

"Appetite" comes with eating. And the hankering for Pearline comes from trying it. If you're sceptical about Pearline's washing, try it on coarse clothes, etc., first—things that you can't hurt much, and see how it saves work. Having seen Pearline's superior work you'll be ready to use it for fine, delicate, cobwebby things.

TURF

LUCK INVESTMENT.

New York, Aug. 28.—Chacornac, owned by James R. Keene, won the Futurity race at Sheephead Bay Saturday, in the fast time of 1:10½. J. J. Hiland's Brigadier was second, and Bromley & Co.'s Windmere third. It was the twelfth running of the richest stake in this country, and the second time that the Keene colors have been in front. The Futurity Saturday was worth nearly $42,000. It was won by the favorite and was altogether the most satisfactory Futurity ever run.

Twenty horses went to the post with the trio Chacornac, Virginia Earl and Doublet, Chacornac ruling favorite at $8 to 5. They were sent off with but a few minutes' delay, and were seen in the distance coming down the chute in a straight line through the cloud with dust. Modrine was first, with Doublet and Chacornac, right beside him. It was work with hands and knees to get first in to the stretch and Spencer had Chacornac in front as they rounded the long turn. As they neared the judges' stand, Brigadier came through from sixth place with a rush, cutting down Windmere, St. Finner and Modrine, and being beaten by only a scant length at the end.

The attendance was very large, in spite of threatening weather. It was exactly half past four when the lot of youngsters reached the post and their noises were turned toward the barrier.
In less than five minutes Fitzgerald caught them in line and yelled "Come on." Every one of the score jumped at once, the white webbing swished into the air and they flashed past the starter in almost perfect line. Down went the red flag and they were off on their journey in the shortest time ever seen at a big race. Modrine had a trifle the best of it, but Doublet, Virginia Earl and Chacornac were close up, and Windmere and Plucky and Brigadier were lapped on them.

In the first quarter all were driving hard for there was that wicked turn into the main track only a short distance away and everybody knew that the first horse around the corner could not have to take any chance of crowding out and would be better straightened for the run home. Bullman on Modrine was at work with hands and heels in the effort to stay in the lead.
As they neared the end, Chacornac began to fall back and as they straightened out the bay gelding Chacornac, poked his white nose in front. Spencer's red cap and white and blue spotted jacket showing up plainly, he was clear of the bunch and on the outside. The race was by no means over, however, for Brigadier was coming with a rush and in front of him shone the bright yellow of O'Connor on Windmer. The last furlong pole was reached in safety without jostling or crowding and then it was apparent that it was over, for Chacornac was going easy, Spencer having a bit up his sleeve in case of accident, while everybody was driving hard behind him.

The pace was a little too hot for Windmere and he began to drop back, for Burns was working hard on Brigadier and wearing him down fast, until a sixteenth from home the son of Raymond got his head in front and was sure of second place. Spencer was still going easily on Chacornac and as they went over the finish line the latter had something more than a neck the best of it, although he might have made it more had he been so inclined. Brigadier was in second place clear of the others, while Windmere staggered home a scant head in front of St. Fin-ner. The last furlong pole was reach-
body was driving hard behind him.

Only Friday James R. Keene purchased Chacornac from James Rowe for a sum announced to be $25,000.
Futurity, Futurity course—Chacornac won by a neck; Brigadier second by one length; Windmere third. Time, 1:10½. St. Finner, Modrine, Okettee, David Garrick, Impuls Belle, Dr. King

KNOX DEFEATS MOTHERWELL.
The Knox baseball club so enjoyed their previous games with the gentlemanly Motherwell nine that they played them for the third time this season on Saturday in Motherwell, and for the third time they defeated them. About eight hundred people witnessed the game, which was marked, as were the others played by these clubs, by the entire absence of kicking or unpleasantness of any kind, the Motherwell team taking their defeat with characteristic sportsmanlike good-nature, and Mr. Joseph Oddy, of St. Marys, un-
