

DID LOCAL TEACHERS PLEDGE THEMSELVES?

Double Salary Demand May Not Be Approved By Them.

A Calgary despatch of yesterday announced that the newly-organized Canada Teachers' Federation had decided by unanimous vote to inaugurate a campaign to double the 1914 rate of salaries for teachers. The despatch added that agreement that there shall be no underbidding by Ontario teachers was given by Miss Arbuthnot of Toronto. The federation is said to represent 14,000 teachers.

As many of the Toronto teachers are out of the city it was difficult to find out if those who are members of the federation in Toronto have pledged themselves as a body to work for doubling up salaries, as stated. Dr. Noble, chairman of the board of education, when asked about the matter, said he had had nothing of the kind. He said the day is the evil thereof was the philosophy in which he summed up the situation.

Miss Helen S. Arbuthnot, who was mentioned in the despatch, has been appointed secretary of the federated teachers' organization, being the first to hold the office. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arbuthnot of 153 Montrose avenue. Miss Arbuthnot has taught in the Ogden School, Phoenix street, for some years, and her prestige among her fellow-workers throughout the Dominion is shown in her recent appointment.

BOARD OF EDUCATION ASKS MILLION DOLLARS

The Toronto Civil Employees' Union is asking permission to use the civic coat of arms on their banner.

Methodist Ministers Too Radical in Utterances

Two more Methodist ministers appear to have been too radical in their utterances to escape the notice of the police authorities. A report has been received at the Methodist general conference offices, Toronto, that Rev. H. D. Hanna and Rev. W. S. Reid had complained to the conference social service committee that they had been heckled by the police as to whether they ever traveled under an alias, belonged to labor unions, and as to their political allegiance. In consequence of these complaints the committee has issued a free speech resolution, a copy of which has been received by the Toronto members of the general conference executive. The resolution says: "Believing that constitutional authority should be strongly supported, we, on the other hand, strenuously oppose the freedom of speech in these days of reconstruction, a most valuable safeguard in our country which must be jealously guarded against all forms of militarism. We, therefore, deprecate any attempt thru intimidation to limit freedom of speech."

NURSES' GARDEN PARTY

This afternoon on the grounds of the Nurses' Club, Sherbourne street, the graduate nurses of Ontario will hold a garden party. Representatives of those nursing schools which are arranged by the provincial department of health for public health nursing will attend. The school nurses of the province, whose course opened on July 5 and will conclude this week, will also be represented. The course of the public health nurses will conclude in September.

BAPTIST CONVENTION DATE

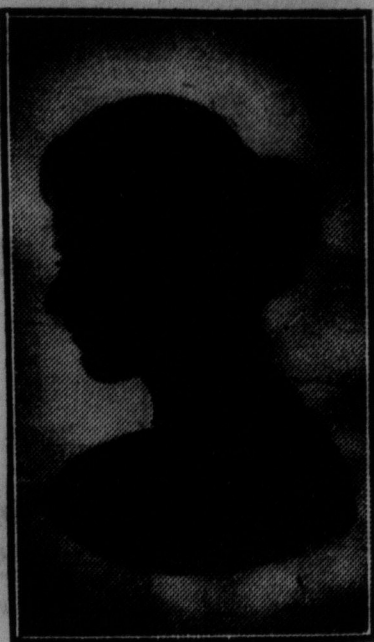

Owing to the probability of the prohibition referendum being taken during the fourth of July week, the official announcement was issued yesterday that the interprovincial Baptist convention dates will have to be changed. The date proposed for the convention was October 22 to 25, inclusive. Rev. John MacNeill, president of the association, stated yesterday that the date for the convention would probably be October 15 to 22.

DRUG CLERK PUTS TANLAC TO TEST

"Three Bottles Put Me in Splendid Health," Says Herbert Knapton.

"Tanlac has been of such benefit to me that I feel it my duty to make the facts known to everybody," said Herbert Knapton, well-known drug clerk of 15 Eppworth avenue, London, Ont.

"As the result of an accident about three years ago I was laid up and had to stay in the house for seven weeks. I got in a very run-down condition and my blood was out of order, for I broke out in pimples all over my arms. My stomach was also upset, and I had to go on special diet because of indigestion. I frequently had to take medicine for constipation and had so much neuralgia in my head that I could get no rest at night without taking a sedative to induce sleep. 'I must confess that I did not think Tanlac could help me, but a personal friend of mine was so benefited by it that I gave it a trial. I was both surprised and gratified by the results. It quickly gave me an excellent appetite and so improved my digestion that I could eat whatever I pleased without suffering any bad after-effects. It relieved my constipation, purified my blood and the pimples disappeared. I haven't got an ache or a pain in my body now and ever since I finished the third bottle of Tanlac I have enjoyed splendid health. I've been praising and recommending Tanlac ever since as a most excellent medicine.' Tanlac is sold in Toronto by Tamlyn drug stores and by an established agency in every town."

WOMEN KEEP TAG ON TAG DAY FUND

Object to Any Diversion of the Money Collected on St. Julien Day.

The board of control yesterday made a grant of $2,500 for the purpose of entertaining the V. C. men from all over Canada on the first day of the Exhibition, when there will be a general veterans' reunion.

Major-General Victor Williams stated that the returned men had agreed that the $18,000 collected on St. Julien's Day should be used for the purpose of the reunion. All that remained was the sanction of the ladies' committee who organized the tag day when the $18,000 would be handed over to the reunion council.

The controllers and the veterans' council had, however, reckoned without knowing anything of the views of the ladies' committee. Yesterday afternoon the latter met in the members' room at the city hall and conferred in private with the returned men. Major-General Williams was present and Controller Maguire was also present.

The ladies, it was subsequently ascertained, were opposed to the $18,000 being used except for the purpose for which it was collected on St. Julien Day, viz., entertainment of returned men in Toronto and the presentation of certificates.

It was argued on behalf of the council of veterans that the money would be spent in entertaining the returned men on the first day of the Exhibition and that there would be no waste. The ladies, on the other hand, wanted the money kept in the city treasury and were not averse to some of it being spent in the manner suggested.

After a long discussion no definite conclusion was reached and it was understood that a further conference with the ladies will be held.

BIG NAVY LEAGUE DRIVE IN OCTOBER

Toronto to Raise Bulk of Three-Quarters of Million Dollars.

Montreal, July 27.—Preliminary steps for the launching of a financial drive in October on behalf of the Navy League of Canada, Quebec division, were discussed at a meeting held today at the board of trade. It is to be a Dominion-wide effort, the objective of which is $750,000 and Montreal's quota is set at $100,000. Toronto is to raise $450,000.

Robert Reford, president of the Montreal branch of the Navy League, presided at the meeting, and Commodore Alexander Jarvis of Toronto, president of the Navy League in that city, was represented by Captain Douglas Kerr, a member of the staff of the league.

The meeting approved the proposals for the campaign and an executive committee, consisting of R. W. Reford, E. V. Beatty, K.C., W. E. Ross and T. B. Macaulay, were appointed to take the initial steps.

Plays, Pictures and Music

"Are You Legally Married?"—Grand.

Much more than the usual interest is expected to be aroused by the widely-discussed picture "Are You Legally Married?" dealing in striking fashion with divorce, which will be the feature attraction at the Strand Theatre next week. It is said to be a sensational powerful treatment of this question which has assumed startlingly large proportions in Canada of late. When the picture was shown in Los Angeles it attracted crowded houses to one of the large motion picture theatres there for four solid weeks. It is a dramatic story of the law of love and the tangled laws of divorce as based on a famous case in which all the evils of divorce are powerfully depicted in a way never before accomplished on the screen. The strength of the picture is accounted for by the combined appeal of a heart-stirring story and the unique treatment of a big problem of the day.

"Keep It To Yourself."

Edward H. Robbins is again going to surprise the many patrons of the Robbins when next week, commencing with the special matinee on Monday (Civic Holiday), he will present for the first time on stage by a resident company, Mark Swann's latest and most successful of farce comedies, "Keep It To Yourself," which has been running at the 38th Street Theatre, New York, where the play has just closed.

Mr. Robbins had intended playing another bill, but when he learned "Keep It To Yourself" had closed unexpectedly in order that the actors of the company have a much needed rest, he at once wired an offer that was so alluring that it was at once accepted and the manuscript mailed to him. The author, Mark Swann, has taken for his subject a theme that has been utilized in two or three very heavy dramas, but never before made the basis for a comedy, "hypnotism." This hero is a hypnotic subject, commonly called a "sleepy." Any article that is highly polished or bright will at once throw him into a hypnotic state, during which he becomes involved in many embarrassing situations. Besides the special matinee on Monday the usual business will be given on Wednesday and Saturday.

At Loew's Next Week.

The southwestern frontier in the olden golden days is the scene of William S. Hart's new picture, "The Toll Gate," which will be shown next week at Loew's Yonge Street Theatre and Winter Garden.

"The Toll Gate" is an impressive drama of self-sacrifice, redemption, manhood, as well as a glowing picture of the west that has passed away. It is a story of a "bribe" with realism and thrills. The vaudeville section of the program will comprise six highly entertaining acts, all new to Loew's patrons.

Fine Play at Regent.

"The Family Honor," now playing at the Regent Theatre, is attracting a great deal of attention and is being enjoyed by large audiences every day. The first pictures of the America Cup races, are attracting many who are taking advantage of this opportunity of seeing how the two yachts look. Next week, there will be presented the picturization of that big Drury Lane melodrama, "The Best of Luck." Kathryn Adams, Jack Holt, Little Leslie and Fred Maletesta are included in the all-star cast. It is a drama of the same magnificent sweep as "The White Heather," "Sporting Life," and "The Whip," with its dramatic surprises, its unexpected reverses, its incidents outwitting any and all of these melodramas in sheer daring and the power to thrill.

The Regent Theatre will render a splendid musical accompaniment.

ELECTRICITY MAY YET REPLACE COAL

Two New Types of Electric Heating Devices Are Being Exploited.

Commenting upon the possibility of heating Toronto's homes by means of electricity, which has come into prominence by reason of the announced discoveries of two new types of electric-heating devices, Dr. John Satterly of the thermodynamic department of Toronto University, stated that he could not give a scientific opinion on the subject without some knowledge of the nature of the new devices. Dr. Satterly was inclined to support the views of Sir Adam Beck on the subject.

"It gets dearer," said Prof. Satterly, "than electric heating may become more economical than coal, but I do not think that that time has yet arrived. Electric heating has some obvious advantages over coal, the chief of which is the utilization of all the heat energy developed, whereas in the use of coal a great deal of the heat goes up the chimney."

Dr. Satterly thought that there was not enough electrical power being developed at present to heat all of Toronto's homes by means of known electric heating devices. Because most of the power would be required in the winter, a great plant would have to be constructed to supplement the existing plants, and unless some new industries could be found that would purchase the summer output of electric power from this plant, he thought that it would be a difficult matter to secure anyone to construct and operate such a plant.

Of the two new electric heating devices one has been developed by Prof. Dorsay of Winnipeg and the other by Major William Mayall of Toronto. The Winnipeg man maintains that he can heat all the homes in Winnipeg in below zero weather at a rate that would make the cost of heating an eight-room house about $8 a month. The Toronto man does not advance such comforting estimates, but he does maintain that if the power were available Toronto's homes could be heated for less than they can by means of coal.

While P. W. Ellis, chairman of the local Hydro Commission, is ready to throw up his hat and cheer for the man who can produce a practicable device that will reduce the present costs of heating, Sir Adam Beck states that as far as known electric heating apparatus is concerned there are three grave objections. The first is insufficiency of the available power; the second, the fact that the greatest supply would be needed in the winter months, which is now the time of the heaviest demands on the Hydro system. The third objection, according to Sir Adam, is that electric heating would be more costly than coal.

It is the power could be taken at night and stored so that it could be used in the day time, it would make a great difference in the problem.

CHARGED WITH THEFT.

Annie Warren, no address, was arrested yesterday afternoon by Detective Sergeant Thompson on a charge of shoplifting. The young woman is alleged to have stolen a waist from the T. Eaton Company.
