Archbishop-designate C. H. Gauthier will be consecrated in the Kingston cathedral on Tuesday, October 18th, the Feast of St. Luke.

The Minister of Marine and Fisheries has extended the hoop net fishing season for fifteen days. The season will open on September 15th instead of October 1st.

Sheriff Brady, returning officer for the North Riding, has received the writ for the election of plebeians, and registrar G. R. Patallo is also in receipt of the writ for the South Riding.

The Epworth League of King street Methodist church have engaged Miss Tessie MacCallum, the popular elocutionist, for a recital on Tuesday evening of next week. She will be assisted by the best available local talent. Silver collection.

Rev. A. J. Irwin, B.A., B.D., of Ayr, occupied the pulpit at the King street Methodist church both morning and evening on Sunday. His excellent discourses were listened to with interest by large congregations.

Stratford's school taxes are higher than usual this year, and the Hamilton Spectator blames Hon. G. W. Ross for it. In Ingersoll the taxes are lower for which, according to the Spectator's reasoning, Mr. Ross is also responsible.

The work on the Baptist Tabernacle is being pushed rapidly forward. Nearly all the wood work has been completed and the painters are now busy at their work. The school room is now nearly completed and all the services will be held there next Sabbath.

The funeral of the late Edwin Sage, who died on Wednesday last, in his 33rd year, took place from his late residence Friday afternoon. The solemn services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Vollick, of Swenburg. Six brothers of deceased acted as pall bearers. The funeral was one of the largest ever seen in the country. Interment took place in the Embro cemetery.

The barns and stables of Mr. H. Hopkins, Crampton, were totally destroyed by fire on Sunday morning last about 11 o'clock. The losses were estimated at $2000.00, on which the insurance company of the S. and S. Dorchester Fire Insurance Co. The origin of the fire is a mystery.

Miss Rette Chute, formerly organist and choir leader in Charles street Methodist church, latterly of Goderich, has received the appointment of director of voice culture in the Asheville College for Young Women, Asheville, North Carolina. The Asheville college is a fully equipped one, with a faculty of twenty to thirty members. She leaves for the south on the 13th.

Mrs. M. E. Acecur, of Marquette, Mich., arrived in town on Thursday on a visit to her sister, Mrs. H. Galbraith. Shortly after alighting from the train she lost her purse containing a considerable sum of money and a return ticket to Marquette. Fortunately Miss Hambridge found the missing purse and it was immediately restored to the owner. Needless to say Mrs. Acecur was delighted to receive her property with so little trouble, and Miss Hambridge received a reward for her honesty.

New Veterinary Surgeon. Office, R. A. Skinner's livery, Charles street. J. A. Durkin.

Messrs. Wm. Butler & Son, of Doreham Centre, captured the following prizes at their herd of Guernseys at the Industrial Fair, Toronto:—First on bull two years old, cow three years old, heifer called "one year." Second on the following: Bull three years old, bull calf, cow four years old and upwards, heifer one year old, and herd of one bull and four females. Second and third prize on heifer two years old, and on heifer calf. They also took third prize on cow three years old.

The open air concert given on the school grounds at Follen's Corners, by the Canadian Order of Foresters, was a success in every particular. Although the weather was a little cool for an open air concert a very good crowd turned out. The grounds were well lighted up by large camp fires, and everything was done by the committee to insure the enjoyment of all who attended. Addresses were delivered by Rev. G. E. Brown, of Salford, Thos. White, High Secretary, C. O. F., of Brantford, and R. Elliott, H. C. O. F., of Ingersoll. The addresses were interspersed with excellent music by the Foresters' band, of Ingersoll. Refreshments were served in abundance.

In Saturday's Globe appear two views of Muskoka scenery, taken in the vicinity of Port Keewaydin, in Muskoka. One is of a remarkable rock on the point of the island belonging to ex-Ald. Allan, of Hamilton. The strangely natural face which appears on the rock is thought by those familiar with it to have a strong resemblance to the features of the late Sir John A. Macdonald. The other view is of a large rock at the edge of the water, at a spot considered to be one of the best fishing grounds at the head of Lake Muskoka. Both photographs are amateur work having been taken by Earle Gibson, of this town. A catch of pickerel before breakfast on Keewaydin Island by Goldie Fleming, son of ex-mayor Fleming, of Toronto, is another excellent photo in today's Globe by the same artist.

Visiting humorist—I saw a new gag today on the Jersey mosquitoes. Jerseyite (soborly)—Don't ye deceive myself, young man. You may have seen suthin' on em' that looks like a gag, but ten to one it's only some new-fangled contrivance for gettin' a better hold.

See the advertisement of the Woodstock Fair in this issue.

The trial of the South Ontario election petition begins to-day.

A long corn stalk at J. W. Berry's store was attracting considerable attention Friday. It was grown by Mr. Robt. Mitchell, of Mt. Elgin, and measures 124 feet from tip to tip.

The quarterly meeting of the city union of King's Daughters will be held in the parlors of King Street Methodist Church on Friday afternoon next at 4 o'clock. All interested in the work are cordially invited to be present.

The wharf of Great Britain continues to be without rain, and the almost unbreathable atmosphere in London is intensified by a sultry white mist, which is so thick on the Thames that the steamboats had to stop running.

In order to keep pace with their increasing business, Macaulay & Co. have leased Messrs. White & Co's well known store, where they will shortly open with a magnificent stock of fall and winter dry goods.

The gold headed cane won by Chief Harriart at the Brantford Firemen's tournament, arrived by express Thursday night and is greatly admired by all who have seen it.

While Kew Bros. of East Nisourai were threshing at Mrs. H. Purdy's just outside St. Marys last week the traction engine got beyond control and ran into the side of the house doing considerable damage.

Mr. S. J. Prouse, of North Oxford, has been eminently successful in his exhibit of horses at the Industrial Fair this year. In the face of the keenest competition he captured the following prizes in the Clydesdale class:—Second on yearling colt; first on foal; third on brood mare; and silver medal for mare and two of her progeny.

Thos. McVea, an employe at S. M. Fleet's butcher shop, met with an accident on Thursday afternoon. He was taking a bullock to the slaughter house and getting too close to its heels he was kicked on the leg just below the knee. He was driven back to town and medical aid was summoned. Fortunately no bones were broken but his leg was bruised badly and it will be some time before he will be around again.

Oronhyatekha, grand chief of the Independent Order of Foresters in Canada receives $10,000 a year salary. As this is only $2,000 more than Sir Wilfrid Laurier gets as Premier of the Dominion, the Foresters lately added to his $8,000. And yet, says the Ottawa Journal, some people allege that the Indian race can not prosper among the white men.—Peterboro Examiner.

Mrs. Thos. Seldoo has received a valuable and interesting document from her nephew Mr. T. Seldoo, Tolton River, B.C., it being a very complete diary of his experiences during a trip to the Klondike. As the book has to be forwarded to England by the first mail, we are unable to make any extracts from it which we exceedingly regret, as the adventures through which Mr. Seldoo passed were very exciting in many instances.

A bicyclist, said to be an Ingersoll boy who was passing through the town, had a narrow escape from serious injury on Broad way on Tuesday evening. As he was coming down the street, a man who was driving maliciously turned his horse upon him, throwing him violently and damaging his wheel. The man with the horse then drove furiously away before anyone could identify him, and without seeking to learn how much harm he had done.—Tilsonburg Observer.

There was a large market Saturday. Both buyers and sellers turned out in large numbers. Garden produce was plentiful and sold at good prices. Dressed fowl were offered in large quantities but the demand was greater than the supply. Chickens, 40c pair ducks, 70c pair; turkey 7c lb. Butter and eggs were plentiful and sold for 20c lb. and 12c dozen.

Many friends will learn with regret of the death of Mrs. Archie Paul, who passed suddenly away on Wednesday. The deceased had not been in robust health for some time but had just returned from a Labor Day trip to Ingersoll when attacked by the fatal illness. She was seized with a convulsion and passed into a more violent one before a physician could be summoned. Death ensued half an hour later. Deceased was 38 years of age, and left one son and one daughter besides the husband.—Brantford Exporter.

This is the between season time of the year, when merchants, anxious to clear out spring and summer goods, have reduced prices and are making it known through the advertising columns of the CHRONICLE. Every week this paper contains new announcements—real money savers—which should be closely scanned by our readers. The CHRONICLE advertisers are among the most reliable dealers in this town.

Men of experience who know the wants of the people and are anxious to supply them. Keen competition secures low prices and permanency of residence. Low prices that goods they offer be as represented. This latter is a great safe-guard, and worthy the consideration of shoppers. To deal with our advertisers is a guarantee that everything is as represented.

Mrs. Fogg—"For mercy's sake, Daniel what are you doing down here on your knees, peering under that bureau?"

Fogg, (who has lost his collar button, and is not in a sweet frame of mind)—"Looking for the Spanish fleet;—what do you suppose I was looking for?"—Transcript.

The destruction of three and a half millions of dollars' worth of property is a severe blow to a young city like New Westminster, and those who are in a position to grant relief in the emergency will not stop to inquire whether the arrangement for fire protection were adequate or not. It is a great blessing that no lives were lost.

The wife of a certain bookseller presented him with eleven sons, one after another. The good man carried his professional spirit in family life, so he named them "Primes," "Secundus," "Tertius," and so on to "Decimus." He concluded it was time to stop at the eleventh so he named him "Finis." But it was not finis. There was yet another to come—a daughter this time—so he called her "Erata."

A little girl in a Fostic (Mich.) Sunday School told the story of Solomon and the disputing mothers: "Solomon was a very wise man. One day two women went to him, quarreling about a baby. One woman said: 'This is my child,' and the other woman said: 'No it ain't; it's mine.' But Solomon said: 'No, no, ladies; don't quarrel. Give me the sword and I'll make twins of him, so you both can have one.'

Brantfordites are making great preparations for the entertainment of their visitors during the Southern Fair which opens on Saturday and continues till Thursday.

In the floods on the Norway coast the clearness of the water is wonderful. Objects the size of a half-dollar may be seen at a depth of twenty-five or thirty fathoms.

London, Sept. 13.—Samuel L. Clemens (Mark Twain), answering a request that he deliver a lecture at Newport, Mommouthshire, writes that he has to abandon lecturing.

Macaulay & Co are moving into their new premises, White & Co's Store, and expect to be ready for business Saturday next, 17th. The large stock of new fall and winter goods now being opened. MACAULAY & Co.

"What's the reason we don't see any more of those bicycle jokes, I wonder?" "The humorists are all riding now, and things that once seemed funny to them have ceased to be jokes."

Tickets—London and intervening stations of Brantford and return for one-class single fare can be procured on Saturday, Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday good to return by any train to and including Saturday, Sept. 24th.

The Star football club held a very successful practice at the park last night. They will practice again to-night at 6 o'clock, and a full turn out of the players is requested. They are endeavoring to arrange a game with the Collegiate team.

Rev. G. P. Brown, of Salford, had his barn burglarized Monday night last. Some persons or persons broke into the barn some time during the night and stole two sets of harness and some other articles. The thief has not as yet been located, but the police authorities are investigating.

News has been received of the death of Wm. Eucimann, which occurred at Chicago on the 30th of August. Some twenty five years ago deceased was a popular merchant of Ingersoll when he was proprietor of the Oxford House, and will be remembered by old residents. Interment took place at St. Louis, Mo.

Mr. John Robertson, the well known dairyman, who last year delivered addresses at the various farmers' institutes in this section of Ontario has been ill during most of the summer. We are pleased to note, however, that he is progressing favorably toward recovery, and is now able to be around again.

The directors of the Southern Fair at Brantford are bound to make a success of the show this year and with that end in view are making a liberal use of printer's ink. They have secured some strong special attractions, which in addition to the liberal premiums offered in all departments will be sure to draw large crowds. The show lasts five days commencing on Saturday. See advt. in another column.

Mayor Mills was in Niagara Falls Tuesday, and along with the mayor of that town was invited by the mayor of Niagara Falls, N. Y. to attend the reception of the returning heroes of the 42nd regiment, who were just retiring from active service in Cuba. Mr. Mills reports the attendance as something immense, and the enthusiasm boundless. The Canadians were given precedence in the procession. Only two of the veterans were missing, and they escaped the enemy's bullets to fall victims to yellow fever.

It is not generally known that persons finding lost articles are legally bound to restore them to the owner if they know him. But in those cases where the owner is not known the new criminal code regarded as theft and punishable accordingly. A reward cannot be successfully demanded. If any trouble or expense is necessarily incurred in connection with the found articles, such expense can be recovered. The newspaper is to hold the owner or finder is expected to advertise at once.

In his evening sermon Sunday at London, Rev. Mr. Hobbs told his audience, according to the Free Press, that he was driving every christian into a corner on the prohibition question, where he became either a poor, famished beggar, or was an infidel, or the Lord if he refused, to vote "yes." He told another story of a Methodist preacher who told a country hotelkeeper that he could put him onto a means of earning a more respectable livelihood. The hotelkeeper asked in an eager voice what it was. "To hold the property of the owner," said Mr. Hobbs, said that on the principle of choosing the least of two evils he believed this was proper advice.

The fifth annual report of the Birkbeck Investment Security & Saving Co., shows the affairs of the Company to be in a most satisfactory and prosperous condition. The funds of the Company are invested in first mortgages and are only loaned to stockholders in the Company. The statement shows profit of about ten per cent in which all stockholders share. The funds of the Company are eagerly sought after by borrowers, for building purposes, the Company's plan of re-payment by instalments being very popular. Anyone in Ingersoll wishing to borrow should consult the local board whose names can be found in our advertising columns.

A goodly representation of the members and adherents of Thamesford Methodist church assembled at the residence of N. C. McCarty on Friday evening to express their appreciation of the faithful services Mrs. McCarty has rendered the church as organist during the past eight years. The token of the love and esteem of the congregation took the form of an exceptionally elegant oxny table, accompanied by an address gracefully bearing testimony to the esteemed lady's able musical talent which, so freely consecrated to the service of praise, had been, and it was hoped would be for many years to come, a great source of inspiration and blessing to all. Mr. Eckardt read the address. The committee in charge of the presentation were John Judge, superintendent of Sunday School, and Jas. Clubb, president of E. League, and Miss Phemia Day and Miss Grace Lawrence. After the presentation luncheon was served and the evening passed pleasantly in music. Walter Cole of London sang with taste. One Sweetly Sounded Thought." B. B. McCarty, Rev. Mr. Moyer, Delaware, also sang acceptably.

OBITUARY.

HANNAH BRADBURY.

The death of Hannah Bradbury, widow of the late Frederick Bradbury, took place at her residence, Charles street east on Monday. Deceased was in the 64th year of her age. She has been ailing for about a year, but was only confined to her bed for about one week. Her husband died about ten years ago. She came from England with her mother and brother, Jas. Waterhouse, of this town, in 1848, and settled in New York State, where she resided for five years. In 1852 she was married to Frederick Bradbury. She, along with her husband came to Canada in 1853 and took up their residence in Port Stanley, after which they moved to Thamesford where they lived until 1858, when they came to Ingersoll and she has resided here ever since. During her residence here she has made numerous friends, who sincerely mourn her loss. She leaves a family of six children, one son and five daughters, to mourn the loss of a kind and affectionate mother; of the firm of Bradbury & Waterhouse; Mrs. G. J. Charlesworth, of El Monte, Cal.; Mrs. Bottomley, of Saltport, England; Mrs. Wm. Thompson, and Misses Sara and Edith, of Ingersoll. Besides her family she leaves two brothers and one sister, Mrs. Dufton, of Stratford; Mr. John Waterhouse, of Tilsonburg; and a W. Kerhouse, of this town. The funeral took place from her late residence, Charles street east, Wednesday afternoon. Rev. Geo. Richardson conducted the solemn services. The remains were followed to their last resting place in the Ingersoll Rural Cemetery by a large concourse of sorrowing friends and relatives.

WALTER MASTERMAN.

The death of Walter Masterman, young son of Geo. Masterman, occurred at the family residence, King street east, on Monday afternoon. Deceased, who was chessmaker at the Maple Leaf cheese factory at Banner, was seized with typhoid fever about six weeks ago, and returned to his home here where he received the best of medical aid and careful nursing. It was all in vain however and he passed peacefully away on Monday.

The late Walter Masterman was born in the county of York in 1877 and was consequently in the 21st year of his age. About fifteen years ago he came with his parents to Banner where he has resided ever since. His father removed to Ingersoll about two years ago, when deceased decided to learn chess making business, and he remained at Banner, entering upon his work at Caddy's Maple Leaf factory. He was a member of the Methodist church and an earnest worker in the Epworth League, being very popular with all his associates. He was also a member of Court Ingersoll, I. O. F. Besides a sorrowing father and mother, he leaves four brothers and two sisters to mourn his loss, to whom the sympathy of the community will be extended.

The funeral took place from his father's residence, King street east, on Wednesday afternoon in the Ingersoll Rural cemetery. The services were conducted by Rev. Jas. Grant. The members of Court Ingersoll attended in a body. The Oddfellows band headed the funeral procession. The pall bearers were: Bros. B. Leslie, M. Gordon, Geo. Robinson, T. Leslie, S. Calvert, and T. Armstrong.

GEORGE SCOTT.

News has been received in town of the death of George Scott, of Lincoln, Neb., formerly of this town. After a lingering illness he passed away on Friday last, in his 67th year. Before coming to Ingersoll, about eleven years ago, he held the position of foreman for Wm. Merrill, contractor, in New York. When he came here he took a similar position with Mr. Angus Matheson, which he held for two years. He then removed to Lincoln, Neb., where he has resided ever since. He was a man of straightforward character and of a kind disposition and made many friends during his short residence here. After leaving here he was very successful in his calling in life and had accumulated property in the State where he lived. He was a member of Oxford Lodge, No. 77, and Unity Encampment, No. 21, I. O. F., of this town. A widow and two children, a boy and a girl, are left to mourn the loss of an affectionate husband and kind father. The son is a lawyer and is practicing his profession in a town near Lincoln. The daughter, Mrs. Noyes, resides in Lincoln. Deceased was a brother-in-law to Mr. Jas. Stevens, of this town.

A SUCCESSFUL EXHIBITION.

Mr. S. J. Prouse, of North Oxford, who was so successful with his Clydesdales at the Industrial Fair, is meeting with still greater success at the Western Fair. At the latter he succeeded in capturing three first and one third prize.

LANGUAGE NOT POLITE.

In discussing a by-law appointing a relief officer at a recent meeting of the Hamilton city council Ald. McAndrew and Nelligan had a most unparliamentary debate, calling each other such names as "Frosty face," "Drunkum bum," and "labour agitator." It was some time before the Mayor silenced the belligerent aldermen.

It takes a wise man to pick a fool whose money he can spend.

Whenever two women begin to talk things over they are sure to overtalk.

It's a wise man who doesn't let his knee know the full size of his income.

The city of Toronto has granted $1,000 to the fire sufferers at New Westminster, B. C.

I rise to greet the sweet, new day, so calm, so mild, so fair, so bright; the dawn is beautiful indeed, but just as like as not I'll need, a heavy overcoat ere night.

A whaling skipper in the old days, carried a medicine chest and a table of directions. One of the rules ran: "For sore throat with fever, given tablespoonful of number fifteen."

"Well it so happened," explained the captain, "that 'fifteen' was all used up. So I gave the man a desertportion of 'number five' and another of 'number ten,' and I don't think the chap that drew up the table could have been good at figures."

Or else, what was likely, the medicines were shame. Either way, it was hard on poor Bill. He died in half an hour, with a dreadful pain in his inside."
