

March 6th, 1925.

Andrew C. Cordner, Esq.,
President, Kiwanis Club of Montreal,
8 St. Monique Street,
Montreal.

Dear Mr. Cordner:-

About a year ago the members of the Kiwanis Club were good enough to consider our request for a scholarship for the McGill School of Social Workers. At that time your Community Fund was entirely depleted. I am writing you again in the hope that your Club may be in a position to consider the granting of a scholarship for this year.

My letter of April 17th, 1924, sets forth in detail the reasons for granting such a scholarship. The value of the scholarship would be $150.00 a year, tenable for two years. This amount would cover the fees and leave a small margin for other expenses.

There are always students who look forward to serving their community in social work, who are capable and promising, but who are not in a position financially to spend two years in preparation for such work. It is felt that a small scholarship will have the effect of attracting the right sort of person to a more extended course.

Trusting to hear favourably from you, I am,

Yours faithfully,

Principal.