

(2) For the purpose of this section, service as a judge appointed by the Governor in Council prior to appointment as a member of the Pension Tribunal or the Pension Appeal Court shall count as service as a member of such tribunal or court as the case may be provided that if any such member would have become entitled to a greater pension or retiring allowance under any other statute if he had continued as such judge during his service on the tribunal or court he may be granted such greater pension or retiring allowance in lieu of the pension by this section provided.

Section 24
Pension Act
continued.

1192. (1) Notwithstanding anything in the Civil Service Act or any other statute, the Governor in Council may appoint a registrar of the Pension Appeal Court and a registrar of the Pension Tribunal who shall have their offices at Ottawa.

(2) Such registrars shall be entitled to receive such salaries as may be fixed by the Governor in Council.

Registrars

1193. There may be appointed, in the manner authorized by law, such assistant registrars as may be required to act at sittings of the tribunal and such medical and clerical assistants as may be necessary for the conduct of the business of the tribunal and of the court.

Salaries of registrars

Assistant registrars, medical and clerical assistants

1194. The assistant registrars and the clerical staff of the tribunal shall be under the control of the registrar thereof, subject to the direction of the chairman, and the clerical staff of the court shall be under the control of the registrar thereof, subject to the direction of the president.

Control and direction

1195. Each of the members of the tribunal shall be entitled to receive the actual and necessary expenses incurred by him for transportation when travelling in the performance of the duties of his office, and also an allowance of ten dollars for each day of not less than six hours on which he is necessarily absent from such place of residence as he may from time to time elect with the approval of the chairman.

Traveling expenses and allowances

1196. Each member of the staff of the tribunal shall be entitled to receive his actual and necessary traveling and living expenses when absent in the performance of his duties from the place at which he is directed to reside.

Traveling and living expenses and allowances

1197. All sums payable pursuant to this Act to any member of or of the staff of the court or tribunal shall be payable by the Department.
