THE LIBRARY

OF

ENTERTAINING KNOWLEDGE,

ILLUSTRATED WITH

Two thousand Engravings on Wood or Steel,

IN 43 VOLS. 12MO. BOUND, CLOTH ELEGANT,

For only Four Guineas.

"IN THIS SERIES THE OBJECT HAS BEEN TO GIVE AS MUCH USEFUL INFORMATION AS CAN BE CONVEYED IN AN AMUSING FORM; and it is hoped that, by presenting to those who are desirous of occupying their vacant time a book containing some of the most attractive parts of KNOWLEDGE, they will be gradually led to appreciate the value of a fuller and more systematic pursuit of studies, which, instead of being dry and repulsive, shall be capable of affording delight as well as improvement.

"Independent of the great variety which these volumes offer, there is perhaps no similar series of works which is so well calculated for all classes. The rich and the poor, the learned and the unlearned, will find here an unceasing source for instruction and amusement.

"It is not wonderful that the circulation should be extensive; it is said to be TWENTY THOUSAND MONTHLY. We own that our expectations are unbounded of the good to be done by this Series of Works."—Edinh. Rev.

"BOOKS THAT YOU MAY CARRY TO THE FIRE, AND HOLD READILY IN YOUR HAND, ARE THE MOST USEFUL AFTER ALL. A MAN WILL OFTEN LOOK AT THEM, AND BE TEMPTED TO GO ON, WHEN HE WOULD HAVE BEEN FRIGHTENED AT BOOKS OF A LARGER SIZE AND OF A MORE ERUDITE APPEARANCE."

The various Works are thus classified to suit Purchasers, and are sold separately at the very moderate Price of Two Shillings and Threepence Each Volume, bound, cloth elegant.
