tracted smallpox, which was then prevalent, and for a time his friends gave up all hope of his recovery. A strong constitution, however, pulled him thru, and on July 11, 1852, he was appointed to Trinity. His parish was a big one extending from the waterfront to Bloor and from Sherbourne to the district then called Lesileville. This territory is now so largely populated as to vie in size with many a fair-sized city. In 1889 he was made canon and in 1902 he celebrated his jubilee as rector of Trinity. This unique event attracted a desire that the ladies should not wear low cut gowns at receptions attended by cardinals and other prelates.

Memphis, Tenn. Jan. 8.—The result of yesterday's city election is still in doubt. Late developments show that the election was signalized by the most irregular and riotaus scenes connected with any local political contest of recent years. In the Ninth Ward, the ballot bax was stolen, the ballots burned and two men were shot, one seriously. Gross irregularities are alleged in the Fourth and Fifth Wards, many shooting and cutting affrays are redefined.

HEAD OF NEW SCOTLAND YARD, London, Jan. 8.—Chief Detective Inspector Quinn, who has just/succeeded Superintendent Melville as head of the special service branch of New Scotland Yard, in London, is, like his predecassor, an Irishman, and it is upon his shoulders that will rest for some years to come the responsibility of watching over the safety, not merely of England's King and Queen, both at home and abroad, but also over those foreign sovereigns who may happen to visit the United Kingdom. The rew superintendent has already spent pen to visit the United Kingdom. The new superintendent has already spent nearly a quarter of a century in the police, had for a number of years been the principal lieutenant of Melville and by his services on both sides of the Atlantic, by his intuition, initiative and pluck has shown himself thoroly well qualified to take Melville's place.
