POLICE COURT.

Magistrate Urges the Police to Pay
More Attention to Our Own Home Drunks.

James Fitzgerald got drunk yesterday and took up a stand on Brussels street with the intention of enlightening the public on the war in the Far East or preferential trade within the empire. It is not known just what subject was uppermost in his mind and the officer who made the arrest says it was nothing but "rag time" he was talking. The police magistrate this morning gave Fitzgerald thirty days to think it over. The money option was eight dollars.

John McCann admitted being drunk in the North End yesterday, but said it was the first time in six months. His honor pointed out the fact that even every six months was too much and later informed the officers in court that now that the "good old summer days" were at hand and the cattleman were deserting this city for bigger fields, more time could be given to the local habits.

Maria Ferrie has gone to jail in default of payment of a fine of eight dollars imposed on her this morning by Police Magistrate Ritchie. P. Bowdin, who—so Maria stated—she loved her also has gone to the same place for drunkenness and indecent conduct.

The two gave valuable but considerably different explanations this morning but they didn't go.

O'NEIL MAKING GOOD.

Tip's Showing So Far with the Champions Has Been Splendid—A Sensational Play.

In a recent game at Mobile John "Tip" O'Neill made a splendid showing at second base. He will several other members of the Boston Americans played with the Mobile team. "Tip" did not get a safe hit, but made the leather every time. Tannehill was in the box for Boston and had the mobile and Boston combination at his mercy only three hits being secured off his delivery. The new York Herald's report says that the sensational feat was a corker, that "Tip" met the ball fairly and it looked as if all was over when Friedman went into the air and in a momentational way pulled down the ball with his bare hand. "Tip" was robbed of the home run.

All the reports from Mobile and the other southern cities where the champions have been throwing out show that the St. John boy has been doing splendid work. He was signed as a utility man and has certainly made good. First Parent was laid up and was put in to play at second. He made a phenomenal record. Next he played in the outfield and now is making a magnificent showing at second base.

STOLEN BOOTS IDENTIFIED.

More Evidence in the Case Against Beckwith and Connolly.

Beckwith and Connolly, the two young men charged with breaking and entering Wood's shoe store on Carman street on February 17th last, and stealing some boots, were before the court this morning and were again remanded.

The evidence of Thomas Davis was taken. Davis swore that he purchased the pair of boots from Beckwith for thirty-five cents, the defendant saying that they were too small in the toes for him. He later traded the boots for a pair of ligatures, but when the officers came to him about the boots he at once turned them back. His ligatures and handed the boots over to the police. The boots had previously been identified as stolen from Wood's store.

A MONSTER BEAR.

Killed on the Millstream by Francis
Dubea Last Week.

The carcass of a monster bear arrived at the market this morning from Millstream. The carcass itself without entrails and hide, weighs exactly 262 pounds. The captor of this splendid piece of bear meat is Francis Dubea of Millstream. The carcass was no sooner displayed in the market this morning than it was quickly bought up. The hide of the beast makes an exceptional piece of fur, measuring sixty-four and a half feet.

DENNIS MCCAFFREY DEAD.

Brother of Capt. John McCaffrey Dies
In Tacoma, Wash.

A telegram was received yesterday by Capt. John McCaffrey, of the ferry service, conveying the sad news of the death of his brother Dennis, who left here some sixteen years ago. Captain McCaffrey inferred from the telegram that his brother must have been dangerously ill. His fears were confirmed somewhat later when he received additional information of the death of his brother. The death occurred on the 3rd inst., at Tacoma, Wash., where Mr. McCaffrey has been living for some years past. The cause of death was meningitis. Dennis McCaffrey was about fifty-nine years old.

Capt. McCaffrey expects a letter in the course of a few days containing the particulars of his brother's death.

EXHIBITION OR TERCENTINARY.

Popular Opinion is Divided—Some Favor One, Some the Other and Some Both.

The fight between the Exhibition Association and tercentenary committee still goes merrily on and is one of the principal topics of conversation about the streets. Additional interest has been added to the matter since Aid Christie delivered his ultimatum at the meeting of the common council yesterday afternoon, when he said the North End were opposed to the celebration, and that it would be no benefit to the city. Opinion is about equally divided around town as to what would be the best course for the council and government to pursue with reference to the grants. Some think the exhibition people should withdraw their claim to the city grant and split the government grant with the tercentenary committee, while others maintain the opposite view, claiming that the farmers of the province, the back bone and sinews of the country, are more deeply interested in an exhibition, pointing out that of late years the manufacturing display has dwindled into insignificance, compared with the agricultural department.

However this may be, the tercentary people have already incurred some expense and will have several bills to meet, and as a prominent member of the committee remarked this morning, the money will have to come from some source.

PERSONALS.

Mrs. A. W. Saunders and daughter, Lillian M. Saunders, of Perry Point, are visiting friends in the city.

Capt. D. R. Christopher of Hopewell Cape arrived in the city yesterday to enter the employ of N. C. Scott.

An Easter visitor arrived at the Queen Hotel yesterday and did not register. Proprietor McCaffrey raised no kick, however, as he was such a nice little fellow and Mr. McCaffrey is receiving the congratulations of his numerous friends.—Fredericton Gleaser.

Miss Louise Price, of Havelock, Kings county, is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. G. R. Price, Princess street. Miss John R. Vaughan, of Francis & Vaughan, left yesterday on a trip to Boston and adjoining states.

Joseph W. Doody will leave for Montreal this evening.

Announcement is made that the wedding of Miss Gladys McLaughlin and Louis W. Barker, to have taken place tomorrow, is postponed for six weeks on account of Mr. Barker's illness.

Miss Georgia Christopher, daughter of Geo. Christopher, is very seriously ill at her home on St. James street, West End.

Mrs. P. S. Hilyard, wife of Postmaster Hilyard, of Fredericton, and Miss May Hilyard were in the city today and will go home this evening.

FROTHED AT THE MOUTH.

Policeman Tried to Eat Candy Made of Soap.

A well known police official was nicely nipped one day last week in a well known mill stream history. He has a particular tooth for bon-bons and when, the other day, he found his friend, the hotel man, standing near his counter quietly nibbling away at a chocolate, he at once pressed his claim for a share.

His friend, with unwonted alacrity, responded "Oh, sure, help yourself." The police official soon had in his hand a dozen or more tempting chocolates. With small ceremony he stuffed two of them into his mouth and closed his teeth over them in perfect content. His delight was short-lived.

First there was heard a hock-k-i-l-i, then a fit of spasmodic spitting: all the while there was a pitiful agonized countenance. Soon chocolates were flying through the hotel in all directions. Finally the only thing seen of the police official within the hotel premises was a flying coat-tail around the door post.

The chocolates were made of soap. No arrests have yet been made.

ST. JOHN PRESBYTERY.

The St. John Presbytery is holding its regular quarterly meeting today in St. Andrew's church. The attendance of clergymen is large. Among the outside clergymen present are Rev. Dr. S. Fraser, manager of the Presbyterian Witness, and Rev. Mr. Arnott of Newcastle.

At this morning's session Rev. D. McDerm, of Moncton, presided. The morning was taken up with the hearing of reports from the committee on statistics, Presbyterian and committee and the augmentation committee.

This afternoon's session opened at 2:30 o'clock and is now in progress.

GOOD CROWD; GOOD PLAY.

The Dalley Stock Company resumed their engagement at the Opera House last evening after laying off Holy week. They presented the well known Irish drama Arrah-na-Pogue, which was well received by an audience that filled every seat and occupied every available foot of standing room. In fact hundreds were turned away.

Arrah-na-Pogue will be repeated this evening and tomorrow afternoon and evening.

SINFUL MUSIC.

A number of west side people were detected Sunday night, when they went to a certain west side church expecting to hear orchestra music. A good orchestra had been formed, and several selections suitable for the occasion, prepared, but owing to the conscience of an elder of the church, who objected to the sinful practice of the use of such instruments, the musicians failed to appear.
