UNIVERSAL POSTAL UNION

CHAPTER I.

Organisation and Extent of the Union.

ARTICLE I.

Constitution of the Union.

The countries between which the present Convention is concluded form, under the title of the Universal Postal Union, a single postal territory for the reciprocal exchange of correspondence.

It is also the object of the Postal Union to secure the organisation and improvement of the various international postal services.

ARTICLE 2.

New adhesions. Procedure.

Any country is allowed at any time to adhere to the Convention.

Adhesion must be notified diplomatically to the Government of the Swiss Confederation, and by the latter to the Governments of all the countries of the Union.

Other services, such as those relating to insured letters and boxes, postal parcels, money orders, transfers to and from postal cheque accounts, collection of bills, drafts, etc., and subscriptions to newspapers and periodicals, form the subject of Agreements between countries of the Union.

These Agreements are binding only upon the countries which have adhered to them.

Adhesion to one or more of these Agreements is subject to the provisions of Article 2.

ARTICLE 4.

Detailed Regulations.

The Postal Administrations of the Union Countries draw up, by mutual agreement, in the form of Detailed Regulations, the detailed rules necessary for the carrying out of the Convention and the Agreements.
