

and they draw from
which money passes
necessaries of life may
furnish the Indians
upon such necessary hands of white
stripped from the
dependence?
For these important
world—and, per-

ated at this place,
on the steamer for
which interesting
as will have been
ce, from whence I
ever get time, I may
their doings, which I
and canvass, and
y morning, and on
ar, as usual; and
readers' pardon for
stant companions.
the Missouri, and
et on her waters).
me from me; and
for the rest. Adieu.

534