

PRIZES IN THEOLOGICAL DEPARTMENT.

"Maria Billing Scholarship."

The above Scholarship, of the value of Twenty-five Dollars, is offered for annual competition to the Class in Systematic Theology. Winner 1892-3, J. E. Peters.

PRIZE IN HOMILETICS.

A prize of Twenty-five Dollars, offered by the son of a deceased minister for proficiency in some branch of Theological Study, was allotted to the Class in Homiletics, and as a result of the competition was awarded to J. E. Peters.

PRIZE IN BIBLICAL STUDY.

A prize of Fifteen Dollars, offered for proficiency in Biblical Study by G. R. Sangster, Esq., of Moncton, was won by C. H. Rice.

GYMNASIUM PRIZES.

A Silver Medal given by Mr. F. Sprague, the Instructor in Gymnastics, a Gold Medal and a Silver Medal provided by the University, and several other Prizes offered by merchants of Sackville, were won by the following, Sergt.-Major Kelly, of Halifax, being judge:

Frank Barker—Gold Medal.

T. A. Potts—Silver Medal.

W. W. Costin—Silver Medal.

OTHER PRIZES—L. McWilliam, R. O. Armstrong, S. Outhouse, and others.

The number and value of other Prizes to be awarded during the Collegiate Year 1893-4 will be announced at the close of the Matriculation Examination in September next.

LIBRARY, APPARATUS, MUSEUM, ETC.

In the course of the last two or three years valuable additions have been made to the Library and to the Chemical and Physical Apparatus of the Science Department.

The sum of Two Thousand Dollars given by the Rev. Ralph Brecken, D. D., for the purchase of books and scientific apparatus, has been the H in H place ment being Th views,

Forum
etc., e Th to the some p way in the sou Gifts of ledged.
Com
the follo
JOSHUA V
Dom
H. A. PO
ROYAL SC Report of DOMINION Reports of and P Calendars and Na and of MESSRS. M
Classics of Engl
T. B. FLINT
vols.; C Westmi
L. ALLISON,
S. D. SCOTT, Among Edinburgh vols.; Rusk