Officially Inspired Statement concerning the Behring Sea Question. The following statement, written under executive inspiration, furnishes an interesting illustration of the present relations between the President and his secretary of state.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 12.—The following statement, written under executive inspiration, furnishes an interesting illustration of the present relations between the President and his secretary of state. The Behring sea question may be said to have been made toward a treaty. The feeling prevails in administration circles that Great Britain is not very much in earnest in desiring a settlement, and that even if an agreement to arbitrate passes the Senate, protests are likely to be found for delaying a final treaty until another session has opened and the Canadians have another chance of poaching. It is estimated that 40,000 seals were taken by poachers this year, 10,000 of the males, and the Canadian will probably be quite willing to see another such modern violent adoption next summer.
