(The Proceedings accompanying the said Report recorded as Appendix No. 12 to the Journals).

Mr. Watson, from the Standing Committee on Indian Affairs and Northern Development, presented the Second Report of the said Committee, which is as follows:

Your Committee recommends that it be empowered to adjourn from place to place within Canada and that the necessary supporting staff do accompany it.

On motion of Mr. Laflamme, seconded by Mr. Cyr, the Third Report of the Standing Committee on Privileges and Elections, presented to the House on Thursday, December 11, 1969, was concurred in.

The House resumed debate on the motion of Mr. Pelletier, seconded by Mr. Mackasey,—That Bill C-171, An Act to amend the Company of Young Canadians Act be now read a second time and referred to the Standing Committee on Broadcasting, Films and Assistance to the Arts.

And on the proposed amendment of Mr. Orlikow, seconded by Mr. Rose, in amendment thereto,—That Bill C-171 be not now read a second time, but that it be resolved that in the opinion of this House the Government should give consideration to the introduction of a measure to provide for an interim financial administrator having general supervision of the expenditures of the Company of Young Canadians without the power to interfere with the program of the Company as determined by the Council and the Executive Director.

After further debate, the question being put on the said proposed amendment, it was negatived on the following division:
