

The total number of Sunday schools in England and Wales is 2,000,000 teachers. It is estimated that in the world there are upwards of 10,000,000 and 20,000,000 Sunday scholars.

The decimal collectors of the Association of Christ Church receive their books for the ensuing year and are now all hard at work at their usual tasks. Their efforts, and those of the churchwardens, and members of the congregation, are much appreciated.

The May meeting of the Girls' Friendly Society was remarkable for one thing, the first time since the society began its regular meetings, there was no member of the Christ Church. Of course, this was due to notice not having been given in due season, surely, with or without notice, even to those belonging to the Girls' Friendly Society. We propose, before separating for the summer, to have our annual picnic on the 20th of June, and we hope as many as possible of associates, mem-
