Lacrosse Player Tecumseh Out for Season

To-Day at Detroit

Note and Comment

Jack Johnson the given Toronto considerable prominence in the Yankee papers this week, putting us on the map. The writer says he should have chased Jeffries to the boat, the bottomer leaving yesterday for England, for his signature to the fight articles instead of sojourning with his friend the baseball press.

Also some colored friend gave out a confidential letter in Cincinnati which declared that in case his Chicago territory manager failed Jack Johnson could procure an angel in Toronto. Guess who.

According to the despatches, Jim Jeffries posted his forfeit in New York and Jack Johnson $5000 in Chicago, the latter was trusted in his Toronto interviews as to the location of his money. In his island speech he had 41 up in New York. The black fighter announced on his arrival in Toronto Wednesday at noon, that he chugged thru from the States, when he left that city Tuesday morning, and put in the night at Ingersoll, and took the alleged fast motor from 5 a.m. till noon to reach Toronto from the last-named place, or less than 100 miles in 7 hours, a run that Tom Longboat or Alf Shrubb might make.

The distinguished party left the Bay View last evening, on their way west, to spend the week end in Chicago.

Manager Charles Querré went to Montreal yesterday fortified for last night's meeting of the N.L.U., that settled the local case with an ineffectual declaration that the player, when he was a brain storm caused by the blow on the head by the lacrosse ball. The suggestion is by Dr. Crawford, an authority on floating ribs.

A. H. Gibson, son of the lieutenant-governor of Ontario, is away ahead of all other Canadian cricketers this year. He has already made the season's little more than half over. He thus easily reaches the thousand mark, which has only been gained five times by players of the willow in Canada in recent years, those having scored 1000 runs in one year being F. H. Evans, and W. H. Whitaker.

The many friends of Mr. Joseph E. Seagram, president of the Ontario Hockey league, will sincerely sympathize with him and his family in the loss by death yesterday of Mrs. Seagram, who passed away at Port Hope, Ont.
