

HANOVIA WINNER
AUTUMN STAKES

Three-Year-Old Wins Latonia
Feature From Smart Field
in Fast Time.

LATONIA, Ky., Oct. 23.—Conceding much weight to her opposition by carrying the impost of 115 pounds and after getting none the best of the break, Hanovia, M. A. Cotton's three-year-old Fair gelding, won the feature of the autumn racing stakes, the feature of the day, an excellent racing card at the Mill-dale course.

The event was at a mile, and Hanovia negotiated the distance in 1:39. She was slow to get going, but when she did she fairly ran over horses. At that her margin of victory was only by a nose, with Schenker second and Mars Cassidy third. The latter, however, interfered with several horses in the stretch running, and he was promptly disqualified and the money given to Vogue, Jockey Robinson, who rode Schenker, might have won the race, but he got the horse off poorly and could not put up the rousing finish necessary.

The stake was worth $1750 to the winner, $350 to the second and $150 to the third horse. Nine horses contested for the rich prize.

The stewards suspended Jockeys Murphy and Judy for the remainder of the meeting for rough riding, and Starter Moressey set down pool for three days.
