthy example of American art-taste, a unique picture to the subscriber of The Aldine was a gold fat pending in any locality, and it is safe to say that collection is attested by the following testimonial, over the signature of Mr. Morgan himself.
New York, N. J., Sept 24th 1873
Messrs. James Sutton & Co.
Gentlemen,—I am delighted with the success in color of the chromos. They are wonderfully successful results of work by mechanical process of the highest character.
Very respectfully,
(Signed) THOS MORGAN.
These chromos are in every sense American. They are by an original American process, with material of American manufacture, from designs of American scenery by an American painter, and presented to subscribers into the first successful American Art Journal. If no other reasons of all this, they will certainly possess an interest to foreign production can inspire, and neither can they any time to come be a reason of peculiar facilities of production they cost the publishers only 1 cent, while equal pictures in exact [illegible] would involve the subscription price of THE ALDINE. Persons of taste will prize these pictures for themselves—not for the price they cost or did not cost, and will appreciate the enterprise that renders their distribution possible.
Every subscriber should indicate a preference for a figured subject, the publishers will send Thoughts of Home," a new and beautiful chromo, 16 x 20 inches, representing a little Italian exile whose speaking eyes betray the longings of his heart.
TERMS.
$5 per annum in advance, with Oil Chromos free.
Top 50 cents extra, the chromos will be sent, mounted, varnished, and prepaid by mail.
THE ALDINE will, hereafter, be obtainable by subscription. There will be no reduced or club rates cash for subscriptions must be sent to the publishers direct or handed to the local canvasser, without responsibility to the publishers, except in cases where the certificate is given, bearing the fac simile signature of JAMES SUTTON & Co.
CANVASSERS WANTED.
