WESTFIELD HOTEL BURNED.

There will be no more trouble about Washington. Both gentlemen will be missed by many friends in St. John the Westfield hotel, for the good and sufficient reason that it was burned to the ground about 4 o'clock Thursbeen lucky. Originally the farm house of Dimock Davis, it was bought some years ago by L. H. Vaughan, who added to it and made it a very comfortable house. In the summer time it was leased for hotel purposes, but nobody made a fortune out of its management. This season the lease was taken by John G. Gunn of Fredericton and Moncton. Mr. Gunn's last Kingshurst, the popular school for girls at Rothesay, will be opened early in September, with Miss H. J. Machin as principal. Miss Machin formerly A. Jones supplied the furniture to fit out the Westfield hotel, and held a bill of sale on it. Before the furniture was sent to Westfield it was inured for $400, so that its value was above that figure. The furniture was not paid for, and Mr. Jones was ready to proceed against Mr. Gunn. # SUSSEX NEWS.

SUSSEX, July 27.-Miss Aimee Cecil Jones is being warmly congratulated upon the very pleasing success of her kermiss and delsarte entertainment given in Oddfellows' hall last evening. This event was something new to the very large number present, and judging from the applause given was warmly appreciated. The young ladies who assisted Miss Jones received the highest praise for having so readily adapted themselves in so short a time for the parts they filled so pleasingly and so well. The violin playing of Albert Weir of Boston, accompanied by Miss Boal on the piano, was certainly a rare musical treat.

A little boy of W. W. Stockton, farmer at Upper Corner, fell from a staging in the barn yesterday, receiving very painful injury. Dr. Johnson rendered necessary surgical aid.

Miss Mary Bray of Elgin, Albert taught school in Sussex, is visiting many old acquaintances, who are glad to see her.

Neil Morrison of the customs office St. John, is in Sussex today. Nei was at one time a resident in Sussex, and his nany old acquaintances (especially of the Orange order) are giving him a hearty welcome

Dr. McAlister of Bellesile, who recently graduated with honors at Mc-Gill, will open an office in Sussex the first of next week. He has secured the offices formerly occupied by Dr. McNichols in the residence of J. M. McIntyre, barrister, and has taken rooms at the Queen hotel.

Robert Connelly, manager for C. M. Bostwick & Co. of Big Salmon river, is in Sussex today on his way to Albert county on private business. He is the guest of R. C. Sherwood of the Sussex Record.

Since penning the first item in th notes I have been informed that Miss Jones, by request, will repeat her ker-miss and delsarte entertainment tonorrow evening. The case of Goggin v. Cornelius Taylor for assault at Penobsquis was being heard this afternoon, and was not ended at time of mailing these notes. Ora P. King for informant; T. Fred L. Fairweather for defence.

The Coming Changes in Seventy first Bat-

FREDERICTON, July 28.—This evening's Herald asserts it has the best authority for stating that the long expected and much needed shake up among the officers of the 71st York Battalion is about to take place. Major Cropley, Paymaster Beckwith, Quartermaster Lipsett and Capt. Perkins, all of whom have passed the age limit, are about as good as retired, and the cases of several other officers are receiving attention from those in authority. It is understood that the resignation of Major Cropley is already in the hands of the D. O. C., and will be in possession of others in the course of a very few days. It may be several weeks yet, however, before the retirements are officially announced, but they are bound to appear in due course. Colonel Vidal, when approached on the subject this morning by a reporter, admitted that some changes in the 71st were in contem-plation, but matters were yet in an unsettled state, and he was not in a position to give out any information for publication.

Rev. Willard Macdonald of St. Paul's church, left this morning for his vacation, which he will spend in Nova Scotia, joining Rev. J. D. Free an at Yarmouth. The two will pro-ceed awheel along the coast to Hali-

& LATE HORATIO PICKETT.

A large number went out on the l C. R. Wednesday to attend the funeral of the late Heratic Pickett, who passed away on Monday at the early age of 27. For the past year he had been ill, but previous to that had been cashier for Merritt Bres. for some years, and had hosts of friends among the business men. Court Hampton, I. O. F., marched in a body, and after the closing services, which were con-ducted by Rev. Mr. Warneford at the house, church and grave, consigned their brother to the grave with the impressive Forestric service. The attendance was very large, many going from Sussex, Kingston and this city. The deceased had been an active member of the Episcopal church in the Sunday school, and among the Sons of Temperance and Foresters, and had many friends who wished to and had many friends who wished to take a last look at his kindly face.
