Items of Interest to Returned Soldiers Will Be Printed in This Column if Phoned or Sent In.

SOLDIER BALL PLAYER CALLED BY DEATH

The death has taken place at his home, 256 East Dundas crescent, of Kenneth D. Rogers, son of Dr. and Mrs. J. Harold Cascard. Deceased, who was 26 years of age, went overseas with the 1st Canadian contingent in 1914, being with the Army Medical Corps. He was four years and three months overseas. He was a cousin of Colonel Bart Rogers. Deceased was a great baseball enthusiast and pitched at Lords, London, in 1917, for the Astoria, who won the championship. He had a fine silver cup. Lady Astor gave him as a memento. He also played for the Toronto Veterans baseball team.

Three weeks ago Mr. Rogers took ill and on Saturday succumbed to pneumonia. While overseas his health was undermined and that was a contributory cause. Deceased was employed in the registration department of the postoffice. The interment takes place at Mount Pleasant cemetery on Tuesday afternoon.

G. W. V. A. JOURNAL SOON TO APPEAR

Ed. Stephenson of Scarborough G.W.V.A. will be the editor of the first provincial G.W.V.A. Journal yet published in Ontario. It was stated last night that the new Journal would be on the streets within the next two weeks, and that it would express vigorously the sentiments of a large percentage of the association membership in Ontario. This is but another of the activities for which Scarborough G.W.V.A. is becoming noted in the field of veterans' activities.

WORKED HARD AT PICNIC

Among those who were responsible largely for the great success of the Riverdale G.W.V.A. picnic on Saturday was Vice-President A. Jennings of the association, who worked hard for the picnic. Mrs. Kirby of the Riverdale Auxiliary and P. J. Smith were also in the thick of the innumerable details connected with the occasion.

MILITARY FUNERAL

The funeral of Sapper Norman Francis Laviole, 231 Broadview avenue, who met such a tragic death on Saturday morning, will take place with full military honors at nine o'clock Tuesday morning. The Great War Veterans of Riverdale will conduct the funeral arrangements. The place of interment will be Mount Hope cemetery. Rev. Father O'Donnell, of St. Ann's Church East Gerrard street, will officiate.

TO THE VETERANS ON NICKEL

From an argumentative point of view the reply of The Globe on the nickel scandal as published on Saturday was not worth the proverbial cent, let alone a nickel. As an admission of weakness it was a perfect masterpiece.

The Globe evaded the main issue, and for the simple reason no doubt that to have traversed the real facts would have been diametrically opposed to its characteristic policy. To have come out in the open would have been far worse than "crossing the floor."

Thus it would have been inconsistent with The Globe's previous unpatriotic attitude on the nickel question to publish the official statement made in the British House of Commons; or to so much as mention in passing even what the Attorney-General Palmer of the Wilson cabinet said concerning Capt. De Lamar and German firms controlling the metal business.

The Globe did display one bit of integrity, and that was in opening its "reply" by publishing the Great War Veterans' resolution which calls upon Sir Robert Borden and Sir William Hearst to show cause for the negligence which permitted Canadian nickel finding its way into Germany. One would have imagined on starting to read The Globe editorial that an entirely new subject was being discussed—something of which it had never heard before! Accustomed to preaching a sermon occasionally sandwiched among political clap trap The Globe is at home with texts. Consequently the G. W. V. resolution was used as a text with view to throwing dust in the eyes of a wide-awake public.

Having got the resolution off its more or less many chest, The Globe proceeds to insult the veterans by remarking: "That there is so much VAGUE unrest among them that the Government should at once order a public inquiry of the most searching description." If the unrest is as vague as The Globe would have us believe, why have an inquiry at all? As a matter of fact there is nothing vague about what the veterans have to say. They are armed with the truth. The Globe is merely taking cover, and it is rather amusing that, like The Telegram, it did not take refuge armed with a Ross rifle.

Having conceded the necessity for an inquiry no matter how "vague" the cause may be, the dear, good Globe proceeds to metaphorically mop the floor with the naughty World for bringing such an important public question so prominently forward. The Melinda street model of journalistic propriety declares "It is not in the interest of domestic peace that The Toronto World should continue to print items such as this." Then follows The World's now well-known quotation referring to Captain De Lamar and his activities.

If the domestic peace was likely to be

SEEKING TO TRACE ALL MISSING MEN

Records Offices of Overseas Forces Are Making Last Grand Tally.

Reuter Cable.

London, Aug. 3.—Records offices in London of the various overseas forces are making their last grand tally and trying to trace every man who has appeared on their books. Up to the present time about 7000, or about one per cent. of the total, cannot be accounted for. Not all these men are considered to be definitely lost. Some have gone on furlough and accepted working with the formalities of communicating with the authorities; others have married and settled down in preference to returning to camp and telling the color of their hair; others are men of whom will trickle back.

The South Africans have but 25 absentees, every other man of the 25,000 who came over being accounted for. The New Zealanders are 300 short. Most of the missing are Australians and Canadians, and it will take a long time for the military police to round them up and shepherd them into concentration camps. Some of the advertisements warning them to return by a certain date unless they wish to forego their gratuity and free passage home.

LED POLICE CHASE OVER BACK FENCES

Run to Ground at Locked Doorway—Kelly Broke Suspicious Bottle.

Chased thru Trinity square, over back fences and verandahs, Morris Kelly, 38 Wolsey street, was finally captured on Crawford street by Plainclothesman O'Driscoll, charged with a breach of the Ontario temperance act. According to the police when Kelly saw that O'Driscoll, charged with a breach of the Ontario temperance act, pulled a whiskey bottle from his pocket and smashed it down on the sidewalk in hopes that the broken bottle could not be used as evidence against him.

O'Driscoll spotted Kelly walking in the direction of a Standard party, and bottle bulging out of his hip pocket. O'Driscoll looked across the street at Kelly, and Kelly started to run. Kelly cut across a vacant field, scaled several fences, which took himself and O'Driscoll up and down Crawford and Shaw streets. Crawford street proved unhelpful for Kelly, and when he attempted to run thru the front door of a house he found it locked. An elderly woman sitting on the verandah became frightened at the approach of Kelly and was on the verge of collapsing when neighbors came to her rescue. O'Driscoll caught up to Kelly, the prisoner threw the "rock" on the pavement. Pieces of the neck of the bottle, containing the government seal, were taken to Claremont street by the plainclothesman.

Suspected of selling whiskey in his restaurant at 183 West Queen street, Ahmud D'Dosy, a Turk, was arrested Sunday by Patrol-Sergeant Marshall, charged with a breach of the Ontario temperance act.

WOODSTOCK CITIZENS HONOR WAR HEROES

Special to The Toronto World.
Woodstock, Aug. 3.—Thousands of people from all parts of Ontario participated in the big memorial proceedings held here this afternoon, in honor of the boys from this city who made the supreme sacrifice. Prior to the parade to the park, Mayor Gahagan presented the veterans with a beautiful Union Jack. The line of march of the veterans was crowded. First came the band of the Oxford Rifles, followed by the veterans of the Penian Raid, then the members of the G.W.V.A. the city council and other public men. At the park the proceedings consisted of addresses by returned officers and clergy, selections by the band, the reading of the names of the fallen. The main address was given by Capt. D. Wallace Christie, chaplain, recently returned from overseas.

LUDENDORFF DENIES STAFF WAS NERVOUS

Takes Sharp Exception to Many Statements Made in German White Book.

Berlin, Aug. 3.—Gen. Ludendorff takes sharp exception to many statements contained in the White Book, particularly the charge that he and his staff were unreliable as a consequence of nervousness. The general declared that it is strange the members of the foreign office were so ignorant of the situation.

The second note sent by President Wilson left no doubt in his mind of the necessity for continuing the fighting, says Gen. Ludendorff. He adds that he and his generals were able to precisely predict that it was possible to hold out or not.

Gen. Ludendorff declares further that Dr. Solf (secretary of state for colonies at the time) drew false conclusions when Dr. Solf said that he (Ludendorff) could not hold for three months, for he (Ludendorff) had prepared new positions that could have been held.

Gen. Ludendorff says Admiral von Hintze (then foreign secretary) informed him that the reason for the German peace offer was the separation of the peace conference from the peace conference, and that no mention was made of nervousness. He calls the description of the peace conference from August 13 to September 23 given by Von Hintze, completely one-sided, and says that his book, which is to appear this month, will clear up the misunderstandings of the situation.

General MacBrien Taking Over Duties of General Turner

London, Aug. 3.—Brigadier-General J. H. MacBrien is taking over the duties of General Turner, commander of the Canadian general staff. The headquarters staff is being considerably reduced. Adjutant-General Thacker, Quartermaster-General Hogarth and Paymaster-General Ross are all returning to Canada early this month.

PRICE OF GAS WILL NOW BE INCREASED

Company Announces It Cannot Afford to Sell at Present Rates.

An increase in the price of gas to $1.10 gross and $1.21 net per 1,000 feet, instead of $1.05 gross and 90c net, as at present, will be the result of the new rates. The company beginning with the August bills. The bills going out next week for gas burned during July will carry the notification.

"The increase is due to the fact that the price of coal, the price of labor, and everything else we must buy has gone up," said Albert J. Macdonald, general manager. "Railroad rates have also gone up. We can't buy any more for a dollar than anybody else."

TSCHAIKOVSKY WANTS TROOPS AT ARCHANGEL

Paris, Aug. 3.—Nicholas Tschaikevsky, president of the provisional government of North Russia, left yesterday for London. He will endeavor to induce the British government not to withdraw its troops from Archangel.

RUMANIAN ARMY ORDERED TO HALT

Supreme Allied Council Forbids Further Advance on Budapest.

Paris, Aug. 3.—The supreme inter-allied council sent a message today to the Rumanian government yesterday, that the Rumanian army, along the Theiss river, cease its advance upon Budapest immediately.

The council held no formal meeting today, but its members eagerly awaited further communication from the new Hungarian government at Budapest. The note which the supreme council communicated to the new Hungarian government thru the Italian mission in Budapest was temperate in tone, showing that the disposition on the part of the peace conference to assist the Hungarian people in an effort to create a stable government under the direction of the new premier, Jules Felde, must be in any sense be considered a threat of violence against the new government. It lays stress, however, on the necessity for Hungary to comply with the terms of the armistice and disarm completely. Rumania and Czechoslovakia, in addition to the other Balkan states, have urged the complete disarmament of the Hungarians immediately, and the peace conference apparently is disposed to take every possible step to prevent further military action on the part of the Hungarians.

No news has been received in Paris, indicating whether the Rumanians have ceased their advance toward Budapest, but in conference circles confidence is expressed that the Rumanians will not take the Hungarian capital against the will of the supreme council.

SAWMILLS AT COBALT DESTROYED BY FIRE

Cobalt, Aug. 2.—The sawmills owned by Clark and Francis were destroyed by fire last night, but the local brigade saved the saw and door factory.

Sparks flying across the Wabli river set fire to the dock, 200 yards away, and some damage was done to the structure, while three barges, part of a consignment of new machines just received, were also destroyed.

Second Instalment of City Taxes due August 6th. Wednesday is last day to pay your Second Instalment of Taxes.

DEFINITE POLICY NEEDED IN RUSSIA

President of Northern Government Asks That Britain Announce One.

London, Aug. 3.—M. Tschalkovsky, president of the North Russian provisional government, arrived here today to confer with British officials in an effort to induce the government to announce a definite policy in North Russia. He said that the lack of a clear-cut allied policy is affecting the morale of the North Russian population and troops and preventing recruiting.

"The allied force in northern Russia," M. Tschalkovsky said, "has never been sufficiently large to be of real aid in fighting the Bolsheviks. The reports that any nation is about to withdraw really does more harm than the actual withdrawal. These reports, which have been numerous the last few months, are keeping our people in constant turmoil. We are forever facing stories that the allies are abandoning the situation, and a definite policy one way or the other is what we need."

M. Tschalkovsky said he considered that this is the time to strike hard at the Bolsheviks because he is advised that they have ammunition for only two months and their production is at low ebb.

JURY RETURNS SEALED VERDICT

Preliminary Hearing Will Take Place in Near Future.

Altho the jury at Aylton, Ont., which investigated the death of William Umbach, who died on July 32, after being struck during an argument by Neil Collette, a Toronto cattle dealer, returned a sealed verdict on Saturday, it was stated to a Sunday World reporter by an official in close touch with the case that they had found that the Toronto man had killed Mr. Umbach.

The reason given for the sealed verdict was the fact that Collette has not yet had a preliminary hearing, but it will be officially open in a few days.

WINNIPEG WORKERS ARE REORGANIZED

Trades and Labor Council Reinstates Old Officers for Third Time.

Winnipeg, Aug. 2.—The Winnipeg Trades and Labor Council was reorganized last night by R. A. Riggs as deputy of the president of the Dominion Trades and Labor Congress. Ninety-two delegates were present and these represented 8000 workers who have remained loyal to their international affiliations, and it was announced that many more would be represented at the next gathering of the body. The numerical strength of the workers who had affiliation with the premier labor body prior to the split as a result of the One Big Union innovation was approximately 12,000. This is the third occasion on which reorganization of the Winnipeg Trades and Labor Council has been necessary. The last was in 1903, when A. G. Corley was elected president. James Winning, president; Alder James Winning, secretary; man Ernest Robinson, secretary; Councilman J. L. McBride, treasurer, and in fact all the old officers of the body were reinstated. This was not the case with the committees. The ranks have been depleted, and the elections to fill these vacancies will be held at the regular meeting of the body next Tuesday night. Local 243 of the Brotherhood of Carpenters last night passed a resolution that the Trades and Labor Council as at present constituted, was diametrically opposed to the best interests of the workers.
