

EIGHTIETH ANNIVERSARY MEETING
OF THE
AUXILIARY BIBLE SOCIETY
OF NEW BRUNSWICK.

The Eightieth Anniversary Meeting of the Auxiliary Bible Society of New Brunswick was held in Trinity Church school-room, St. John, N. B., on Thursday evening, January 11, 1900.

The President, John E. Irvine, Esq., in the chair.

The singing of the hymns was led by the choir of the Church.

First hymn : "How sweet the name of Jesus sounds."

A portion of scripture was read by Rev. John Read, and prayer offered by Rev. Dr. Morrison.

The President delivered an address upon the work of the Society.

The Secretary's report was read.

Second hymn : "From Greenland's icy mountains."

It was moved by Rev. J. A. Richardson, seconded by Rev. Ira Smith, and

Resolved, That from the increased facilities of intercourse among the nations, the strenuous exertions of the Christian churches, and the efforts of able men to maintain the truth of God's Word, we, the friends of the Bible Society, have more and more reason to look for the final success of that book which tells us that "the commandment of the Lord is pure enlightening the eyes, and the statutes of the Lord are right rejoicing the heart."
