

per 100 lbs. and refused. It would pay farmers and breeders to feed these pigs for one or two months more, when paying prices could easily be secured. Hog products show a little advance; we quote long-clear bacon at 7½ to 8c. per lb.; breakfast bacon, 10½ to 11c.; hams, 10½ to 11c.; rolls, 8½ to 9c.; lard, 8½ to 9½c.; eggs are selling at 19 to 20c. per dozen; the supply is large, but the demand in Easter week being especially large, prices will not weaken until next week; dried apples are dull at 9c. per lb., stocks are firmly held but nothing doing; evaporated apples 18½ to 15c. per lb.; prices nominal.

SEEDS.—The bulk of the crop appears to have been marketed, and a very fair jobbing trade is being done. Quotations are much about the same. Timothy seed, per 100 lbs., has advanced 25c. to 60c., and is now quoted $3.75 to 4.50. Alsike clover also shows an increase of about $1. Quoted at $12 to $16.

WOOL.—The wool market shows considerable signs of activity, and enquiries are more numerous. The tendency on the part of manufacturers is to bear the market for lower prices. Quotations for fleece combing are about one cent per lb. lower; it is quoted at 18 to 19c.; fleece clothing about two cents per lb. lower, 20 to 21c.; other quotations unaltered.

This Company is now issuing $100, $200, $300, $400 and $500 investment bonds, payable in five, ten and fifteen years from date of issue, with participation in profits, affording all the advantages of compound interest accumulations on small sums of money. These bonds are the obligations of this Company and are specially protected by a sinking fund, invested in first class real estate mortgages. They are plain definite contracts, subject to no contingencies whatever, are non-forfeitable after one annual payment, with values definitely stated thereon. For a small outlay they secure a fixed and generous return, rate of Four Per Cent. Per Annum.

The Company is prepared to receive applications from reliable agents at all points where it is not already represented.

The Safe Deposit Vaults of the Company cannot be surpassed for absolute security. Call and examine or write for circular.
