

Dundas County volunteers raise over $17,000 for heart campaign

Heart surgeon Dr. Wilburn Keon was invited by master of ceremonies Max Keeping to "sing for his supper" at the annual banquet of the Dundas chapter of the Heart and Stroke Foundation of Ontario Thursday.

Christy Weagant, granddaughter of Dundas Heart and Stroke Foundation In Memoriam chairperson Anita Weagant, performed a highland dance to entertain guests at the foundation's annual banquet last Thursday.

Winchester Press Apr. 17/86

Heart Month kick-off success for Dundas County chapter

On Saturday, February 1, 1986, the Agricultural Hall in South Mountain was full to capacity for the Kick-Off of Heart Month.

Betty Allen, President of the Dundas Chapter of the Heart and Stroke Foundation was overwhelmed by the success of the evening.

Queen of Hearts

(Left to right) Gilles Villeneuve (P.C.), Rosaline Drewery, Tammy Allen, and Max Keeping (CJOH). Tammy was selected as Queen of Hearts by nature of a draw of canvassers active within the Dundas Chapter of the Heart Foundation over the past two years. She was presented with a bouquet of one dozen roses, donated by Muriel's Flowers in Winchester and a gift.

Kemptville Advance Feb 5/86

Dundas County's Heart Queen, Tammy Allen, accepts a $100 cheque from the South Mountain Independent Order of Oddfellows for the 1986 Heart and Stroke Foundation campaign. Presenting the donation are Noble Grand John Pinhey (left) and treasurer Gerald St. Pierre.

Winchester Press Wed., Feb. 26, 1986