LIBRARY AS PART OF SCHOOL SYSTEM

President of Council Urges the Necessity of Bringing Institutions Together.

Speakers at the afternoon sessions vesterday of the congress of those inerested in boys and girls were introduced by W. T. Banton, chairman of the public library board, who prefaced the proceedings by a few words in which he stated that as far as children's work in connection with the libraries was concerned the board had always been co-operative with Dr. Locke and proud of the things being done.

If lists were made out of good books suitable for childrem of all ages and kept at the schools, and children were encouraged by the teachers to consuit these lists and visit the libraries with the books and stitle for reading would grow immeasurably, especially among shoys who, he said, were greater lovers for reading than girls. He would offer a certificate for those who at the lend of the term had read a certain number of the books listed purpose of Books!

The conference was resumed at 8.15, when Dr. Locke introduced Prof. J. A. Dale, M. A., director of social service at the university, as one whose good work he had known for years in connection with McGill, Montreal. LORRAINE.

Where Lorraine originated is difficult to say. That particular form has no etymological history. But it is possible that it is the modern outgrowth of the names arising from the old Roman "lares," the little twin gods who presided over the household and were decorated with wreaths on festival days.

The special feast of the lares was on the 22nd of December and it was immediately followed by that of a feminine deity called Lara, Larunda, Larrentia, Laurentia or Acca Laurentia, who was termed in old Latin "good mother." It was she to whom prayers were made that no good slave might depart. (What a comfort her presence would be to the modern housewife).

When Greek mythology came in, poor Laurentia was turned into a nymph whose chattering annoyed Jupiter to such an extent that he ordered her tongue cut out and sent her to the lower world in charge of Mercury. But be that as it may, her name was popular among Roman matrons and existed in various forms. Lorraine is generally regarded as the French interpretation of this popular name, which slipped over the border from London, Oct. 26.—Hon. Hugh Guthrie, Canadian minister of militia, who has been on a visit to England, today informed the Canadian Associated Press that he had discussed with the War Graves Commission the possibility of a supply of headstones being secured in Canada for graves in the war areas. Mr. Guthrie says that he finds that specimens of stone already submitted from Canada have been pronounced too expensive and also too hard, but he hopes that these difficulties may be overcome.

Mr. Guthrie has arranged for the final demobilization of the Canadian military organization in London to come into effect on December 31. Mr. Guthrie sails tomorrow for Canada.

For Ladies

Said Mrs. C—— to Mrs. T—— One bleak and cold and wintry day, "You know, my dear, this time of year Is hard on folks. If only we could feel assured
Of health and comfort, 't would be fine. But it seems we can't, in such a clime.

"Well, do you know", smiled Mrs. T—"I used to think this time of year, Meant colds and sickness always near, But we heard of an easy way,
To be healthy and comfy every day.
You know Mrs. Wise, across the street, (Just the picture of health and always neat)
Well, she was told by a doctor friend She'd never regret the money she'd spend On good wool 'Undies,' the 'Ceetee' kind, Made by Turnbull's of Galt, I think she said. An advertisement somewhere then she read-Telling folks how that particular kind
Was fashioned by experts—and that you'd find
The 'Undies' they made were the better kind— Fashioned of wool that was not one bit 'tickly (Others, you know, tickle and seem sort of prickly)
That all "CEETEE" garments are so downy and soft, We'd just love to wear them-in fact, very oft Mothers buy them for babies, all fears to allay Should they go for an airing on a stormy, chill day-Why! the rain would'nt matter, neither wind, snow or frost "CEETEE" garments, in truth, are worth twice their first cost. They're the finest of high-grade underwear, And the thriftiest, best-dressed women who care, Know that it pays to buy none but the best; Don't you think we'd do well to give them a test?"

"CEETEE" for ladies is made with low cut neck and no sleeves—also with elbow sleeves and in higher neck and long sleeves.

"CEETEE" is knitted on very fine needles—this makes it very warm, soft and light.

Any doctor will advise you to wear wool next the skins it is a non-conductor, thus retains the warmth of the body, keeps out the cold—and safeguards your health.

Why not try it this winter?
