

SLOANS' INDIAN TONIC

Skin Diseases

Mrs. James Stewart, No. 160 Hughes St., St. Thomas, writes: "Some four or five years ago I was troubled with a complication of diseases and was treated by several of our best city dectors, and tried all kinds of patent medicines, but received no benefit until I tried SLOAN'S INDIAN TONIC, sand I at once began to improve. My left side at one time was paralyzed and I was scarcely able to move, and had to be assisted in dressing. Before I had used one bottle my health improved, and the medicine effected a complete cure.

I can highly recommend SLOAN'S
INDIAN TONIC for all nervous disorders. It is an Ideal Blood Purifier and will do all that is claimed for it.
I will be pleased to give any information I can to any one similarly affected. Since using the medicine I have had no return of the disease. I have tagreased greatly in weight, and now enjoy perfect health.

Edward Radley Chatham. Opt

Price $1, 6 for $5. For sale by Edward Radley, Chatham, Ont

HE SLOAN MEDICINE COMPANY, Of Hamilton, Limited.

DR. SPINNEY & CO. DETROITS OLD RELIAPLESPECIALISTS

WOLEN , faint feelings, Leucorrhes, paintu any Female Disecte QUICKLY our FAMOUS PRESCRIPTION

DR. PINNEY & CO., 280 Woodward Avenue, Detroit

A Pretty Foot Goes a Long Way

But what is the use of a pretty foot, in this country in the winter time, if you do not have a perfect fitting Rubber or Overshoe. Now, this may be news to you, but you will find it to be a fact; there is only one make of Rubbers and Overshoes, in this country, that are right up-to-date in fit, finish, quality and durability and they are the But what is the use of a pretty thin, light, comfortable. Extra thick at ball and heel.

Granby Rubbers and OVERSHOES

"GRANBY RUBBERS WEAR LIKE IRON."

AMOS K. HADLEY AN OLD WARRIOR AT 85.

One of the Three Whig-Republican Politicians of That Time Still Surviving—His Politicial Views Unchanged—There Always Is a Boss, He Says.

(New York Letter.)

York Letter.)

TITING in a comfortable rocker in his pleasant apartments at 319 West 134th street, the other night, was an old-time politician who for many years, nearly half a century, has not century, has not been a factor in the

been a factor in the affairs of New York State. Although he dropped out of sight nearly fifty years ago, many old-time politicians know him and oocasionally ask for him. He was a factor in his day, and was Speaker of the Assembly at Albany in 1848, the year that Hamilton Fish was Governor. He is the Hon. Amos K. Hadley, and contemporaneous with him in Whig history were the Hon. Russell Sage, at that time of Rensselaer, and the Hon. William H. Robertson of Westehester. In fact, Mr. Hadley, Mr. Sage, and Mr. In fact, Mr. Hadley, Mr. Sage, and Mr. Robertson are the only three Whig-Republican politicians of that time alive in the State to-day. Mr. Hadalive in the State to-day. Mr. Had-ley appears to be sound as a nut. Mr. Sage is one of the most active business men downtown. Mr. Robertson is slowly dying at his home in Katonah. Mr. Hadley is an old Vermont boy. He was born at Waterford, Caledonia county, in the Green Mountain State, in 1812, at the time the young American republic was tackling and defeating Great Britain for the second time.

MR. RADLEY IN 1898.

Twenty years later he came into New Twenty years later he came into New York State and entered Hamilton College. He was compelled to leave that ancient institution of learning without graduating. He did not receive his degree of A. B., but ten years later the college bestowed this distinction on him. By that time he had hung out his shingle as a lawyer in Troy. He had various pertners at that time, one of whom was Judge John P. Cushman. Mr. Hadley, in talking over old man. Mr. Hadley, in talking over old days, said that he well remembered Russell Sage at that time. Mr. Sage kept a little grocery store on River-street, and hadn't $500 in the world, but Mr. Hadley went on to tell how Mr. Sage was one of the political bosses of Rensselaer county. He told how Mr. Sage would rustle round the county stirring up the Whigs to activity and working with industry to carry ward caucuses just as any of the young politicians of to-day do. Mr. Hadley-was elected to the Assembly for the was elected to the Assembly for the first time in 1846, when John Young of Geneseo was Governor of the State.

Mr. Hadley was Speaker under Gov. Hamilton Fish, and he retired from politics in 1850, the year that Washington Hunt of Lockport was Governor. Although Mr. Hadley was a while and a partisan of the strongest type. he told the other night of his ype he told the other night of his sofrow over the death of Gov. Silos Wright of Canton. Silos Wright was all that was great in Democratic poli-tics, and Mr. Hadley spoke of him as "a great, good, and noble man." In 1848, the year Mr. Hadley was Speaker, he went on to recall, there were 128 Assembly districts in the State. Now there are 150 Mr. Hadley said that the Whig Assemblymen at that time outnumbered the Democrata two to one, and he spoke with the keenest interest of the fact that Daniel E. Sick-les was one of his colleagues in the Assembly in 1847, and was one of the brightest ornaments of Tammany Hal Assembly in 1847, and was one of the brightest ornaments of Tammany Hall at Albany.

"When I was Speaker of the Assembly," continued Mr. Hadley, "I made up my mind I would spend my nights at home in Troy, I adhered to that resolution, except when there were night sessions and late committee meetings. I used to travel from Troy to Albany on the old Troy and Albany Railroad. East Albany was the terminus, and to get to Albany we used to have to sail over the Hudson on a ferryboat. Troy for many years put up a successful fight against building a bridge over the Hudson at Albany. We always contended that a bridge to Albany would obstruct navigation and be injurious to Troy. The New York city members of the Assembly got to Albany over the Harieun Railroad, and also by the Stonigston route, which passed through Bridgeport. It was a day's journey in those days between New York and Albany, whereas now on the Empire State express you can go in a little over two hours. When I was Speaker of the Assembly Thurlow Weed, editor of the Albany Journey Weed, editor of opened up a law office in Wall street.

Then I moved to 71 Broadway, but retired for good and all about ten years ago. I want to say that there are exceptions when young men should go into politics. Young lawyers, for instance, who enter politics become acquantity with mahili men. "Oh, yes," replied Mr. Hadley; "there was a lobby big enough to drive you blind. The hotels of Albany at that the ware crowded with lobbyists. The time were crowded with lobbyists. The sain in it too long. There is too little time were crowded with lobbysits. The gathering spots were the Delavan Hotel, Congress Hall, City Hall, and the Mansion House. The Delavan House, of course, was the greatest center. It ways a great temperate bottel in these of course, was the greatest center. It was a great temperance hotel in those days. Old man Delavan, whom we always called Landlord Delavan, had made a great forune selling ilquor and beer and he, built the Delavan Hotel from the profits of his business. "Suddenly," continued Mr. Hadley, "Landlord Delavan saw a new light. He became a great temperance adve. He became a great temperance advo cate. He filled the newspapers of Al-bany with articles attacking liquor seli-ers and giving in detail the injurious ingredients that were used in adulter-sting liquor and beer. He plastered the walls of Albany with his attacks on liquor sellers and the traffic. And at 60 years of age he married the 25-at 60 years of age he married the 25-year-old daughter of Cornelius Schuy-ler of Troy. I remember one night that I had to remain down at Albany for a meeting of the Committee on Banks and Insurance. There was a great fight over the Bank of Danville. The Committee sat in the Delayan. The session was long and heated, and MR. HADLEY IN 1848. been so and it always will be so. I re-member once I appointed a Democrat, editor of a Syracuse newspaper, who The session was long and heated, and we all got thirsty. Along about midnight it was the unanimous voice of the committee and the committee that a pitcher of whiskey punch was absolutely necessary before we could go on with the investigation. Well, sir, we couldn't get a drop of hot whiskey punch or any other kind of liquor in the Delavan, and the page of the committee had to go outside and bring in the pitchers of hot whiskey punch needed to refresh the committee. There were not many newspaper correspondents in those days," continued Mr. Hadley, "from the great New York newspapers. The Courier and Bhöuirer, edited and owned by James Watson Webb, always had a good correspondent, but no correspondent ever thought of telegraphing his matter to his newspaper. It was not thought of enough consequence was in the Assemlby at the time as a member of the Committee on Print the committee." "There were not many newspaper correspondents in those days," continued Mr. Hadley, "from the great New York newspapers. The Courier and Briquirer, edited and owned by James Watson Webb, always had a good correspondent, but no correspondent ever thought of telegraphing his matter to his newspaper. It was not thought of enough consequence in those days to do so. The correspondents would send their letters down by mail. The Express, then owned by the Brookses, then got their reports from James Brooks, who was an Assemblyman and who reported the af-

TO-DAY AND TO-MORROW.

High hopes that burn'd like stars sub-lime.
Go down i' the Heavens of Freedom And 'true hearts perish in the time We bitterest need 'em'! But never sit me down and say There's nothing left but sorrow; We walk the wilderness to-day, The Promised Land to-morrow.

from James Brooks, who was an Assemblyman and who reported the affairs of the Assembly, and from Erastus Brooks, who was a Senator and reported the affairs of the Senate.

"I well remember the session of 1847. It was the year after the Constitutional Convention, and two sessions were necessary, sitting in all nine months, to straighten out matters precipitated by the convention. In those days, Assemblymen received $3 a day. The Speaker was paid $4 a day. The greatest dandy at Albany in those days," continued Mr. Hadley, "was Mike Walsh of Tammany Hall. His blue coat and big brass buttons and biff waistcoats and bright trowsers were the delight of all the country members. Tammany was just as powers. Our birds of song are silent now,
There are no flowers blooming!
Yet life beats in the frozen bough.
And Freedom's tide comes up alwa
Though we may stand in sorrow:
And our good barque, aground to-do
Shali float again to-morrow.

Thro' all the long, dark night Thre' all the long, dark night of years
The people's cry ascendeth,
And earth is wet with blood and tear
But our meek suffrance endeth!
The few shall pot for ever sway.

The many most in sorrow;
The powers of hell are strong to-da
But Christ shall rise to-morrow.

erful in those days as it is to-day. The amusements for the legislators at nights in those days were the same as they are to-day. Card playing was the The hearts brood o'er the past, our eyes.
With smiling futures glisten!
For, lo! our day bursts up the skies;
Lean out your souls and listen!
The world rolls Freedom's radiant way,
And ripens with her sorrow;
Keep heart! who bear the Cross today,
Shall wear the Crown to-morrow.

members. Tammany was just as pow ed to call Mr. Robertson to the chair

CARTERS

O youth! flame-earnest, still aspire,
With energies immorial!
To many a heaven of desire,
Our yearning, opes a portal!
And tho age wearies by the way,
And hearts break in the furrow,
We'll sow the golden grain to-day—
The harvest comes to-morrow.

Build up heroic lives, and all Be like a sheathed sabre, Ready to flash out at God's call, O chivalry of labor! Triumph and toil are twins; and ay 'Joy suns the cloud of sorrow, And 'lis the, martyrdom to-day Brings victory to-morrow. —Gerald Massey.

IVER No Discrimination.

An aged Georgis negro. Nathan by name, is employed by a gentleman very prominent in state politics. That Nathan, also, has an eye to political favors is shown by the following conversation which recently took place between him and his employer:

"Marse Jim," said Nathan, "is you gwine in dis yere race fer governor?"

"Haven't thought about it."

"Well, ef yer does run, an' gits elected, will you give me a job?"

"Certainly I would remember you, Nathan. What would you like?"

"Well, sth, I'd des like ter black boots roun' de Capitol."

"Well, suh, "de Capitol."

"And what would you expect for that service?"

"Well, suh," he replied, "I should say four dollars a day would be reasonable.
Das what de yuther legislators get,"

Miller-Tou never see me turning around to stare at every pretty girl I pass on the street.

Baker-What! Do you mean to tell me that your wife never allows you to go out alone?

As seen as a girl thinks she owns a man she begins to set hurt and dis-pleased when he doesn't put on an overcost when he goes out into the cold."

MARRIAGE LICENSES —Jas. Holmes, issuer for the county of Kent. Office Royal Exchange Book Store.

MONEY TO LOAN on improved farm or town property at 5 and 51-2 per cent. Liberal privileges to borrowers for repayment during term. Apply to

LEWIS & RICHARDS, Barristers, etc., Fifth Street

WELLINGTON LODGE No. 44.
G. R. C., A. F. & A. M., meets on the first monday of every month, in Masonic Hall, Fifth street, at 7.30 p. m. Visiting brechren heartily welcomed.
L. F. WILSON, ALEX.GREGORY, W. M. Sec.

LEGAL O. J. O'NEILL, Ll. B. Barrister, Solicitor, etc. Office over Gordon's Stoke, Chatham. Ont. Ban RANKIN, SCULLARD & CO.—Barristers, Notaries Public, etc., Rberts' Block, Chatham.

Block, Chatham.

SCANE, HOUSTON, STONE & SCANE
Barristers, Solicitors, Conveyancers, Notaries Public, etc., etc. Private funds to loan at lowest current rates, Scane's Block, King street.

E. W. SCANE, M. HOUSTON,
FRED. STONE, W. W. SCANE,

WILSON, KERR & PIKE—Barristers, Solicitors, of the Supreme Court, Prostors in the Marine Court, Notaries Public, &c. Office, fifth St., Chatham, Ont.

MATTHEW WILSON, Q. C., J. G. KERR, J. M. PIKE.

Money to loan on mortagges at low-rates.

BANKE

STANDARD BANK of Canada

HEAD OFFICE, TORONTO,

Branches and agents at all principal points in Canada, U. S. and Great Britain. Drafts issued and notes discounted. Savings Bank Department deposits (which may be withdrawn without notice), received and interest allowed thereon at highest current

G. P. SCHOLFIELD, Mgr. Chatham Branch.

BANK OF MONTREAL

ESTABLISHED 1817.

Capital (all paid up) $12,000,000, Rest fund - $6,000,000

Drafts bought and sold. Collections made on favorable terms. Interest allowed on deposits at current rates in Savings Bark Department, or on deposit receipts.

t receipts.
DOUGLAS GLASS, Manager,
Chathain Branch.

CHAS. F. DAVIES, MUS. DOC. Organist and director of the choir at Park St. Ch., ormerly of Christ Ch. Cathedral, Montreal, and St., anner Cath. Toronto, receives pupils for plano rgan and singler. Specialist in the cultivation of the singing voice. For terms, etc., apply at residence, 15 Lorse

VIOLIN INSTRUCTION

Henry R. McCaw pupil of Wm. Yunck, Detroit Conservators of Music, will receive pupils on violin. For terms apply at residence, 8i We lington Street West.

MUSICAL.

Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Marshall, having been appointed Organist and Cholymaster of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church, will resolve-pupils in singing, voice development, plans and organ. Classes in sight singing and church pasimody, on and after Sept. 4th. Residence Park street, directly opposite Dr. Battiabu's residence

J. DUMONT.