great heat Mr. Stauffer faced a large audience, containing more women than men, when he arose to deliver what was probably the most sensational address ever uttered in a Toronto pulpit. After a lengthy apology, in which he touched upon the necessity of a crusade against the social evil in Toronto, Mr. Stauffer said that while the arm of the British law is powerful enough to arrest an elephant stealer.

North Toronto Schools.

Miss Mary Murray, a lady holding an excellent English teaching certificate, has been appointed to succeed Miss McKerroll at Bedford Park School.

The school reports show that at Davisville School ten out of twelve passed the high school entrance examination, and 17 out of 19 passed at Egilinton School.
