“NOAH CLAYPOLE” TUPPER ON THE KINCHIN LAY.

“The kinchins, my dear,” said Fagin, “is the young children that’s sent on errands by their mothers with sixpences and shillings; and the lay is just to take their money away—they’ve always got it ready in their hands—then knock ’em into the kennel and walk off very slow, as if there were nothing else the matter but a child fallen down and hurt itself. Ha! ha! ha!”—Oliver Twist.]
