Placed in the Wrong Bottle in the Dispensary, we find that deceased came to her death on June 20, at 8t. Michaet's Hospital, by being accidentally poisoned by carbolic acid. We do further say that the nurse who administered it was in no way to blame, as the solution unu been placed in the wrong bottle, and the jury do recommend that in future all poisons should be kept in blue glass bottles.

Mr. Christopher Station of Sarnia, a property owner in West Eigin, was irely pared to swear at the trial that he was not at St. Thopods on the day of the election. Stratford with the sheriff has not yet been discovered, but the sheriff's evidence about Stratford's fee is interesting. Here it is:

Q. Who did you pay for No. 4 85 Stratford's fee is interesting. Here it is:
Q.—Who did you pay for No. 4, St.
Thomas? Dan McIutyre.
Q.—Did he have an order? Yes; there was an order at the bottom.
Q.—Did it not strike you as strange to find these orders on the bottom of the statingent to pay Daniel McIutyre? It did.
Q.—Fou thought there was something wrong about it? I thought there was something strange.
And Daniel McIutyre, the sheriff swore, was Donald Macnish's nephew.

GRAND REVIEW THIS AFTERNOON.

Royal Salute for Dominion Day Will Be Fired at Noon-

Niagara, June 30 .- (Special.) -- To-day was an ideal marching-in day. The sun was bright, though broiling. The townsfolk were band and buglers, turned night into day as they marched under the moonlight to their tents in Paradise Grove. This town; is nothing if not enthusiastically military. The 48th Highlanders, with their gorgeous iforms and white knees, showing whiter ontrast with the cream serges, landed regulars took up their line of march.

Across the meadow the troops marched as if in a Yonge-street parade. It was a good sight to see them swing along, forming an example of excellent training, as well as a picture as if taken from The Christmas of Graphic. The piners placed the beautiful as a picture of the control of the lines of the line Graphic. The pipers piped, the band played and hundreds of spectators grew eathusiastic. Ah, there's nothing like the
