

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report.

ABSOLUTELY PURE

NEWS SUMMARY.

Domestic.

Jesse O. Day, a workman on the Joggins railway, died on Thursday last from injuries received while engaged in shunting.

It is encouraging to see that St. John's death rate for the last week shows a large decrease as compared with other recent weeks.

Miller Bros., Granville street, Halifax, at the recent exhibition, received three diplomas on their organ and piano exhibition.

East Simcoe gave a majority of 36 for Bennett in the by-election on Thursday last, instead of 207 for Spohn, Liberal, in 1891.

The constituency of Two Mountains, Quebec, made vacant by the death of Mr. Dabout, has again elected a Conservative by a large majority.

The Sub reports that Mr. L. C. Akery, of St. Leonard's, recently encountered a den of six bears, including four cubs, and killed them all.

Ontario has a surplus of $5,285,515. Quebec has a debt of over $33,000,000. Ontario has an honest government. Quebec has had a dose of Mercatorism—price, $13,000,000 for five years.

A man named Arthur Miller, travelling from Portland, Me., to Shubenacadie, N. S., died in a second-class car of the I. C. R. at Amherst, on Friday. An inquest resulted in a verdict of death from causes unknown.

A Winnipeg letter says, "There died at Dogwood Reservoir, near Lake Manitoba, on the 2nd inst., the largest woman in the world. She was a squaw, and was married to a buck named Chipewa. She weighed 700 pounds and measured by inches around the arm. It took a coffin 7 feet long and 5 wide to hold her remains."

Not only have the steamers been lowering the ocean records this winter, but sailing vessels are also making faster time. The bark Charles E. Leungway, P. E. Island, Cap. R. B. Leungway, which arrived last evening from Plymouth, G. B., came across in fifteen days, which is probably the fastest passage ever made between the two ports—a distance of nearly 5,000 miles. She left Plymouth in ballast.

A correspondent writing from Calgary, a town in the North-West Territory, notes as a remarkable fact that at that place, a few days ago, the mercury rose from several points below zero to nearly 50 above within an hour, as a result of a westerly gale, and so remained all night. The lowest of February is not a hundred miles distant, the temperature remained steadily at a low level below zero during the same time.

The announced majority of Hon. Mr. Carling of upwards of 100 votes depends, it appears, on votes which have been objected to—the Ontario Court of Appeal upholding the objection. The voters' names were kept on the list pending an appeal to the Supreme Court of Canada. The result of the election therefore depends upon the judgment which the Supreme Court shall give. If the judgment of the Ontario Court is sustained, the result is nearly as stated; but both parties claim the seat.

The by-election in London, Ont., on Friday last, resulted in the return of Hon. John Carling, Conservative, over Mr. Hyman, Liberal. The majority is reported to be 107. Hyman's majority over Carling in 1891 was 100. In Quebec West Mr. Hearn has carried the constituency by a majority of 400. Thomas McGreevy's majority in 1891 in the same constituency was 43. It is a Conservative paper asserted, Mr. McGreevy's influence was thrown in favor of Murphy, the Liberal candidate, it does not appear to have been of any particular service to him.

An advertisement of a life of Spurgeon by Rev. Henry D. Northrup, D. D., will be found in another column. It will be a large volume in three parts, containing biography, a collection of some of Mr. Spurgeon's most celebrated sermons, and a large collection of notable passages, selected from his sermons and other writings. Judging from the prospectus, the book will be one of a very considerable interest and value. Mr. R. A. H. Morrow is bringing out the book in the Maritime Provinces, and his agents are rapidly taking orders for the work.

Mrs. Wright of Quispamsis, lately celebrated the one hundredth anniversary of her birth. She was born in St. John, Feb. 20, 1792. Of a family of eight girls and three boys, five daughters and one son are now living, and Mrs. Wright has the remarkable experience of seeing on her one hundredth birthday no less than five generations, several of her great, great-grandchildren having attained the age of 15 years. Though confined in her bed by the result of an accident, Mrs. Wright still retains her faculties to a remarkable degree. Her husband, Capt. John Wright, died about four years ago.

It was decided at a meeting of citizens on Friday afternoon to establish another charitable institution in the city of Halifax. The need of a home for aged men of some means, but insufficient to support themselves outside, has long been a public question. It is determined to appeal to the public for support in inaugurating an old gentlemen's home. Two subscriptions of $1,000 each were promised towards a fund of $10,000. C. C. Blackadar, of the Acadia Recorder, and Wesley Smith, of the Birmer, and Smith Bros., are the benefactors who have thus started the movement with financial assistance. An energetic committee was appointed to carry out the scheme, and elicit the support of the public.

British and Foreign.

There is a rumor, which a Boston paper says is believed to have foundation, that H. M. Stanley will be asked to stand for Parliament in the next general elections in Great Britain.

No members of the Royal Family will attend the Ascot races this year, and the Queen has already given orders for the Royal stand to be kept close, with all the blinds drawn down during the meeting.

A good deal of excitement was caused last week at Berlin by a labor demonstration. The police interfered and a fight ensued. By the free use of their sabres the police succeeded in routing the mob. Seven rioters were arrested and placed in jail.

The London Chronicle's Rome correspondent says: "The Pope is preparing an address to be delivered on the anniversary of his coronation. In this address the Pope will decline to abandon his rights over Rome, but otherwise the address will be couched in a moderate tone."

Edmund Yates' London cable to the New York Tribune says: "I am informed that there is no foundation whatever for the widely circulated report that there has been a difference of opinion between the Queen and the Prince and Princess of Wales respecting the place of the Duke of Clarence's burial. It appears that the Queen and their Royal Highnesses have from the first concurred in the arrangement that the coffin of the lamented Duke shall remain permanently in the Albert Memorial Chapel, and it will soon be placed in a sarcophagus near to the one in which the Duke of Albany is buried."

Mr. Balfour has for the present undertaken the tiresome duty of writing the right reports of the proceedings of the House of Commons for the Queen. Mr. Balfour's record, no doubt, will be as brilliant and epigrammatic as were the communications of Disraeli, which often resembled the political passages in his novels. The Queen's secretaries of Parliament reports sent to her by Lord John Russell, Sir Robert Peel, Lord Palmerston, Disraeli and Mr. Gladstone respectively, are preserved in the private library of Buckingham Palace, and form a perfectly unique and interesting history of the House of Commons during the present reign. It may be hoped that Her Majesty will some day consent to publish these interesting and remarkable records.

United States.

John B. Gough's library is to be sold in Boston March 22nd. It consists of some 3,000 volumes, remarkable for the beauty and expensiveness of their binding.

Speaker Crisp, of the United States Congress, is reported to be in very poor health. His physician advises his going to Florida, but he is said not to be strong enough to undertake the journey.

A Buffalo man in Nashville the other day was introduced to a southerner as coming from New York. "Oh, you are from the slave state, are you?" was the southerner's remark. Upon being asked to explain the "stranger" said he meant the state that "hills owg."

The income of Russell Sage is said to be $1 a minute, and the professor calculates that if one-tenth of Mr. Sage's income were devoted to missions he would be able to support one thousand missionaries at an annual salary of $800 a piece. There is no intimation, however, that Mr. Sage is likely to become a "tooth-giver" and an enthusiast in missions, so that probably the snites which ordinary people are able to contribute to the good cause will not be depleted.

Quoted the area of Wisconsin is underlaid with gas. In several districts deposits have been on fire for years. There are cases where the conditions have been volcanic on account of the generation of gases in the seams. One of these disturbances has occurred on the Sweetwater cattle range, 250 miles west of Cheyenne. More than 100 acres of surface was disturbed, and the report was heard for thirty miles. Coal and dirt were thrown into the air a great distance. The existence of this fire has been known for twelve years.

Mr. Charles T. Wills has obtained an order of the Supreme Court from Judge Pratt on the sheriff for the sale under foreclosure of $52,000 mechanic's lien on Dr. Talmage's new church—the Brooklyn Tabernacle. The property is to be sold in one parcel, and the sale is to be subject to the mortgage of $100,000 held by Mr. Russell Sage, as well as other liens, and Mr. Wills, who was the architect of the building, is allowed $1,000 extra for expenses. Connected with the Tabernacle have secured a stay of thirty days to perfect an appeal.

An cat in a hotel in California, it is reported, has become a confirmed inebriate. It does seem as if a cat might have more sense. But as in the case of other animals of bigger brains, it appears that the cat did not set out with deliberate purpose to go to the bad. His lapse from the paths of sobriety was a gradual one. He began by licking up sweet whisky punch spilled at the bar. From this he acquired a love of whisky straight, and his appetite for alcohol kept increasing with its use until now he can make almost as much a beast of himself as any of his human companions.

If you have a hacking cough that distresses you and annoys others—particularly in church—send 12 cents in stamps to G. A. Moore, chemist, St. John, N. B., for a box of Hackmore's Lozenges. He will send them to you by mail. They give immediate relief.

Deaths.

THOMPSON.—At Oxford, Jan. 20th, William Thompson, aged 82 years.

ROUSSEL.—At Moncton, Feb. 19, James C. Roussel, in the 61st year of his age.

MILLER.—At Oxford, of the grippe, Feb. 21, William Miller, aged 77 years.

SIMPSON.—At Mount Pleasant, Feb. 20, Clara, wife of Roderick Simpson, aged 22 years.

PARRY.—At Port Maitland, Jan. 21st, Sister Ann Perry, aged 73. Gentle and consistent in life, peaceful in death.

JOHNSON.—At Little River, Jan. 18, Mrs. Dorcas Johnson, aged 68 years, leaving nine children to mourn her removal.

MITCHELL.—At Doaktown, on the 8th Jan., Carrie R. E., fourth daughter of William and Jane Mitchell, aged ten months and three days.

DUTTON.—At Oxford, Feb. 14, Samuel Dutton, aged 59 years. He was baptized by Rev. L. M. Munroe. His sickness was lingering, but faith in Christ sustained him to the end.

COVE.—At Oxford, Dec. 14, of fever, Ehelinda Cove. She professed saving faith in Christ and was baptized into the fellowship of the church by pastor E. C. Corey, only three months before her death.

PALMER.—At Jacktown, N. B., on Feb. 29, of consumption, Holland Palmer, aged 34 years. She was left with two brothers and a number of relatives to mourn over his early departure from earth.

COVE.—At Oxford, Feb. 14, after six weeks of patient suffering, Elizabeth A., wife of William Cove, aged 69 years, leaving a sorrowing husband, three sons and five daughters to mourn the death of an affectionate wife and mother. Her end was peace.

SOLLOWS.—At Port Maitland, Jan. 25, Frank Sollovs, in the 34th year of his age. He was not a member of any church, but a number of years ago he was led to believe in Christ. We believe that it is well with his soul. May God abundantly bless and comfort the bereaved and family.

KEMPTON.—At New Granton, on the 11th of Feb., Mary, wife of the late Richard Kempton, of Kempt, aged 84 years. Mrs. Kempton was baptized by Rev. N. Vildto in her youth, and joined the Wilnot church. Over forty years she came to Queens County to live, and united with the Kempt church, where she remained a bright and shining light until death.

SIMPSON.—At her son's residence, St. John, Feb. 17th, Mrs. Thomas E. Simpson fell asleep in Jesus, in the seventy-seventh year of her age. She was baptized by Rev. Thomas Todd over thirty years ago, and united with the Jacksonville Baptist church, in which she continued to serve the Master until called to join the church of the first-born.

O'BRIEN.—At Beaver River, Feb. 2nd, of cancer of the stomach, Capt. Thomas O'Brien, aged 65. Mr. O'Brien was a highly respected citizen, and will be greatly missed in the community. His sufferings at times during the past four months were very intense; but God was with him and gave him grace to bow in submission to His will. He regretted his death, and commended his soul to the Christian life, but trusted in the abounding grace of Jesus Christ and was not afraid to die. May all the members of his family share largely in the blessings of a covenant-keeping God. Religious Intelligence please copy.

West.—At Liverpool, N. S., Feb. 16, Libbie L., beloved wife of Mr. Andrew West, in the 36th year of her age. Sister West united with the Christian church, Milton, when she was fourteen years of age, and continued a member of that church till her death. A husband, seven children, father and mother, sister and brother, and a large number of relatives and friends mourn their loss, and the departed one, no doubt, death-gate, Christian husband and children have the sympathy of the entire community. The funeral was very largely attended, and appropriate services were conducted by the writer, assisted by Revs. Nicholson, Murray and Johnson.

Urley.—At Halifax, Mrs. Ann Urley, widow of the late Thomas Urley, Esq., in the 85th year of her age. Sister Urley was a member of the North Baptist church and ever felt the deepest interest in its welfare. She was a godly woman and loved the house of the Lord. Her religious attachments were strong and deep. She never ceased to pray for her pastor and the church she so dearly loved. Her life was a benediction. Her funeral was attended by her pastor, J. W. Manning, and by Dr. Saunders, life-long friend of the family. She has left an invalid daughter and several grandchildren to mourn the loss of a most devoted Christian mother. The memory of the just is blessed, and the memory of the just is blessed.

McPHERSON.—At Halifax, Jan. 24, Dea. David McPherson, in the 90th year of his age. Dea. McPherson was one of the constituent members of the North Baptist church. He continued his connection with this church until the formation of the Third (Tabernacle), when he became one of its founders, and was chosen to fill the office of deacon. Dea. McPherson had evangelistic gifts of no mean order. He used to visit frequently outlying communities, holding religious services, and did very acceptable missionary work. Of late years, on account of feeble health, he was not able to attend the house of the Lord. He was tenderly cared for by his children. Dea. McPherson has left a widow and a large circle of friends, including sons and daughters, grandchildren and great grandchildren, to mourn the loss of a devoted husband and father and friend. The church has lost an honored member and the community a good man. His funeral was attended by Pastors Hall and Manning. He rests from his labors, &c.

PICK.—On the 25th of Dec., 1891, Dea. William Pick passed away to his rest. He was one of the most highly respected citizens of Wolfville, N. S. He was born in the year 1802, and was therefore within a few days of being 90 years of age at the time of his death. Of these ninety years sixty-five were given to Christ and His cause. He was baptized and received into the fellowship of the First Horton Baptist church by the late Rev. Theo. S. Harding in the year 1827. For many years he filled the office of deacon of the church, to the entire satisfaction of all concerned. He was sincere and zealous as a Christian; always helpful, ever in the darkest times, and ready to give a word of comfort to the halting ones. The last few years of his life were indeed "labor and sorrow." He had much pain to endure. But what he suffered for his soul's sake, his later years became "years of rest" in his latter ones. Our dear brother will be greatly missed in his home and in the church. But we thank God that we believe he has gone to his rest.

MONROE.—Died of the grippe, Jan. 10, at Folly Village, of her son-in-law, Flem. Layton, Esq., Mrs. Eliza, widow of the late Mr. Samuel Morrison, of Little Dyke, Col. Co., aged 85. In early life her opportunities for hearing a free and full salvation proclamation were very limited. But in her own home she carefully studied her New Testament, and was through the Word converted to God, and became a Baptist. At that time there was only one baptized believer between Portauquois and Onslow—Mrs. Abigail Layton. The nearest Baptist church to her home was the Onslow church, some twelve or fourteen miles distant. Trifles did not keep her from doing her duty to God as she clearly saw it. Her heart was filled in God's house, and she went up to Onslow to the conference meeting, offered herself to the church for baptism, and was received for membership after baptism; and on August 28th, 1842, she was baptized by the Rev. D. W. C. Dinick. Then the church in Great Village was organized, and Sister Morrison united with the church here. She loved the church of God; for her prosperity she prayed and labored, ever ready, when necessary required, to give a reason of the hope she possessed. When her pastor died, she was called to the church, and she loved and prayed for our missionary enterprise and was ready to give as far as her means would permit. And indeed she laid by so she could assist the church and the cause of missions when needed. Two days before her death she handed her pastor ten dollars, a gift of which were for our foreign mission. Her last moments were most delightfully peaceful. The church has lost a true helper, her son and daughter a true mother. But she has gone to her longed for happy home, so we are being "gathered homeward one by one."

STOCCOM.—At Halifax, Feb. 10, of acute mania, resulting as was supposed from a severe attack of grip, Julia L., third daughter of Dea. James Stoccom, aged 24. Deceased was converted while attending Normal School at Truro, in 1875, and was there baptized by Rev. J. E. Goucher. The profession then made was adorned by a beautiful and consistent Christian life. Possessing talents of a high order, our sister prepared to teach her Master by a course of studies at Moody's School, Northfield, Mass., graduating in 1887. On that occasion she composed a class song, which was a true and sublime expression of her own heart-purposes, and was set to music by Mrs. D. Sankey, and sung at the graduating exercises. At that time Miss Stoccom's mind was much exercised by the claims of the foreign field, but a mother and sister in feeble health at home needed her loving ministry; nor was she able to forsake her home, trust until called by the Master from toil to rest. Sister Stoccom had a strong premonition of the great sorrow about to fall upon her home. Sabbath morning, before the fatal attack, she took music to her worship, and kneeling carefully selected portions, and again and with great tenderness and solemnity pleaded with God that all might be prepared for that which was coming. Then, after expressing a sense of relief and trust, went about the duties of the day as usual. When, two days later, the terrible blow came; medical wisdom counselled immediate removal from all familiar faces and scenes. But the Master soon made known a higher departure, saying to the sufferer, "It is enough, enter into the joy of thy Lord." The church, the Sabbath-school, and the community at Port George have sustained a great loss; but special prayer and sympathy are claimed for the family in this deep sorrow.

THE UNION Mutual Life Insurance Co.

IS THE ONLY EXISTING COMPANY WHOSE POLICIES ARE OR CAN BE SUBJECT TO THE MAINE NON-FORFEITURE LAW.

How it Works: To illustrate the benefits of this law, take as an example a Twenty-year Endowment for $1,000, issued at age 25: If three annual premiums are paid upon such a policy the insurance will be continued in force 13 years and 303 days from its date; if five payments are made it will be continued in force the full period of 20 years and return to the insured in cash at that time, if he is then living, $57.88; if ten payments are made INSURANCE PROTECTION FOR FACE OF POLICY ($1,000) IS AFFORDED FOR THE FULL ENDOWMENT PERIOD (20 years) and at the end thereof, if the insured be then living, $352.31 in cash; if fifteen payments are made, insurance will be continued to the end of the Endowment period and $715.91 returned to the insured, should he survive; and proportionately FOR EVERY NUMBER OF ANNUAL PAYMENTS IN EXCESS OF THREE.

These extensions are stated in each policy, in years and days, for each number of payments, so that the policyholder knows at a glance exactly what he is entitled to if he discontinues his payments at any time.

In addition to the benefits guaranteed by the Maine Law, its present policies are unexcelled in liberality, embodying, as they do, all the liberal ideas in Life Insurance.

A FEW DOSES OF THE GRANGER CONDITION POWDER

Will repay many times the price of a package of the Granger. For those who are suffering from indigestion, flatulence, and all the ailments that cause loss of appetite, which water, stimulants, and food do not relieve. The fact that thousands of packages are sold annually throughout the Maritime Provinces proves that this is a true and sublime expression of her own heart-purposes, and was set to music by Mrs. D. Sankey, and sung at the graduating exercises. At that time Miss Stoccom's mind was much exercised by the claims of the foreign field, but a mother and sister in feeble health at home needed her loving ministry; nor was she able to forsake her home, trust until called by the Master from toil to rest. Halifax, N. S. GEO. A. McDONALD, Secy-Treas.

Life of Charles H. Spurgeon. By the noted Author, Pastor, Journalist, and World-Renowned Platform Orator, HUNDELL M. CONWELL.

A TOWERING GIANT HAS FALLEN. The Great London Preacher has passed away, and the Christian world is in mourning. In his life, the noted Preacher, the devoted Pastor, the beloved College President, the voluminous Writer, the successful Editor.

THE NAPOLION OR HOLY WARFARE IS DEAD. His big heart encompassed all creeds and all nations. His sermons and writings have been translated into every language. His name is a household word in every Christian family throughout the civilized world. He was undoubtedly THE BEST KNOWN AND BEST LOVED MAN OF HIS AGE.

For combined strength of character, force of influence, practical common sense, knowledge of men, depth of piety, and earnestness none have equaled him. He belongs to no creed. His beneficence has gone to poor ministers of all denominations, and in all his public work the breath of sectarian narrowness touched him.

Knowledge of his life will sharpen the intellect, break the soul and quicken the whole man with the pursuit through honest wit, richest experience and grand philosophy.

EVERY CHRISTIAN FAMILY WANTS THIS BOOK. It is full of interest, interest, spice and rich from beginning to close. There are millions of people, clergyman, Bible readers, students and families now ready with $1.50, $2.00, or $3.50 to pay for it. Usual large terms. Send 34 cents (postage) for one. Address: Carle Publishing House, St. John, N. B.
