

to mention to you what proportion of the Band are asking for that change, and in consequence, I cannot recommend its immediate acceptance; but I have the honor to suggest that the survey of that Reserve should be postponed till some more complete information is obtained, and till it is ascertained in public meeting that no other demand for new changes will be presented.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant
J. M. Proulx
